THE FIRST STEP

Of the child is an event in the mother's life. How proud she feels when the attempt to walk is begun so early as to evidence childish courage and sturdy strength. Such pride should be enjoyed by every mother. But it often happens that the child is timid, weak and deficient in vitality, and clings to the mother's arms with no desire to walk or play.

Mothers should learn that to have strong children they must themselves be strong, for the child's strength is the gift of the mother.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription by expectant mothers gives them health and strength to give their children. It nourishes the nerves, strengthens the body and gives great muscular strength and elasticity, so that the baby's advent is practically painless.

"I have been using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for it is just what you advertise it to be, and can cheerfully recommend it," writes Mrs. Victor J. Hadin, of Leonardville, Riley Co., Kansas. "I began taking it just two months before baby came and was greatly benefited by its use. The doctor who attended me said I did about as well as any one he had seen (as I was sick only about three hours), and also that your 'Favorite Prescription' was the one patent medicine which he did have faith in."

"We now have a darling baby boy, strong and healthy, who weighed nine pounds when born (July 20th). During this month he has gained three and one-half pounds."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FRACAS FOLLOWED GAME

The Eugene Guard describes a football fracas at Albany as follows:

In the gymnasium of Albany college, after the football game Wednesday, occurred one of the most brutal and dastardly assaults on a college man yet recorded.

The University of Oregon players had gone to their dressing rooms, and were conducting themselves in a gentlemanly manner, when, without a sign of warning, Sam Dolan, a young tough of Albany, and who plays on the team, stepped up and planted a terrific blow on Frank Templeton's face, stunning him, and covering him with blood. The affair was unlooked for, as there was no excuse for such action. A number of Eugene players immediately interfered, among whom was Claud Gray, who received a stiff blow on the neck, staggering him for a moment. Templeton was wholly unprepared, and was not looking for trouble, but after the affair happened he begged to have it out with Dolan.

As a result of the assault, school spirit was running high in Albany, and for awhile further trouble was feared. The 'varsity students declare that never again will they play Albany, and also that if ever Dolan appears in Eugene he will be run out of town. Until Albany can cut out such men from her school, other colleges will have nothing to do with her, among which will be the Oregon University, which will do its best to get even.

The Advertisement of a Murder.

From Leslie's Monthly Magazine for October.

Advertising does increase business. Last winter a young man applied for the position of press agent with a melodrama appearing at the American Theater. He was told to furnish a sample of the sort of schemes his fertile brain could produce. That night he arose in a box during the progress of the play, leveled a revolver at the villain and fired two shots. Then he ran through the emergency exit and escaped. The papers next morning told of the attempted murder, and various theories, ranging from a wronged husband to a lunatic were brought forward to explain the affair.

The next day the papers became suspicious and doubts were thrown on the genuineness of the attempt at murder. Then the too ambitious press agent was arrested, and he confessed. This meant still more publicity. And it is a fact that the business of that particular melodrama tripled immediately after the affair, and continued large for two weeks.

BRYAN'S VIEW OF PLATFORM.

"I shall not misrepresent the situation, or appeal for votes for the ticket upon false grounds. A Democratic victory will mean very little, if any, progress on economic questions so long as the party is under the control of the Wall Street element. * * * The labor plank, as prepared, by Judge Parker's friends on the subcommittee, was a straddling, meaningless plank. * * * The nomination of Judge Parker virtually nullifies the anti-trust plank."—William Jennings Bryan, in "The Commoner," July 13, 1904.
