SOCIAL EVENTS

'Heart Party.'

One of the social triumphs of the season was the pretty "Heart" party Thursday, at which Mrs. James L. Stockton and daughters, Mrs. Anna A. Culbertson and Miss Stockton were hostesses, at their pleasant home on North Commercial street.

The residence was beautifully decorated, the color scheme was carried out in white and red, with a background of green. Beautiful potted plants with a profusion of potets and cut white chrysanthemums made the rooms like a floral garden, while red hearts of all sizes were festooned in every available space, and the red shaded lights added to the pleasing effect. The hallway was especially pretty, the staircase being banked with white chrysanthemums and cosmos foliage. The porch was also very artistic. Noticeable among the decorations here was a large urn of giant ferns, a large palm, and the beautiful white rosebuds, which were arranged very effectively.

Little Luemina Waters and Master Leon Culbertson received the guests at the door. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Calista Moore, Miss Bessie Frisby and Miss Ruth Gabrielson.

Hearts were played at little green tables. The prizes carried out the color scheme, the first a green plaque with white figures of Cupid, was won by Mrs. Charles H. Robertson. The second, a green burnt leather piece, with red velvet dahlias and hearts, was won by Mrs. Oliver C. Locke.

After the game dainty refreshments were served. Many beautiful costumes were in evidence. The afternoon was complete in every detail, and added fresh laurels to the hostesses' ability in entertaining.

Those present were: Mrs. William N. Gatens, Mrs. J. Frank Hughes, Mrs. F. E. Smith, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mrs. F. W. Steusloff, Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. William Babeock, Mrs. Zadee Riggs, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. W. G. Westcott, Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. William Ramsey, Mrs. Andrew M. Crawford, Mrs. George H. Dunsford, Misses Calista Moore, Bessie Frisby, Ruth Gabrielson.

Euchre Club.

The Fortnightly Euchre Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. T. T. Geor yesterday in a very delightful manner. About 25 members were present, and a social afternoon spent.

Getting Ready for Xmas.

The ladies of the Congregational church are preparing a Christmas entertainment and tree for the young people, which will be given Christmas eve. The plans are quite extensive, and will no doubt be a great success.

The drill team of the Woodmen of the World gave a pleasant social dance in the Holman block last evening. A large number of dancers and spectators were present, and enjoyed themselves until midnight. The young men were pronounced successful entertainers.

Filed Report.

Albert Sweetser, state biologist filed his second biennial report to the governor this morning.
