SALEM, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1904. NO. 201.

MISSOURI CARRIED BY ROOSEVELT

Roosevelt's Vote Will Be the Greatest Ever Cast for a Presidential Candidate—Increase in Congressional Majority

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Messages received by Chairman Tawney from St. Louis, late this afternoon, state that Missouri is Republican on the national ticket by upwards of 10,000 plurality. The Republicans, however, concede the election of Folk for governor by a safe margin. The Missouri state Republican chairman is quite positive as to his claims for Roosevelt.

New York. New York, Nov. 9.—Higgins, Republican, is elected governor by between 5,000 and 80,000 over Herriek. Higgins' plurality up state aggregates 27,000, while Herriek in Greater New York has about 70,000.

Colorado. Denver, Colo., Nov. 9.—The Republican ticket is undoubtedly elected by 8,000 plurality with Peabody running 20,000 behind. The enormous number of scratched ballots will delay the complete returns until late this evening.

Indiana. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—Returns this morning indicate that the state is Republican by 50,000 and may reach 75,000. The Republicans have elected two members of congress carrying the second and 12th districts. Hanson for governor, is running 5,000 over Roosevelt.

Washington. Seattle, Nov. 9.—Returns from the national committee, after which he will return to Indiana. Permanent headquarters will probably be opened in Indianapolis, or at French Lick Springs. Taggart declined to make any statement today.

California. San Francisco, Nov. 9.—With only a few precincts to hear from the Roosevelt plurality in California will be between 65,000 and 70,000. The election of eight Republican congressmen is assured. The second district, which was in doubt, now shows a majority of several hundred for McKinley, Republican. The Republicans also make notable gains in the senate and assembly.

Missouri. St. Louis, Nov. 9.—Returns from Missouri counties this morning indicate that Folk is elected by about 30,000 majority, and the rest of the Democratic ticket by reduced majorities. Roosevelt carried St. Louis by 1986 over Parker, an increase of 1320 votes over McKinley's plurality in 1900.

Washington. Seattle, Nov. 9.—Returns from the state of Washington indicate that Roosevelt for President has carried the state by a plurality of 38,000, and the indications are that the final returns will tend to increase these figures. Mead, Rep., governor, by perhaps 8,000 over Turner, Dem.

Wisconsin. Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—Complete returns in the city give Roosevelt 25,209, Debs 17,993, Parker 16,278.

Madison, Nov. 9.—LaFollette carries Wisconsin by 45,000 plurality, running behind the national ticket by 5,000. The legislature is Republican on joint ballot, but Senator Quarles is doomed. Congressman Babcock, who fought LaFollette is apparently elected. On the face of the returns he has only a plurality of 18 votes, and this may be reversed.

Minnesota. St. Paul, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt carries Minnesota undoubtedly by 100,000 plurality, and the entire Republican congressional ticket is elected. The gubernatorial contest is close. The Republicans still claim the election, but indications point to the success of Johnson, Democratic candidate by a narrow margin.

Maryland. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 9.—Returns are coming in slow, but there is a strong probability of Roosevelt carrying the state. Parker carried Baltimore by less than 500, the smallest plurality in the city's history.

Utah. Salt Lake, Nov. 9.—The Republicans claim that Roosevelt will pull the entire Republican state ticket through, but this is not conceded by the Democrats who contend that his lead is too small to justify the claim. Owing to heavy scratching judges in some of the districts are still working this morning to complete the returns. It is estimated that Roosevelt will have 9000 plurality in the state.

Wisconsin. Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—Early returns show that Wisconsin goes for Roosevelt by 65,000 and LaFollette by 38,000.

Madison, Nov. 9.—Governor LaFollette absolutely controls the legislature, according to the latest returns. Congressman Cooper may go to the senate in place of Quarles.

Missouri. Kansas City, Nov. 9.—With 58 out of 138 precincts in the fifth congressional district to hear from this morning, Congressman Cowherd, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, had a lead of 800 votes over Ellis, Republican.

Kansas. Topeka, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in Kansas will reach 90,000. Eight Republican congressmen ran even with the ticket.

Ohio. Columbus, Nov. 9.—The Republicans now claim the solid Congressional delegation, a gain of four seats. Roosevelt's plurality approximates 200,000.

Wyoming. Cheyenne, Nov. 9.—Late figures give Roosevelt 8500 plurality, Mendel, for governor, 6500 and the balance of the state ticket 3000 to 6000. The contest on the capital is very close.

Nebraska. Lincoln, Nov. 9.—Bryan today declined to comment on yesterday's election, as he said he preferred to await details of the vote before expressing his opinion. However, he denies the report that he will meet Watson and Hearst in New York in a week, or propose organizing a new party.

West Virginia. Parkersburg, W. Va., Nov. 9.—Returns are coming in slow, but the indications are that Dawson, Republican, is elected governor by a small majority, as compared with the Presidential ticket.

Cowherd Gives Up. Washington, Nov. 9.—"What's the use, it's getting worse," said Chairman Cowherd of the Democratic congressional campaign committee when asked this morning for estimates of the Republican majority in congress. (Continued on fourth page.)

OREGON WILL GIVE ROOSEVELT FORTY THOUSAND

Marion County Plurality May Reach Three Thousand—Prohibition Is Snowed Under

Portland, Nov. 9.—Oregon will give Roosevelt 40,000 plurality over Parker, according to the best estimates at hand. Returns from nearby counties show a heavy increase in the Republican vote, and a corresponding decrease in the Democratic vote. The Socialists polled more votes than at any time since the organization of that party. The Prohibition movement was defeated in almost every county, where a vote was taken, with the exception of Benton and Coos, where majorities for the new law were received. Jackson, Tillamook, Curry and Gilliam are also close, and it may take the official count to decide.

Returns in Salem. The result of the election in Marion county came as a surprise to the Republicans, as well as the Democrats. Even the most sanguine had hardly figured on a plurality for Roosevelt exceeding 1600, and when the returns commenced to come in it was evident that the "cowboy" President was popular to the extreme.

The question of county prohibition was thoroughly snowed under, almost every precinct in the county giving decisive majorities against the proposed law. Every Salem precinct, with the exception of No. 5, cast a large majority against the law.

The ward workers on both sides used every effort to get the voters to the polls to cast their ballots for or against the law, and in some precincts the total number of votes cast was far in excess of the June election. In ward No. 2, there were 524 ballots cast, while in June the vote on congressman was 347. The vote in the county will be slightly in excess of the vote in the state election.

Last night at an early hour the people were out on the streets, and surging, enthusiastic crowds watched the bulletin boards for the returns. The far Eastern states sent the first messages, owing to the difference in time and the early closing of the polls in many of the states. There was never a gleam of comfort for the opposition from the time that the very first returns were posted, and, as the hours flitted by, it became evident that Theodore Roosevelt and Chas. W. Fairbanks had carried the solid North and West, leaving only the "black belt" for the Democratic candidates. There was music on the streets by the Salem Military band, accompanied by fireworks, tin horns and loud cheering, in fact pandemonium broke loose at intervals throughout the night. It was a good-natured and sober crowd, and made up of men, women and children, all bent on showing their patriotism and loyalty to the great American leader. The returns by precincts are as follows:

- Salem No. 1—Roosevelt 130, Parker 34, for prohibition 73, against 94.
- Salem No. 2—Roosevelt 414, Parker 77, Debs 8, Swallow 19, Watson 2, for prohibition 181, against prohibition 291.
- Salem No. 3—Roosevelt 133, Parker 34, Swallow 10, Debs 10, Watson 1, for prohibition 58, against 109.
- Salem No. 4—Roosevelt 207, Parker 45, Watson 1, scattering 28, for prohibition 111, against 161.
- Salem No. 5—Roosevelt 129, Parker 32, Swallow 24, Debs 16, Watson 1, for prohibition 124, against 73.
- Salem No. 6—Roosevelt 133, Parker 50, Swallow 16, Watson 1, for prohibition 96, against 110.
- Salem No. 7—Roosevelt 105, Parker 19, Swallow 12, Debs 11, Watson 3, for prohibition 57, against 87.
- Silverton—Roosevelt 104, Parker 41, Swallow 20, Debs 12, Watson 32, for prohibition 54, against 174.
- North Silverton—Roosevelt 92, Parker 7, Swallow 10, Debs 1, for prohibition 60, against 42.
- Horeb—Roosevelt 57, Parker 10, Swallow 1, Debs 19, for prohibition 41, against 42.
- Sublimity—Roosevelt 82, Parker 62, Swallow 3, Debs 19 for prohibition 33, against 107.
- Stayton—Roosevelt 102, Parker 80, Swallow 24, Debs 28, for prohibition 107, against 115.
- Maclay—Roosevelt 61, Parker 11, Debs 2, Watson 2, for prohibition 22, against 48.
- Scotts Mills—Roosevelt 75, Parker 21, Swallow 18, Debs 1, for prohibition 50, against 53.
- Hubbard—Roosevelt 124, Parker 10,

JAPANESE PRINCE ARRIVES IN AMERICA

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Prince Fushimi, a cousin to the emperor of Japan, and a special envoy to the United States, arrived this morning on the steamer Minchuria. He was officially welcomed by the Japanese consul and port officials. Hundreds of Japanese gathered at the docks to give the distinguished visitor a rousing welcome. The prince is accompanied by an imposing suite, and leaves for the East tomorrow.
