

Watch to See What We Tell You

In a few days or maybe tomorrow we expect to tell you our new crop of RIPE OLIVES has arrived. This year we have been favored by having placed into our hands the exclusive sale in Salem for Ehmann's Ripe Olives and Olive Oil. We have reason to be proud of this fact, for throughout the United States only the finest groceries in the larger cities are given the exclusive sale of these two products. RIPE OLIVES,—"Better than medicine."

WILL OF WILLIAM MILLER

The last will and testament of William Miller, deceased, has been probated at the county clerk's office. The provisions for the division of the estate are as follows:

To his wife $1000 and life estate in the Liberty street property. On the acceptance of which she is to relinquish her dower interest in the rest of the estate.

To his daughter, Jennie M. Kellogg, all the rest of the estate, except herein-after mentioned.

To his grandson, Raleigh McDonald Kellogg, his gold watch and chain and all of his jewels for his faithful care and attention during the last years of deceased's life.

It was also his desire that his daughter, Jennie Kellogg, take immediate possession of the residence at 237 Court street, with all the articles of personal, domestic and household use or ornament belonging to deceased at time of death, or that belonged to her mother at the time of her death, and to occupy the same.

Jennie Kellogg and her husband, Frank Kellogg, were appointed executors without bonds.

Don't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Former Salemite Dead.

Word was received at Salem today that Thomas Poits, an employe at the state insane asylum under Supt. Rowland and Supt. Paine, died Wednesday at Pacific Grove, Cal., and would be buried Friday. He went to California and married a lady there, and afterwards resided here for some time.

Rev. W. C. Kautner went to Oregon City last night, and will preach at the First Congregational church in that city tonight, at the celebration of its 60th anniversary.

State Printer J. B. Whitney went to Portland this morning, and will spend the day in that city, attending to some business connected with the state printing office.

It is no small comfort to have Schilling's Best on call at your grocer's; a pity one can't get everything such and so!

SOCIAL EVENTS

Wiggins-Cavanagh Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Birdie Leila Cavanagh and Mr. Ernest Robert Wiggins was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Church street today, at 12:30 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The decorations were very pretty in all the rooms. Ivy and ferns were used extensively in the front parlors. Ropes of ivy were draped from the chandeliers to the corners of the room, and large corner bouquets were used. The hall was very pretty. The stair rail was completely hidden with beautiful ferns and ivy, and was very artistic.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. James Walton, Misses Calista Moore and Circassia Cole.

At 12:30 o'clock Miss Edith Ketchum played Lohengrin's wedding march, and the bridal party entered the front parlor and took their places beneath a basket of smilax and large white chrysanthemums, which was suspended from the floral drape. Dr. H. A. Ketchum performed the ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a costume of champagne crepe de chine, with trimmings of rose point lace, en train, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Lenna Cavanagh, sister of the bride, was attired in a pretty gown of blue voile, and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by his best man, Otho L. Ragan. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty wedding luncheon was served in the dining room. The table was very pretty. Festoons of smilax were draped to the corners, and the center-piece was a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations. The bride is well-known in this city, where she has a host of friends. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cavanagh, and is a charming and talented young lady, and very popular in social circles. She is also well-known as a former college student of the Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiggins, of this city, and is a young man of sterling character and very successful in business enterprises. He is connected with the P. A. Wiggins implement house, of this city.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, including cut-glass and silver.

They will make their home in this city. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McClain, of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cornelius, of Turner; Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Beach, Miss Circassia Cole, Mrs. James Walton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Will Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reynolds, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Thomas, of Turner; Miss Lillian Benney, of Corvallis; Miss Eleanor McClain, Mrs. Bell Phelps, Miss M. A. Cavanagh, all of Silverton.

Branson-White Wedding.

On Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock p. m., a very pleasant, but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. St. Helens. The contracting parties were Miss Mabel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Branson and Clifford T. White. The happy couple were united by Rev. P. S. Knight. The ceremony was very impressive. The room was nicely arranged for the occasion, and the electric lights gave a pretty effect. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Marie Hutchins.

After the ceremony Mrs. O. C. Hutchins sang: "Thou Art Like Unto a Lovely Flower." Only a few of their most intimate friends and relatives were present.

They were well remembered in the way of many valuable gifts.

The young couple are well and favorably known in this city. The bride is a handsome and accomplished young lady. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Branson, formerly of this city, but now of Marshfield. The groom is a young man of sterling quality, who resides in this city. Both have a large circle of warm friends who wish them much happiness.

They left on the afternoon train for Portland, where they will spend a short honeymoon, after which they will leave for Marshfield, where they will make their future home.

Century Dancing Club.

The Century Dancing club will give their first ball on Thanksgiving eve, November 23, at the Armory. The floor of that large hall has been recently repaired and will be in excellent condition. McElroy's and Steelhammer's combined orchestras will furnish the music. As the club embraces many of the leading devotees of the city's torpichorean fraternity a grand time is anticipated.

The regular social dancing party, conducted by Miss Frazure, will be given Saturday evening in Tioga hall. Steelhammer's orchestra will furnish the music. Gentlemen 50 cents and ladies 25 cents admission.

Overcoat Thief Released.

Van Bogart, the young man who was arrested during the fair for stealing an overcoat, was released from the county jail yesterday, after serving his term of 60 days. He left the city yesterday on the afternoon northbound overland.

OH FUDGE

Another "card craze" upon us. It is "Bunco" and "Sherlock Holmes." Last year Pit, Panic and Flinch had the rage, but it is different now. "Bunco" far exceeds "Flinch"—more to it, more science, more fun, while "Sherlock Holmes" keeps you busy playing "Hawk Shaw" and capturing the various "Crooks." You'll want it. The craze is coming. We have them in abundance. Fifty cents per deck.
