Stomachs on Stills.

The man who puts on stiffs does not increase his actual stature by the breadth of a hair. He feels taller while he's on the stiffs, and when he's off them he feels shorter than he ever felt. Stimulants are the stiffs of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It cures the diseases of the digestive and nutritive system which make the stomach "weak." It enables the digestion and assimilation of food, so that the body receives the nutrition on which depends its strength.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; You lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

The sluggish liver is made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

STATE SOCIAL NEWS

Turner.

On Thanksgiving a jolly little party spent a pleasant evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Beach of Portland. Conversation and music afforded amusement for the guests. One novel feature was letter writing to the absent members of the family circle. Every one present was requested to send a message. Later refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Shirley, the Misses C. Cole, Z. Cole, Shirley and Dorris Shirley, Messrs Judd and Beach.

The ladies of the Methodist church did not give their customary Thanksgiving dinner this year. Owing to the absence of a number of their members the undertaking seemed too great for the few who still remained. The ladies have won a wide reputation and the dinner was greatly missed by those who have been in the habit of attending these functions.

Beautiful services were held in the Presbyterian church by Rev. McCleod Thanksgiving morning. Appropriate decorations held a conspicuous place as reminders of the origin of the day.

Mrs. L. F. Shirley, of Salem, and her daughters, Misses Ava and Dorris, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Cole on Thanksgiving day. Miss Hallie C. Thomas, who holds a position in one of Portland's schools, spent Thanksgiving at her home in Turner. She will return to Portland Sunday.

The members of the Epworth League held a social at the home of Mrs. I. Small Thursday evening. Measurements of each guest were taken, and an admission fee charged according to the height in feet and inches. There was a good attendance, and the event was enjoyable as well as financially profitable.

Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Townsend were in Salem Friday.

E. W. McCann went to Fruitland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ford visited in Turner Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hinshaw and family, of Hillsboro, are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hinshaw.

F. W. Rutherford, of Fruitland, was in Marion Friday.

Mr. Kouke has purchased 10 acres of Mr. Mitzner east of town. He is from North Dakota, and intends to make this his home.

Fruitland.

Our popular mail carrier, Mr. Johnson, passed through Fruitland last week. We were glad to see him out this way again.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham have their daughter, Mrs. Williams, visiting with them.

Mr. Campbell returned to eastern Oregon Tuesday.

Mrs. Minger and daughter, Miss Edna, went to Walla Walla, Wash., the first of the week. They intend staying until after the holidays.

Monday evening a surprise was given Mr. Campbell at the residence of Mr. Walton. Quite a number were present, and report a very pleasant evening.

Tuesday evening the Literary and Debating Society held their meeting. Quite a large crowd was present. The program was very good, indeed. Much interest was taken in the debate. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The question for next Tuesday is: "Resolved, That a Country Life is Better for Building a Good Character Than a Life in the City." A long list of names were given to the secretary as members of the society.

A pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. Herrin Saturday evening. Not a very large crowd was in attendance on account of the stormy weather, but all report a gay time.

The Sunday school convention will be held at Fruitland Sunday, December 18. Everybody invited.
