At the same time ask him what he thinks of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. He will know all about it, for we send doctors the formula. For over 60 years doctors have endorsed it for coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, asthma.

Robber Gives Up Money.
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 10.—Tracked by bloodhounds to his home Karl Karrer, today gave up $1500 secured by a daylight hold up from the bank at Treynor. Karrer, who ran a saloon opposite the bank, entered it, disguised, and locked Miss Flood, the 17-year-old assistant cashier, in the vault, and then made his escape. He was not recognized, but the action of the bloodhounds led him to confess.

ITCHING ECZEMA

In July, 1885, I began to break out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and tried various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever, so I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried.

During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered. F. C. NORDOLK.
1077 Hackberry St., Ottumwa, Ia.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acids removed off by the blood that cause the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. The acid must be neutralized and the system cleared of all humors and poisons before the cure is permanent. S. S. S. is guaranteed entirely free of Potash, Arsenic and other minerals. Book on the skin and its diseases sent free. Medical advice furnished free.

BILL CAUGHT SALMON

Not content with his experience with the bear a few weeks ago, Hon. William Anderson, purveyor of exhilarating beverages, and instigator of weird tales, sauntered down to the banks of the slough yesterday, armed with a fish pole, one small hook and plenty of "bait."

"Uncle Bill" tells the story of his adventures in the following language: "I hadn't any more than tossed that hook into the slough when I realized that I was not the only live thing that laid claim on the cord. I tell you that it is something of a sensation to be on the bank of a 10-foot slough with a $20 fishing tackle at stake, and some dratted creature at the other end, and doing its best to go the wrong way. "Well, I worried along for what seemed to be an hour yanking the beast around, but I could not even get its snout above water. I wanted to yell for help, but I didn't have time. Finally after an unusually hard pull I got it on the bank, and imagine my surprise when I viewed the catch, and it proved to be a 36-pound salmon."

The fish is at his place of business on Commercial street, and may have viewed it. "Uncle Bill" maintains that he caught it in the slough, and has the fish to back up his story.

Dispersal of Whitney Stud.

New York, Oct. 10.—The sale of the thoroughbred mares and stallions belonging to the late William C. Whitney, which is to take place tonight in Madison Square Garden, is regarded in horse circles as the most important sale of thoroughbreds since the dispersal sale of Marcus Daly's Bitter Root farm. The horses are to be sold in order to settle up the Whitney estate. It is expected that many of them will be bought in by Harry Payne Whitney, who will continue the breeding of race horses at La Belle stud farm, near Lexington, Ky.

There are eight stallions in the lot to be disposed of. They are Hamburg, Meddler, Yankee, Nasturtim, Ballyhooy, Kilmarnoek, Blackstock and Sandringham.

Neil to Fight in London.

New York, Oct. 10.—About the various resorts where sporting men congregate in the metropolis a topic of conversation today was the fight between Frankie Neil, the bantam-weight champion, and Jem Bowker, the English fighter, which is to be pulled off in London tonight. Though Bowker has something of a reputation in England he is not considered by the experts on this side of the water as anything like a match for the American champion, and the latter is expected to dispose of him without much difficulty.

Navajos to Give Free Dance.
Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 10.—The 24th New Mexico territorial fair opened today with flattering prospects of success. Many visitors are already arriving, and the attendance promises to be a record-breaker. In addition to the exhibits representing the rich resources of the territory the attractions include numerous features of entertainment. Probably the most interesting of these is the Navajo sacred fire dance, in which 100 Indians, led by Chief Bearface, will take part. It will be the first time the dance has ever been given off the Navajo reservation.

Minnesota Baptists.
Minneapolis, Oct. 10.—Lay and clerical delegates are arriving in large numbers for the state Baptist convention which begins its sessions tonight in Calvary meeting of exceptional interest to the denomination. Among the scheduled speakers are Professor C. E. Henderson, of the University of Chicago; Dr. T. L. Ketman, district secretary of the American Baptist Publication society, and Rev. C. M. Antisdel, a well-known missionary worker lately returned from the Congo.

Ryan-Douglas Bout.
St. Louis, Oct. 10.—Bob Douglas and Tommy Ryan are slated to furnish the fistie entertainment at the show to be given by the Jai Thai club tonight. The two were scheduled to fight a week ago, but the contest was postponed. The meeting of the two is expected to result in a lively bout, as both are clever fighters and hard hitters.

A Great Invention.

Joe S. Purdon, now of Oregon City, who is well known throughout the Willamette valley, has been in the city for several days in the interest of a great invention, which is bound to some day revolutionize the entire vehicle business. It is an attachable ball-bearing hub made for all manner of vehicles, and can be attached at a small cost. It lightens the load and will prove a boon to horses as well as their drivers.
