TURKEY TOOK HIS LIBERTY

Even the turkeys seem to realize that Christmas is approaching, and that they, as well as the men, must suffer. Of course, they won't suffer from a flat pocketbook, that horror of horrors for men, but it is equally awful in the turkey mind to be well stuffed and roasted. The vital question this week in Turkeyville is "how shall we escape?" Some are refusing to eat, others are fighting, trying to reduce flesh, and make themselves uneatable, while the wisest one in the bunch, waited his chance this morning, when a prospective purchaser opened his coop, which was in front of a local market, he took to his wings, flew across the street to a window ledge of a doctor's office, and there shouted defiance to his former lord and master. The doctor observed his visitor on the outside, and being of hospital nature, started to raise the window very gently, with the intention of inviting him in out of the cold, but Mr. Turkey, had been in confinement too long to be captured that easy, so he once more trusted to his wings to carry him out of danger. He flew down Liberty street for nearly a half block, when he alighted to rest, but this "tired feeling" which caused the downfall of many before him, likewise was the cause of his, for he failed to notice a fiendish small boy, who was creeping up on him with a large stone, which he carefully poised, and then let fly, hitting Mr. Turkey squarely on the head and rendering him unconscious, and when he finally did realize that he was living, it was only to find himself in his hateful prison once more.

License and Wedding.

SEWING MACHINE APPEAL

The case of J. S. Crane vs. A. G. Brauer has been appealed from the justice court at Woodburn to department No. 1 of the circuit court.

The plaintiff claims in his complaint that defendant bought a sewing machine from him at Portland April 13, 1901, the value of which was $75, and that the defendant paid $25 down and promised to pay the rest, but failed to do so. To therefore commences action against him for the sum of $50 and the costs of the action. The defendant replies in his answer that the agreed price of the machine was $65, and that he traded an old machine in on the new one for $25, and gave an account against Mrs. Lacy for $40 for the balance in full, and that plaintiff accepted the same in full for the purchase price. Plaintiff states in his reply to defendant's answer that the price was 75, and that he did accept the old machine for $25, but that defendant did not pay him any further amount in money or otherwise. Plaintiff was given the decision, and a decree for $50, and plaintiff to pay the costs and disbursements, which amount to $37.95.

STOLE BOSLER'S BICYCLE

A bicycle belonging to Harley Bosler was stolen last night from in front of the State street shooting gallery. Bosler rode down town, and not wanting to take the wheel with him while strolling around the business streets, he left it in front of the gallery, thinking it would be safe, as he had left it there before without losing it. When he returned for the bike, about 10 o'clock it was missing. Even then he did not realize that it had been stolen, but went on home, thinking probably that either some of the boys had hidden it for a joke, or that the police had taken it up for safe keeping. He was at the police station this morning, and apparently greatly downcast when he fully realized that the bike had been stolen. The wheel was valuable, being equipped with mud guards and all the necessities for winter riding. It was of the Gendron make.

Two Favored Sons.

There were two prisoners in the police court yesterday afternoon. Eli Briggs, who had been "tanking up," was released and floated out of town, and T. C. Levine, who was arrested for vagrancy, was given 5 days. Levine, who is a dope fiend, has been arrested several times lately and floated, was given a few days to think his bad conduct over.

Journal at Out Rate.

The Journal publishers propose to give their subscribers the benefit of a great cut in subscription price for the coming year. Instead of making a special sale day on which to receive yearly subscriptions by mail at $3, we now offer to receive subscription for 1905, if paid at any time during the remainder of the old year at the $3 rate. All subscriptions must be paid up for all of the current year, and for the full year of 1905, in order to get the benefit of this rate. Call at any time, and get your special rate, but remember that this does not count after the first of January. Under the special cut rate you can get your daily for 1905 by mail at $3, or by carrier at $5; thus saving one dollar on the regular price HOFER BROS., Publishers.

Can Buy Presents.

Governor Chamberlain this morning commuted the sentence of Thomas Morris, who is serving 25 days in jail for assault, to take effect today. Morris was sentenced in Multnomah county by Judge Hogue, on November 30th, and would have been released on Christmas day, but the governor considered that he should have a few days in which to buy Christmas presents and prepare for that occasion before its arrival.
