JAPANESE RUSH PORT
ARTHUR TRENCHES

Russians Save Their Ammunition to Use at Close Range Firing

Chefoo, Nov. 5.—A junk, which has arrived from Dalny, reports that the bombardment of Port Arthur stopped at 2 o'clock on the morning of November 3d, but was resumed at daybreak, when the Japanese rushed several trenches and took one fort. The Russians are husbanding their ammunition, and only firing during actual assaults.

London, Nov. 5.—A dispatch from Tokio states that the explosion of the Russian magazine on Palyin mountain was caused by the bursting of a Japanese shell, and resulted in the destruction of a large quantity of provisions. The blow will be seriously felt by the besieged.

Tokio, Nov. 5.—A report has reached here that the Japanese have occupied Wantai Hill, sunk several transports and set fire to a battleship at Port Arthur.

Copenhagen, Nov. 5.—It is reported that the Baltic fleet fired on the Danish torpedo boat Sabajern, while off Langeland island, but did not hit her. It is stated that the Danish government is attempting to conceal the incident, fearing complications with Russia.

Tangier, Nov. 5.—The Russian Baltic fleet is again en route to the Far East. The remainder of Admiral Rojstvensky's vessels, which put in here yesterday, sailed this morning.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—It is announced that the Russian government has accepted the telegraphic draft of the convention for a commission of inquiry into the Dogger Bank incident, which was submitted to Russia on Wednesday. The final exchanges will be ratified at London, and the commission, which will sit in Paris, will consist of five members, to be composed of Russian, British, American and French representatives, these four to choose the fifth.

Mukden, Nov. 5.—Indications point to a renewal of the battle at Hungshao, which position was captured by the Japanese on November 12th, as the Japanese are now shelling the Russians. The fighting may become more general. The advantage of position appears to favor the Japanese along the entire front. The Russian soldiers are living mostly in dugouts, and are suffering many hardships. Their clothing is insufficient, and sometimes they only get one meal a day.

Chefoo, Nov. 5.—The Norwegian steamer Tungus arrived here with 700 Chinese refugees from Vladivostok. The refugees are unable to live at Vladivostok, owing to the high prices and scarcity of food. They say the fortifications there are being increased in number and strength, and are strongly garrisoned.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—Major-General Mischevko, commander of the eastern Cossack brigade, was appointed lieutenant-general and aide de camp to the emperor for distinguished services.

London, Nov. 5.—The foreign office has received Russia's acceptance of the outline of the Anglo-Russian convention. Several details still remain to be settled, however.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—It is reported here that Russia will produce a message sent by the Japanese minister at The Hague, which contains complete evidence that the officials had effectually organized for an attack on the Russian Baltic squadron. The message will be referred to the commission of inquiry.

LINN COUNTY COUPLE

Disappear at the Same Time and Ugly Rumors Are Rife

Halsey, Nov. 5.—Since last Friday two prominent Halsey people have been missing. Monroe Miller, a well-known farmer, and a member of a prominent family, suddenly left for parts unknown. At the same time Mrs. Florence Allen, wife of Wid Allen, a prominent farmer living southeast of Halsey, also disappeared. Considerable speculation is rife as to where the pair have gone, events before the elopements pointing undoubtedly to the fact that they conspired to get what money they could and then seek another country in each other's company. Miller is said to have recently borrowed $2500 in sums of $1800 and $700, he claimed, for the purpose of paying off debts, but the money went with him instead of paying off debts. The money was borrowed on a tract of land that had been deeded him by his father, Enoch Miller, in which the latter held a life interest, and the $700 on a note with his brother as security.

Miller deserted his wife and three children, the youngest a daughter about 17 years old.

Mason and Mason Tonight.
Mason and Mason, in their new musical comedy, "Fritz and Snitz," under the direction of Messrs. Broadhurst & Currie will be seen at the Grand tonight. Few musical comedies have ever, or will ever, make a better impression than "Fritz and Snitz." As far as fun and music is concerned it cannot be outdone. It is one continuous laugh, dotted with the brightest and most tuneful musical gems, and only the intermissions between the acts serve to restore your breathing capacity. The special cast engaged is very strong and includes some bright lights of the musical comedy stage. The chorus has been highly praised, for the girls sing and dance well, being perfectly drilled and form interesting groups. The scenery for this production is entirely new and the gowns worn by the show girls are considered superb creations.

Saturday Night Prices
The prices for Mason and Mason on Saturday night will be 75c, 50c, 35c and 25c.

WORTH A KING'S RANSOM.

Saved From the Maelstrom of Catarrh How Peruna Saves Lives

MRS. COL. E. J. GRESHAM, Treasurer, Daughters of the Confederacy, and President Herndon Village Improvement Society, writes the following letter from Herndon, Fairfax county, Va.:

Herndon, Va.
The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen—"I cannot speak too highly of the value of Peruna. I believe that I owe my life to its wonderful merits. I suffered with catarrh of the head and lungs in its worst form, until the doctors fairly gave me up, and I despaired of ever getting well again. "I noticed your advertisement and the splendid testimonials given by people who had been cured by Peruna, and determined to try a bottle. I felt but little better, but used a second and a third bottle and kept on improving slowly. "It took six bottles to cure me, but they were worth a king's ransom to me. I talk Peruna to all my friends and am a true believer in its worth."—Mrs. Col. E. J. Gresham.

Thousands of women owe their lives to Peruna. Tens of thousands owe their health to Peruna. Hundreds of thousands are praising Peruna in every state in the Union. We have on file a great multitude of letters, with written permission for use in public print, which can never be used for want of space.

Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a book written especially for women, instructively illustrated, entitled "Health and Beauty." Sent free to women.

Small Blaze.
The alarm of fire that was turned in yesterday proved to be the result of a burning chimney, which started a small blaze in the attic of the Benson home on the corner of 15th and Lee streets. The department made a splendid run, and had the blaze out in short order.
