

Start the Day Right

Nothing puts you so much "off color" for the whole day as a poor cup of coffee. So, why are you willing to drink it? The best is just as cheap, and it is so easy to make a good drink when you have the best coffee. There is only one "best" in anything. In coffee the best beyond doubt is

East Salem Voted for Prohibition and Manufacturer Must Seek
New Quarters

One of the most abject lessons of the recent prohibition movement can be found in East Salem precinct, where a majority of the voters cast their ballots against allowing saloons or liquor in that precinct for the period of two years.

In East Salem is located the fine vineyard of A. E. Aufrance, together with his plant for manufacturing wines. For several years Mr. Aufrance has labored hard to build up a business, and just at a time when his project was gaining almost a state reputation, he is forced, under the terms of the new law, to leave the district for the purpose of turning his grapes into wine.

A new industry is crippled, and may be driven out of business entirely. At the very best he will be compelled to haul his grapes to a place outside of the limits of East Salem, and have his wine cellar located away from his yard. It is safe to say that not one person in 10 who voted for the law would do Mr. Aufrance an injustice directly, but, by casting their ballots for the law, they have practically put him out of business. It is a poor way to build up Oregon, by striking down the growing industries of the state under the guise of law. Wine will be made at Mt. Angel and other precincts.

The City Committee
Meets This Evening

A New Candidate Has Been Sprung for Office of City Treasurerer

The Republican city committee meets this evening at the office of H. A. Johnson, when City Chairman LaFaro will wield the gavel, and the following will be in attendance for the seven wards, in the order named: No. 1, H. A. Johnson; No. 2, F. T. Wrightman; No. 3, A. Gesner; No. 4, Alonzo Wala; No. 5, T. J. Crouse; No. 6, John Knight; No. 7, A. Danc. Secretary, R. G. Crossan. Officers of the city Republican organization will also be present, and the petitions of aspirants for places on the direct primary ticket next Tuesday will be received.

Situation Warming Up.
More interest is taken as the day for holding the primary approaches, as the battle at the direct primary is virtually equivalent to an election in this strong Republican city. Petitions for a number of new alderman candidates are preparing today, as the time of filing them closes this evening. A new candidate for city treasurer has appeared in the person of F. G. Haas, the druggist. He is a popular young German Republican, and would make a strong candidate. The line-up for marshal will include four candidates as the matter now stands.

Sam Hughes Stands.
A statement published to the effect that Sam Hughes, who in 1896 was president of the Workingmen's Republican Club, and has continued at the head of that organization, had withdrawn, is a mistake. He has filed his petition, and will make the race for the nomination. He says it is to be a friendly contest for Republicans, and he has as much right as anyone to submit his name for the nomination.

Taking No Part.
Officers of the Young Men's Republican club object to the report that they, as a body, favor the nomination of J. W. Lewis, or any other aspirant for nomination for a city office. The young men's organization last year and this year refused to allow the organization to be committed to any candidate before the primaries, taking the position that it was their duty to support the ticket that is put up, and not to dictate nominations. Mr. Lewis has friends among the young men, and so have other candidates, but there has been no expression for anyone. In each ward a candidate for ward committeeman will be chosen.

Two New Actions.

Two more actions have been filed in Department No. 1 of the circuit court against Claude Hurst. One by C. P. Bishop for $77.70 for clothes bought at his store, and one by D. F. Lane against Hurst and his wife on a promissory note given by them and which fell due November 1, 1904, for $50 and $25 attorney's fees.

A Family Row.

There is no danger of one in any home where the maternal head of the house is a good cook, and the meats come from the old reliable market of E. C. Cross. There are cases where these meats have kept peace in homes for a generation. They now go at the cut price, on account of the meat war.

Love's Finale.

Marriage license was granted this morning to Felix Stromberg and Miss Angeline Duman.

Social Dance Tonight.
The regular Saturday night social dance will be held at Tioga hall tonight. Miss Nettie Frazure will conduct these dances in the future. McElroy's orchestra has been engaged, thus insuring good music.

OH FUDGE

Another "card craze" upon us. It is "Bunco" and "Sherlock Holmes." Last year Pit, Panle and Pluch had the rage, but it is different now. "Bunco" far exceeds "Pluch"—more to it, more science, more fun, while "Sherlock Holmes" keeps you busy playing "Hawk Shaw" and capturing the various "Crooks." You'll want it. The craze is coming. We have them in abundance. Fifty cents per deck.
