VOL. XIV. SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1904. NO. 289.

ANTI-WAR RIOTERS CAUSE DISTURBANCES

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—The anti-war demonstrations on the streets of the capital were renewed today, and serious trouble is feared.

Tokio, Dec. 12.—The following report was received today from the commander of the Japanese naval land battery at Port Arthur: "Four Russian battleships, two cruisers, one gunboat and one store ship are lying in the Port Arthur harbor completely disabled. There is no further necessity to bombard the Russian naval forces, and we are now shelling the town of Port Arthur, which is being heavily damaged."

Cape Colony, Dec. 12.—The Russian

ASSASSIN ASSAULTS OFFICER

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—An attempt was made to assassinate Col. Kisiljakowski, chief of the police of Odessa, today. He was struck on the back of the head by a heavy iron stick, and is now in a serious condition. The assailant escaped.

hospital ship "Orel" arrived here today, and two large Russian warships passed Cape Point this morning.

Sunday Bay, Island of Crete, Dec. 12.—The Russian cruisers Dneicher and Oleguj, and the torpedo boat destroyer Grosney arrived here this morning.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 12.—The departure of the reserves for the war from Saratoff today was the occasion of serious rioting. The reserves refused to enter the cars, but were forced to do so by the regulars. The latter then attacked the surrounding rioters, killing two and wounding 248.

London, Dec. 12.—Baron Hayashi reports that the Port Arthur besiegers in the bombardment yesterday did considerable damage to the wireless station on Golden Hill, and set fire to the arsenal.

Treaty Signed. Washington, Dec. 12.—Secretary of State Hay and Ambassador Durand this morning formally signed the arbitration treaty between Great Britain and the United States.

Oldest Member Dead. London, Dec. 12.—Hon. Spencer Charlington, the oldest member of parliament is dead. He represented Mile End, London, since 1885.

HELD GRUDGE AGAINST HUSBAND'S SWEETHEART

Salt Lake, Dec. 12.—Mrs. Jay Douglass, wife of the former city passenger agent of the Union Pacific here, this morning pursued Mrs. Fannie Martin on the street and through a store, firing a revolver. One shot took effect in

Mrs. Martin's back, causing a slight wound. When arrested Mrs. Douglass asserted that she had come down from Boise, Idaho, for the purpose of killing the woman. Douglass was recently discharged on account of scandal.

SMOOT CASE BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

Washington, Dec. 12.—The hearing of Senator Smoot was resumed this morning by the senate committee on privileges and elections. Smoot was on hand early, and appeared exceedingly cheerful. Five members of the committee, Burrows, Pettus, Overman, Foraker and Dubois, were present, and the room was filled, 90 per cent being women. Dr. K. M. Buckley, the Methodist editor of the New York Christian Advocate, was the first witness, and told of his visit to Utah 25 years ago. He saw Brigham Young, and heard a sermon on Mormonism by Austin Pratt, and also interviewed George Smith, one of the directors of the church. He was considered a possible convert. He went again last June, and attended services at the tabernacle both times. Witness said that he made accurate reports for his paper, including speech es made at the joint Young Men's and Young Women's Association meeting, which he attended last June. The witness then read from the files of the Advocate.

Ammonia Gas Explodes. John Elliott, a student at Willamette University, was injured by an explosion in the laboratory of that institution this morning. He was liquifying ammonia gas, when it exploded with a loud report. A quantity of aqua regia was forced into one of his eyes, severely burning it. He was taken to the office of Dr. Gillis, and it is thought that his sight will be saved.

Cruiser Home. Norfolk, Dec. 12.—The cruiser San Francisco arrived today from the Philippines for repairs.

LAWSON CONTINUES TO PLAY GAME

New York, Dec. 12.—Thomas W. Lawson put out another characteristic advertisement this morning, with the result that the stock market again went to pieces. Amalgamated Copper fell nearly six points, and then recovered a part of the loss, steel, sugar, Reading, Union Pacific and St. Paul were prominent in the break, the echo of which was heard all over Wall Street. More than 900,000 shares were handled at this morning's session, and the market was still feverish at noon.

Twice in Jeopardy. Portland, Dec. 12.—Attorney O'Day for the defendants in the land fraud cases this afternoon is arguing before the court that Marie Ware, S. A. D. Futer, Emma Watson and Horace McKinley cannot be tried in the case now pending, as it covers the same grounds for which they were recently convicted, thus placing them in jeopardy twice for the same crime. It will leave but one defendant, Guy Huff, according to the attorney's contention, that is amenable to trial. The trial begins tomorrow, unless the court accepts Attorney O'Day's plea.

Sues for Divorce. Olive S. Earight has filed complaint against her husband, John F. Earight, for divorce in department No. 2 of the circuit court. They were married at Houston, Texas, March 11, 1903, and have been residents of Salem since June 15th of the same year. Plaintiff alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, and claims that she was forced to leave defendant on the evening of December 9, 1904. There are no children from the marriage, and the plaintiff asks for the name of Olive S. England.

Election Case Tomorrow. In the case of Charles Livesley against the city election board in ward No. 2, Attorney Bigger for the defendants, answered plaintiff's complaint, and pleaded the law. He has until tomorrow at 2 p. m. in which to file reply or plead to the further and separate answer.

MOTHER RECOVERED BODIES

Billings, Mont., Dec. 12.—and Bernice Warren, aged 8 and 9, respectively, broke through the ice on a slough several yards from their home, on Sunday, and were drowned. The mother pulled both bodies from beneath the ice shortly after the accident.
