DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL

BY HOFER BROS.

OFFICIAL CENSUS SALEM, MAY, 1904, 13,287.

ONE-MAN POWER WANING.

The political belief in the boss is waning. One-man power is not an object of worship as much as it used to be in politics.

Times of peace and universal dissemination of that smokeless powder of civilization called newspaper information does not permit it.

The successful politician of this day must reckon with two master forces—public intelligence and men working in groups.

Public intelligence was never at so high an average status as today. Men never worked so much in groups as today.

Verily the scripture has become true: "No man liveth to himself alone." The boss has fallen below the level of public intelligence.

The monarchist tendency under which there was a concentration of power in the hands of one over many, is rebuked by the growing power of Democracy.

Democracy in the ideal sense will not tolerate usurpation of power, and the whole theory that one must furnish brains for others is a fallacy.

TOM KAY FOR SPEAKER.

The Marion county candidate for speaker is a fighter, and naturally draws the fire of the opposition.

He was too able a man not to arouse opposition and even create some jealousy among his own delegation.

Mr. Kay, in his fight on clerkships and other grafts, did not make himself the most popular man in the world with that class.

It was only natural that he should have won the support of Democrats and other reform elements, or even the governor.

But his election to the speakership will not divide the Republican party, as the party is strong enough to settle all matters in caucus.

For two terms Mr. Kay has championed the flat salary bill, and if he is made speaker that reform will be enacted into law.

That will take a great deal of campaign thunder out of the hands of the Democratic party, and for that reason men are supporting Kay.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. It's just as good for burns, scalds, skin eruptions and piles. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

X-RAYS

The East is already in the grip of winter.

And the "big stick" knocked a home run.

None of Tom Cornelius' friends are quitters.

Corvallis preachers will now talk to hatless women. Better than to headless women.

Talking about libel suits and such. An old bachelor Oregon editor had one on his hands recently, and the result is that he was married the other day. He hails from Grants Pass, and he runs the Journal of that enterprising city.

Have You Noticed.

That a little rain now and then softens the gravel pavement.

That some people always smile after an election.

That the Push Club always stands for Salem and her industries.

That a good complexion cannot be maintained when you engage in fistic encounters.

That The Journal gets the news, not one day, but all the time. The only way to keep your name and doings out of the paper is not to do it.

That Uncle Sam has made pretty good men out of a large number of the younger generation of the Indians, in spite of the pessimists.

That a strong south wind usually causes a general scampering down the streets after hats.

That the street cars do not stop in the middle of the down-town blocks for passengers.

That the marriage market is firm, in spite of leap year.

That Salem is getting the name of being one of the best show towns on the road, and the attractions are first-class.

Defending Mr. Kay.

Ed. Journal: As a friend of fair play I wish to enter a pronounced disclaimer that your correspondent "Republican" states the attitude of any large number of Republicans toward Hon. T. B. Kay. Beyond all other considerations, I resent the imputation that he was in any manner to blame for the excessively large appropriations of the last legislative session. It is true he was the chairman of the appropriations committee in the house of representatives, where all appropriations must originate. I also happen to know that the appropriations committee refused to put the bill for the governor's home into the general appropriation bill. They insisted that it was an extraordinary appropriation, and must go in that class of items, and I was one of the Commercial Club committee to work for that measure, and I deem it a just one.

The fight for the governor's residence has not been abandoned, and if our people do their duty there will be a governor's residence established in this city at the coming session. We are going to have a world's fair, and all the governors of the states are to be here, and where can they visit the governor of our state? At his law office in Portland? At his boarding house at Salem? You will say at the state capitol. But they will not feel flattered that Oregon as a progressive state has not a residence for her chief magistrate, where he can keep his family and live in a style becoming to the dignity of the position and the resources of the state. I am a friend of morality and order, and the spectacle of governor after governor camping about and having no place to lay his head that he can call his own in our Capital City appeals to me as a reflection on the office, and indicative of the low estimate we place on the position of head of the state. COMMITTEE.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

INDIAN BAND TONIGHT

The Metlakatla Indian band, of Alaska, will give one of their grand concerts at the Salem Grand Opera house this evening. The engagement will certainly please the music-loving people of this city, and should be greeted by a full house.

The band consists of 25 members, and is accompanied by the full-blooded chief, Neeshlotti, who made the celebrated totem pole for the St. Louis fair.

The concert consists of band music and native songs and dances, and wherever the band has appeared they have received the highest praises from the press and public. They will be the guests of Superintendent Chalcraft, at Chemawa, during their stay in Oregon.
