EDUCATORS PRESENT PROGRAM

National Educational Association Meet in Chicago

Chicago, Jan. 13.—After several conferences in this city the officers of the National Educational association have completed the program for the annual convention of the association which will be held at Asbury park next July. Besides the general meetings the program provides for several of the 18 departments, covering every phase of popular education. Each department will hold from two to three sessions, with from three to five papers and five or six addresses under the head of discussions.

An effort was made by the association to secure President Roosevelt for a speech on July 4, but he sent word that he would like to celebrate that day with his family, and that he would appear on Friday, July 7.

Sciology and education will be the general theme carried throughout the addresses. The opening address Monday night will be by President William H. Maxwell. Dr. William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education, will speak the same night on "The Compensation of Teachers." Mayor George B. McClellan, of New York, will speak on Tuesday, and also President E. A. Alderson, of Tulane university. Andrew S. Draper and Carroll D. Wright will speak on Wednesday, while on Thursday evening Professor L. D. Harvey, of Menomonie, Wis., will talk on manual training and technical instruction.

A phase of the program that is of especial interest is that portion which deals with technical schools. There are now practically no technical or trade schools under the authority of boards of education. For the purpose of learning something about the technical schools of Europe the association has invited Professor Blair, of London, England to give the desired information in the form of an address or lecture. Professor Blair is superintendent of the technical schools of London.

Drowned Man Found.

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 13.—The body of Thomas O'Connor, cashier at Percival's dock, in this city, was found lying downward, in the bay near the end of the wharf on which he was employed.

Mr. O'Connor had been missing since New Year's day, and was last seen about 7:30 in the evening in the vicinity of the dock. He was sober in habits. There are no marks of violence as yet discovered, and no reason is assigned for suicide. That he accidentally fell from the dock is the only theory advanced.

O'Connor's people are known to live in Portland, where it is said he was once in very good financial circumstances. He was educated in Europe, and for ten years was consul in Portland for Belgium. He came to Olympia eight years ago to manage an oyster company's business. Mr. O'Connor leaves a family. An infant son was born since his disappearance. An autopsy will be held tomorrow.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for 14 years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At J. C. Perry's drug store. Price 50c and $1, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Smelter Will Be Blown.

The news comes via Weiser that the Ladd Metals Company's smelter at Landore, in the Seven Devils, will be blown in the latter part of this week. Three smelter men from Mineral arrived at Weiser Sunday afternoon, and left for Landore the following morning to get everything in readiness for the smelter superintendent who will arrive Thursday. The company has a large supply of coke and ore on hand, and proposes to push things when the smelter is blown in. With the change of management it is likely a long and successful run will be made with the newly-improved plant.

GREAT NORTHERN WILL BUILD

Liable to Be Railroad Building War the Coming Season

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 13.—A railroad building war for Nebraska and the Middle West is in sight for next summer should the Great Northern railroad carry out its announced plan to build two connections with the Burlington in Nebraska this spring. The first of the projected line is t orun from Sioux City to Omaha, and the second extension from O'Neill to Thedford, Neb., giving the Burlington-Great Northern combination the short line between Denver and Minneapolis and Duluth, that being an invasion of Northwest territory. Well-informed railroad men are of the opinion that this will cause the Northwestern to extend the Hastings line into Denver to retaliate against the Burlington, and the Union Pacific will be drawn into the fight.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflated condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Ills., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, this producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities proscribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heart burn and bloating after meals.

The meeting will conclude tomorrow evening with a banquet.

New York, Jan. 13.—The steamer Indus is still fast on the bar at Fire Island. The chances of releasing the big vessel are very slight.

CONDITION OF HOP MARKET

In England--Reports of Total Product

(Producers' Price Current, Dec. 31.)

Reports from New York state show that during the past week between 500 and 600 bales of hops have been sold by growers at prices ranging from 30c to 32c, and in consequence a better feeling appears to have developed there. Reports from the Pacific Coast indicate sales of small lots at prevailing prices. On the local market a quiet trade is the feature with prices unchanged. Advices from London would also indicate a continued very quiet market and whatever inquiry exists is for medium grades at cheaper ranges.

The English Hop Market.

(From the London Times.)

Earlier than ever before the board of agriculture has issued the annual preliminary statement relating to the total production of hops and the estimated yield per acre in this country; the table was printed in our columns on Saturday. This is the first instalment of what are generally known as the agricultural produce statistics, and it will probably be followed some weeks hence by similar statements concerning this year's total production and yield per acre of the cereal and other crops in Great Britain. The cultivation of hops in Great Britain is restricted, as is well known, to some half dozen counties of England, the total extent of hops outside these counties being only 188 acres, as compared with 47,611 acres withthem.

The total production of hops this year estimated at 282,330 cwt., is seen to be as much as 138,738 cwt. less than last year's crop, which was estimated at 421,068 cwt. The crop of 1904 is thus 33 per cent., or one-third, smaller than that of 1903, although this year's extent of hops was almost the same as that of last year, being only 138 acres less. The present is the 20th consecutive year in which the produce of the hop crop has been officially estimated in England. Within this period the estimated total production has fluctuated between a maximum of 776,144 cwt. and a minimum of 281,921 cwt., the former having been recorded in 1886 and the latter in 1888, two years later. This year's total production of 282,330 cwt. escapes being the lowest on record by the trivial quantity of 420 cwt.

Foreign Markets.

A late number of the Kentish Observer says: Although there has been a rather better demand for hops of medium quality the trade generally has continued quiet, and there appears to be no prospect of the large growths of East and Mid Kents moving off this side of Christmas unless, indeed, holders are prepared to accept the ridiculously low prices offered. The bulk of the business is confined to hops between £8 and £9 per cwt.

DREAD OF HUMANITY

I am compelled by a sense of gratitude to tell you the great good your remedy has done me in a case of Contagious Blood Poison. Among other symptoms I was severely afflicted with Rheumatism, and got almost past going. The disease got a firm hold upon my system; my blood was thoroughly poisoned with the virus. I lost in weight, was run down, had sore throat, eruptions, spiotches and other evidences of the disease. I was truly in a bad shape when I began the use of S. S. S., but the persistent use of it brought me out of my trouble safe and sound, and I have the courage to publicly testify to the virtues of your great blood remedy, S. S. S., and to recommend it to all blood-poison sufferers, sincerely believing if it is taken according to directions, and given a fair trial, it will thoroughly eliminate every particle of the virus. JAMES CURRAN, Stark Hotel, Greensburg, Pa.
