For selecting Christmas presents. Our stock is composed of suitable articles for old or young. Now, for instance, for grandmother, a beautiful pair of gold glasses in a beautiful chatelaine case; this will also do for the grandfather. A beautiful brooch for mother, a new chain, fob or charm, and even a watch attached wouldn't go bad for father. A neat ring and secret locket and chain, or a nice reasonable-priced chatelaine watch for sister, cuff buttons, stud or stick pin for brother. But don't forget the sweetheart, for her a diamond ring would also seal the engagement, and everybody would be happy. Come and see

FELL BETWEEN CARS

Neal Sullivan, a young section foreman on the Corvallis & Eastern, was run over and killed by a gravel train at Detroit yesterday. Sullivan had been superintending the construction of a branch road from Detroit into the timber lands, and was on a gravel train when he slipped and fell between the cars, and was killed instantly. Deceased was 26 years of age, and has been with the C. & E. for over eight years. He was held in high esteem by all the officials.

He was a member of the Elks, K. of P. and A. O. U. W. fraternal orders, and was popular with all who knew him. The remains will be shipped to Omaha, Nebraska, where his relatives reside, for burial.

After a consultation by telephone with Coroner Clough, of Marion county, it was decided that no inquest was necessary at this time, and the body will not be held for that purpose. Should it become necessary to inquire into the matter, the investigation will be held at Detroit later, the witnesses all being there.

YALE LEADS HARVARD

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 19.—Thirty-two thousand spectators assembled on Yale field this afternoon to witness the Yale-Harvard football game. The weather conditions were ideal, and Yale was the betting at 5 to 3. The appearance of Vice-President-elect Fairbanks at 1:45 was the sign for a demonstration on both sides of the field. He took a seat among the Yale rooters. The Harvard men won the toss and chose the south goal.

Yale Ahead.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 19.—In the great football game Morse made a touchdown for Yale, and Hoyt kicked goal. Score at end of first half: Yale 6, Harvard 0.

Yale made another touchdown in the second half, and Hoyt kicked goal. Score: Yale 12, Harvard 0.

Mr. Brock's Age is 114 Years.

MR. ISAAC BROCK, BORN IN BUNCOMBE CO., N. C., MARCH 1, 1788. His age is 114 years, vouched for by authentic record. He says: "I attribute my extreme old age to the use of Pe-ru-na."

Always conquered the grip with Pe-ru-na. Witness in a land suit at the age of 110 years. Believes Pe-ru-na the greatest remedy of the age for catarrhal diseases.

ISAAC BROCK, a citizen of McLennan county, Texas, has lived for 114 years. For many years he resided at Bosque Falls, eighteen miles west of Waco, but now lives with his son-in-law at Valley Mills, Texas.

A Free Lecture.

Rev. T. F. Royal lectured to an appreciative audience at Leslie M. E. church Friday evening on his pioneer experiences in Jackson county. He told how he got into Jacksonville, and how he got out. He did not do anything very serious, but it seems he got away. Rev. Royal's lecture was brimming over with wit and humor, and it leaked out that he was the first county superintendent of schools of Jackson county, and built the first church in Oregon south of Salem. He did not say so, but some of the leading men and women of Southern Oregon were students under him, at Wilbur academy, and his life work gave a touch of character and goodness to hundreds of men and women, and that is about the best you can say of any man.
