PROGRESS

Force Us On

Preferring to lead in the rapid march of PROGRESS which our art is making, we spare no pains or money to keep abreast of the "times." In Photography more than any other art, the rapid strides of PROGRESS keep one constantly on the move. The oldest studio of the world famous Willamette Valley is the

TROVER-CRONISE STUDIO

ESTABLISHED 1892

Its reputation is universal, its work unquestionably superior and its facilities unequalled by any in the Northwest. Progress has brought prosperity, and painstaking effort popularity.

We handle an exclusive line of mounts, folders and leaflets and originate new work and neat designs when the embellishment of the picture is left to us.

In a few days we will have the new Violet Ray Electric This is a Printing Lamp. new invention; with the rays of this lamp quicker and better work can be done than with sun light. "Of such is the progress of photographic art."

Mr. and Mrs. Trover personally attend to all their high grade work. We are now making an entirely new picture, "THE PLA-TINO CARBON," never before seen in Salem. If you expect to have pictures for Christmas, don't wait until the last day or week for you must remember that to do GOOD WORK requires time, You are always welcome to our reception room, where you will find the latest periodicals, easy chairs and courteous treatment.
