

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months. I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—Miss ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more.—LILLIE E. SINGLAIN, 17 E. 23d St., Chicago Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

BRYAN'S VIEW OF PLATFORM.

"I shall not misrepresent the situation, or appeal for votes for the ticket upon false grounds. A Democratic victory will mean very little, if any, progress on economic questions so long as the party is under the control of the Wall Street element. * * * The labor plank, as prepared, by Judge Parker's friends on the subcommittee, was a straddling, meaningless plank. * * * The nomination of Judge Parker virtually nullifies the anti-trust plank."—William Jennings Bryan, in "The Commoner," July 13, 1904.

OLD BAY STATE CONVENTION TODAY

Boston, Mass., Oct. 7.—The political pot reached the boiling point today. For the first time within memory both the Republicans and Democrats are holding their state conventions on the same day. The Democratic state convention was called to order by Mayor Collins in the Boston Theatre at 11 o'clock this morning, and at the same hour the Republicans assembled in state convention in Tremont Temple.

The convention will name candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and other state officers to be voted for next month. The Republican ticket will be made up of the present incumbents, excepting the candidacy for state treasurer, for which place there is a contest. The Democratic candidate for governor will be William L. Douglas, the millionaire shoe manufacturer of Brockton. Some talk was heard earlier in the year of Richard Olney for the head of the ticket. Mr. Olney evinced no desire for the honor, and Col. W. A. Gaston, who was twice the Democratic nominee for governor, likewise declined to head the ticket again. The withdrawal of Messrs. Olney and Gaston left Mr. Douglas in possession of the field and his nomination will probably be made without opposition in the convention. The party believes it has found an able candidate in Mr. Douglas and will advocate his election on the ground that the state should choose a successful business man for governor. The interest in the Republican convention centers chiefly in the action it will take with regard to the reciprocity issue. The Democratic platform will be framed so as to make a strong appeal to Republican business men, and the Republican managers realize that they must do something to weaken this appeal. The approval of the Boston Chamber of Commerce pronouncement as Canadian reciprocity is also urged as the only means for obtaining harmony in the party ranks. This reciprocity plank which the Republicans are asked to incorporate in their platform is as follows: "The Republicans of Massachusetts believe that measures should be taken for the enlargement of our trade with foreign countries, and especially with Canada and Newfoundland, by means of reciprocal treaties, a policy long recognized as sound Republican doctrine. Realizing, as President Roosevelt realized, in his message to con-
