

BETTING IS ALL ONE WAY

Large Odds Are Offered in Favor of Roosevelt's Re-election

Republicans Confident That They Will Sweep the Country in Tomorrow's Election

New York, Nov. 7.—The betting odds on Roosevelt's election lengthened slightly this morning on the curb, the odds being $500 to $90 that he will win. Herrick, Democrat, remains the favorite in the gubernatorial race at $1000 to $600.

Washington, Nov. 7.—An atmosphere of calm surrounded the White House this morning, in decided contrast to the excitement of last week. The President has been in high spirits since Saturday night, when Parker failed to prove his public statement of corruption at Democrats asserted would be forthcoming. Letters and telegrams of congratulation to the President over his public statement continue to pour into the White House. The President leaves Washington this evening for Oyster Bay to vote, in a private car attached to the regular midnight Pennsylvania train, which is due to arrive Jersey City at 7:15 o'clock tomorrow morning. He will reach Oyster Bay at 11 o'clock, vote at the fifth election district in the hall of Fisher's livery stable on East Main street, and leave on the return trip at 11 o'clock, reaching Washington at 6:30 o'clock in the evening. Secretary Loeb will also vote at Oyster Bay. Election returns will be received by the President in the White House offices, and the President will also be kept in constant communication with the Republican headquarters in New York and Chicago.

New York, Nov. 7.—The national committee and others concerned in the direction of the national campaign, closed their desks at the respective headquarters today, and departed for home, leaving behind them a political atmosphere, filled with rosy claims. Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic national committee, was the only one visible at Democratic headquarters today. Woodson said: "It is all over; we are going to win, so get out your horns and join the procession tomorrow night." Chairman Cortelyou was not at headquarters until late this afternoon. He had nothing to add to his statement made on Saturday, when he claimed all doubtful states, and possibly Maryland and Nevada. Cortelyou will vote tomorrow at Homestead, Long Island, and receive the returns at headquarters tomorrow night.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Herald publishes its final election forecast, showing that Roosevelt will have an overwhelming majority.

JAPANESE REGARD CITY IN THEIR HANDS

Troops of the Mikado Can Effect an Entrance at Any Time They Claim

Rome, Nov. 7.—The Tokio correspondent of the Giornale Di Roma wires that Port Arthur is regarded as taken in the Japanese capital. The Russians still hold four forts, but the town itself is open to the Japanese on the northeast. The Japanese will not enter the town as present, because it is still under fire from the Lisoti mountain forts. All the besiegers' efforts now will be directed toward the Gold Hill fortress.

Tokio, Nov. 7.—The imperial headquarters today issued a statement charging the Russian defenders of Port Arthur with misuse of the Red Cross badge, and with maltreating and killing the wounded left on the field. A wounded Japanese private lay six days simulating death, while the Russians were near. The Russians bayoneted and shot his wounded comrades, and robbed them.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—General Sakaroff reports as follows: "Sharpshooters on Friday, under Lieutenant Voorotnikoff, penetrated as far as the Japanese entrenchments in front of Hosuthia heights, and remained all day, exchanging a fusillade with the Japanese. The concentrated Russian fire destroyed the village of Udeylate. The Japanese attempts to damage the Russian masked guns were unsuccessful."

London, Nov. 7.—It is reported that Admiral Togo's fleet succeeded in breaking the Golden Hill fortifications. If this is true the surrender of Port Arthur must occur within a few hours.

Prominent Man Murdered.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 7.—The body of George Gilley, of New Westminster, a prominent very highly connected citizen, was found in the Frazier river this morning, with a three-inch deep cut at the base of the head. Foul play is suspected.

OFFICERS GET A CLEW TO ROBBERS

Independence Stage Brought Suspicious Looking Grips to Salem on Saturday

The police think they have found a trace of the Monmouth bank robbers Saturday morning when the Independence stage left that town two grips were at the hotel, and the driver was directed to bring them to Salem. They were brought to the city, and during the day two men called at the Rada-baugh livery stable for them. They opened one of them, and took out a razor and shaving outfit, and proceeded to divest themselves of their surplus hirsute appendages.

About 5 o'clock the men called for their grips and left 50 cents to pay the stage driver for hauling them over. Their description tallies exactly with the two men suspected of being the guilty parties by the Polk county authorities who left Monmouth the evening before the robbery. They took the car to Independence, and rented a room at the hotel, but from information received by the local police they did not occupy the room the night of the robbery.

The men claimed to be sign painters, and were in Independence for several days, but did not solicit business. One is a tall man, rather slender, while the other is of the opposite build, both being about 30 years of age. The one grip was very heavy, and the people who handled it remarked on its weight.

The men made inquiries concerning the boats and trains, and probably took the afternoon train to Portland on Saturday. The officers have been notified in Portland, and will try and locate the suspects.

CLOSED UP LIKE A CLAM

Spokane, Nov. 7.—Parker spent the day in his library and about the estate, paying far less attention to politics than to the work of the farm employees. The nominee went horseback riding with Parker and his brother, Fred, and returned in time to meet the morning mail, which was burdened heavier than usual with letters from prospective office-seekers. No further public appearances are expected from the nominee.

He will probably ride to Kingston by train or wagon tomorrow to vote. Several friends of the family will receive the returns at Rosemount tomorrow night.

AIRSHIP MEN ARE PERSISTENT

St. Louis, Nov. 7.—M. Francois, the French aeronaut, postponed the flight of his airship until Wednesday. A flight will be made this afternoon by Young, of Montana as a substitute aeronaut. Captain Baldwin has overhauled the motor of his California "Aeroplane," and expects to make a flight this week.

Patterson Murder Trial.

New York, Nov. 7.—Judge Davis today fixed November 15th as the date for the trial of Nan Patterson, charged with the murder of "Caesar" Young. Patterson was in court, and seemed happy, seemingly confident of a favorable outcome.

Town Swept Away.

Sydney, N. Z., Nov. 7.—The town of Kingswood, New Zealand, was practically obliterated by fire. Only three buildings remain.

GAS EXPLODED IN QUICK SILVER MINES

Santa Rosa, Cal., Nov. 7.—An explosion of gas occurred in the Great Eastern quicksilver mine at Guerneville last night. Four were injured and two may die from burns on the face, hands and shoulders. James Leslie and Rollo Reuten were the worst injured. Fred Sietotte, Peter Vander Stratton were also injured.

REMEMBER COLORED WRITER

Dayton, O., Nov. 7.—Paul Lawrence Dunbar, the negro poet who has been ill for some time at his home, has received from President Roosevelt two volumes of his addresses with his autograph, accompanied by a letter in appreciation of a campaign poem which Dunbar recently wrote and forwarded to the President.

ENGINE MEN LOSE STRIKE

Danville, Ill., Nov. 7.—The national officers of the Engineers' Union today declared the Illinois coal engineers' strike ended, and ordered the men back to work, accepting the cut of 5 1/2 per cent. The question of continuing the organization was left to a referendum vote. The miners' union failed to support the engineers, which lost them the strike.

TOMORROW'S WEATHER FORECAST

Washington, Nov. 7.—The following special bulletin, regarding the weather probabilities was issued by the weather bureau today:

Fair weather and reasonable temperature is indicated for all parts of the United States tomorrow, except some cloudiness or snow flurries in a part of New York, Northeastern Pennsylvania and New England, and rain on the extreme North Pacific coast.
