

tonight and Saturday, rain; high westerly winds.

DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL

VOL. XIV.

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1904.

NO. 257.

GERMAN STUDENTS OBJECT

To Italian Faculty and Serious Fighting Occurred Throughout the Night

Leoben, Austria, Nov. 4.—The coming of the Italian branch with an Italian faculty in the university last night resulted in rioting by the Germans, which continued through the night. The Germans, armed with revolvers, attacked the Italian students, and the latter took refuge in a hotel, where they were besieged. The hotel was demolished, together with the university building occupied by the Italian faculty. This morning troops engaged the German rioters and dispersed them. One German was killed and nine wounded. A German mob is now besieging the police station, where 135 Italians are imprisoned.

EASTERN OREGON RANGE WAR

Cattlemen Attack Sheep and Kill Four Hundred in the Blue Mountains

Prineville, Or., Nov. 4.—The cattle and sheep range war is again violent in the Blue Mountains. News reached here this morning that a few days ago masked men with Winchester rifles broke up and disarmed the sheep herders and killed 400 sheep belonging to U. V. Cowles. Thirty sheepmen took the trail when the herder reported, but the cattlemen had made their escape. The sheep herders and owners and cattlemen are going fully armed and bloodshed may result.

BENBOW OF MONTANA WILL FLY HIS SHIP

Inventor Baldwin Expects to Return With the Arrow to California

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 4.—T. C. Benbow, the Montana aeronaut, stated today that if the weather permitted he would attempt another flight with his ship on Saturday afternoon. Baldwin stated this morning that the "Arrow" would probably make no more flights at the fair. His contract has expired, and he will take his ship back to California to complete its mechanical work.

SENATOR KNOX WILL ANSWER CHARGE

Washington, Nov. 4.—Parker's charges of corruption, aimed at Chairman Cortelyou and President Roosevelt, will be answered by Senator Knox at Pittsburg tomorrow night. Knox spent all last evening at the White House, and practically this forenoon, consulting with the President over portions of the address.

The Credit Buyer Pays For The Accomodation

And he pays for the credit extended to his neighbors. The only way to avoid paying goods that other people bought and failed to pay for is to pay cash at a cash store.

The New York Racket

Does a strictly cash business. Not one dollar's worth of goods out on credit or approval. Every article that leaves the store must be paid for. No losses from bad accounts to add to our prices. Our expenses are very light in proportion to the business we are doing. The quantity of merchandise we use enables us to buy at the lowest prices. That's why we undersell "regular stores."

Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Underwear

EVERYTHING FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY
SALEM'S CHEAPEST ONE-PRICE CASH STORE.
E. T. BARNES, PROPRIETOR

PARKER'S CONNECTICUT TRIP WAS A FROST

Little Enthusiasm Manifested by the People of New England for Nominee

New York, Nov. 4.—Parker arrived in New York from Hartford at 9:40 o'clock this morning, having left the Connecticut capital at 7 o'clock. At Meriden 200 persons gathered at the station, but made no demonstration. A group of school children greeted the nominee at New Haven. Parker expects to spend the day quietly at the Seville.

RUSSIANS GIVE UP ALL HOPE

Stoessel Reports That His Forces Were Compelled to Retire

Rome, Nov. 4.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Giornale Di Roma asserts that General Stoessel wires the Czar that he has made his last attempt to defend the forts to the northwest of Port Arthur, and is now preparing to retire to Linnia Tishan and Tiger's Tail with 10,000 soldiers and seamen. Even Golden Hill fortress will be abandoned. Of the warships only the Pohieda is afloat, the Sevastopol and Peresviet's decks being only two feet above water, but the others were sunk. The Retvisan was burned with several wounded who were aboard.

Gibraltar, Nov. 4.—The Russian Baltic fleet passed Gibraltar, bound east, at 5 o'clock this morning. Destroyers and torpedo boats will watch the movements of the fleet.

Paris, Nov. 4.—Foreign Minister Delcasse announced today that the inquiry commission which will investigate the Doggar bay tragedy will meet at Paris. Russia and England, he said were in perfect accord as to the terms of the convention and the composition of the commission.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 4.—A train load of 1200 bales of cotton left here today for New Orleans, consigned to Nagasaki, Japan. Large quantities of Texas cotton is being shipped to Japan.

Shanghai, Nov. 4.—The steamer Victoria, which has arrived from Port Arthur, after running the blockade with a cargo of beef, confirms the report that the Japanese have captured all the main northeastern positions of the fortress.

Tungier, Nov. 4.—Admiral Rojestvensky landed here this afternoon from the flagship accompanied by several officers. He called on the sultan's minister here, and then proceeded to the Russian legation. Salutes were exchanged by the fleet and land batteries.

BANCROFT GENERAL MANAGER

Salt Lake, Nov. 4.—A circular has been issued, signed by E. H. Harriman, appointing W. H. Bancroft at present vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line, as acting general manager of the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific, vice C. H. Markham resigned. Bancroft left today for San Francisco. It is announced that this is only a temporary arrangement and it is believed that E. E. Calvin will be appointed as soon as a suitable man is selected to succeed him as general manager of the O. R. & N. at Portland.

POLES REVOLT AT WAR

Brestle, Nov. 4.—As a protest against mobilization 3000 Poles marched through the streets of Czestochowa, Russian-Poland, a detachment of infantry charged the mob with bayonets, and six were killed and 20 wounded.

OCEAN STEAMER SINKS

Bonae, Algeria, Nov. 4.—The steamers Gironde and Schiaffino collided off the Algerian coast today and the Gironde was sunk. One hundred people were reported to have been drowned.

Only one small boat, with 10 occupants, reached port. Many of the victims were women and children. A number of lifeboats were launched, but swamped. Many passengers were asleep at the time of the collision, and were drowned like rats. The Gironde had only left this port two hours when the catastrophe occurred. The Schiaffino, is a French steamer, and is in a disabled condition, and may also have foundered.

ANOTHER PEACE TREATY

Berlin, Nov. 4.—It is learned that an arbitration treaty will soon be concluded between Germany and the United States. America, it is ascertained made the proposals for the treaty. The details are not settled yet.

Minnesota Pedagogues in Session. Rochester, Minn., Nov. 4.—The Southeastern Educational Association began its annual meeting in Rochester today and will remain in session through tomorrow. President Northrop, of the University of Minnesota, will make the principal address.

FERRY BOAT SANK AT BROOKLYN SLIP

Collided With Steamer During Fog, but Passenger Were Saved

New York, Nov. 4.—During a dense fog this morning the steamer City of Lowell collided with the ferryboat Columbia. The ferryboat was badly damaged, but the steamer assisted the ferryboat to her slip in Brooklyn, where all the passengers were landed. As the last passenger reached the dock the Columbia sank, carrying down 11 horses and trucks.

YANGER HANLON MATCH

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Bod Deady, manager of the National Athletic Club, of Philadelphia, today offered Benny Yanger a match with Eddie Hanlon, the pride of the Pacific coast. The club will give 60 per cent gross to be divided as the fighters choose, with the weight at probably 130 pounds. Owing to a match with McNamara at Peria, November 11th, Yanger is unable to sign with Hanlon until that event is pulled off, but says, however, that he will accept the match. "Nothing would please me more than to get a crack at this Hanlon again," said Yanger today.

ITALIANS ATTACK FOREMAN

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 4.—In a fight with a gang of Italian laborers at Egypt this morning Foreman Dean was fatally injured, two Italians were killed, and several wounded. Dean was attacked by the Italians and stabbed in a hundred places. Before he fell he used his revolver effectively on his assailants.

Shot Broke Up Home. Los Angeles, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Griffith was granted a divorce from Colonel Griffith J. Griffith. There was no contest as Griffith is now under sentence of two years for shooting his wife.

RUNAWAY STREET CAR COLLIDES WITH WAGON

McKeesport, Pa., Nov. 4.—A runaway street car this morning crashed into a loaded wagon, throwing the contents of the wagon among the passengers. Motorman Thomas Parham was killed and several passengers were injured, some perhaps fatally.

ROBBERS ESCAPE WITH LARGE SUM OF MONEY

Buffalo, Nov. 4.—Four masked men escaped with from $25,000 to $36,000. The explosion aroused the citizens, and in their haste the robbers dropped several bags of money.

The Best Dry Goods Store in Salem

Jos. Meyers & Sons

SALEM'S GREATEST STORE
THE "WHITE CORNER" (TRADE MARK REGISTERED)

We Sell Everything That Women Wear

Blanket Time Is Hurrying On

When blanket time comes—and it is coming on apace—remember that we have the largest stock of blankets in the Willamette Valley. By GOOD BLANKETS we do not mean blankets at a high price, for we have excellent, generous-sized blankets at 50c pair, and large wool blankets at $12 pair. With the exception of a few pairs they are all new—this season's goods. When you look at our blankets, kindly note the QUALITY and SIZE, two things you will remember long after the price you paid is forgotten. While our blanket prices are the lowest in town, consider quality and size of first importance. Here are four of our blanket items:

Cotton Blankets

In either gray or tan with fancy borders, stitched ends, 50x72 inches, extra heavy—the pair

50c

Cotton Blankets

In tan, white or gray, fancy blue or pink striped borders, stitched ends, 62x76 inches in size, warm as wool—the pair

$1.00

Others up to $2.00 pair

Woolen Blankets

Made of pure white wool, fancy blue or pink borders, ends bound with mohair, 64x80 inches the pair.

$5.00

Others up to $12.00 pair.

Fine Gray Blankets

Made of the finest all wool, full four pounds, handsome borders, size 64x80 inches, excellent value—the pair.

$6.00

Others up to $10.00 pair.

WE HAVE OTHER BEDDING, such as spreads, sheets, pillow cases, comforters, pillows, etc., in big varieties and at prices that are surprisingly low. Come and look, whether you are ready to buy or not.