OFFICIAL CENSUS SALEM, MAY, 1904, 13,287.

LABORING MEN'S BILLS.

Representative Welch, of Multnomah county, enjoys the distinction of being a laboring man—a mechanical engineer from Portland.

His principal bill relates to stationery engineers. It is an act for the better protection of life and property, from injury by operation of engines and boilers by incompetent engineers and others. It will be favorably reported by the committee on labor and industry.

His next act is one to limit the hours for employment of females in mechanical or mercantile establishments, or factories or laundries, to not over 10 hours out of the 24 hours of any one day. It amends the present law to include mercantile employees, but does not apply to mining camps or logging camps. The insertion of the word "mercantile" makes it applicable to employees in stores. What will the legislature do with a laboring man's bills?

Captain Tom Crang, of the Multnomah delegation is another laboring man. He has the distinction of having no bills of his own. He has established a new record as a law maker proposing no new bills. The two bills on the calendar bearing his name were introduced at the request of Speaker Mills. Crang was imperturbed by the river pilots to introduce a compulsory pilotage bill, but he wisely declined the honor.

Captain Crang has been an engineer on the river steamers for many years, his latest employment being at the reversing lever and throttle of the Harvest Queen.

THE NORMAL SCHOOLS.

There is no justice in abolishing any of the normal schools. This state has not enough of this kind of education for teachers.

The normal schools should be compelled to confine their educational work to professional instruction of teachers.

But every dollar expended in preparing better public school teachers is seed sown that will bear the state a good harvest.

The representatives of the normal schools were before the ways and means committee and presented their claims. While there was no action taken by the committee, it is stated that the sentiment is not favorable to new buildings at the present session.

If the bill passes that puts all the schools under one board of seven regents, of which the state board of education will be a part, they may be allowed appropriations for support.

State Superintendent Ackerman was seen by a reporter today and said he believed that a bill for uniform state control and a uniform course of study and cutting out all but professional courses of study for teachers would and should pass in the interest of general education.

TAINTED BLOOD

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903. Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and had an all-gone tired feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S., and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "tired feeling" which worried me so much disappeared, and I was once again my old self. I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine. WICKTOR STUBBINS, Cor. Barthman and Washington Aves.

Wheeling, W. V., May 28, 1903. My system was run down and my joints ached and pained me considerably. I had used S. S. S. before and knew what it was, so I purchased a bottle of it and have taken several bottles and the aches and pains are gone, my blood has been cleared and my general health built up. I can testify to it as a blood purifier and tonic. 7533 Market St. JOHN C. STUBBS.

X-RAYS

Write an fare in the bottom of our hearts at least.

The man behind the pipe is not always a dreamer.

Fate saves the honor of many a man by negative action.

Never go to the man at the seek-end of a bad cigar for ideas.

Cornett, of Linn, is a sure-enough economist, but he generally plays a solo.

Kind words cost nothing, though some people are miserly about spending them.

When a young man breaks an engagement it is a sign he has a better one cinched.

McLeod is not a "cyclone without wind, a railroad without steam." He has got both.

Poise is the art of knowing how to dispose of your hands and feet in the presence of company.

Cascade county seems to be a sure thing at this term. All opposition has declined in the senate.

Senators Farrar and Hobson showed themselves progressive citizens in voting to revise the old constitution.

If we could only bear our own sorrows as cheerfully as we bear those of others there would be no sorrows.

If we were all as sure of heaven as the freckled-face boy is of red whiskers the devil would have to go out of business.

It would be awfully hard on people who have paint to sell if there should be a fine pressed brick schoolhouse built at Salem.

Pierce, of Umatilla, is modest about revising the constitution for a man who puts through so many bills in direct violation of the old organic law.

A school board that serves the public free gratis for nothing should be protected by law against the dirt-slinging and insinuations of the anonymous newspaper scribbler. A bush-whacker in print is not a particle more respectable than anywhere else.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company will never be indicted for gobbling 400,000 acres of land. Some man like Geo. C. Brownell, who never got any land, and hasn't a cent, ought to go to jail on general principles. He has no business to be poor.

Kill all the bills to tax the big untaxed and highly profitable corporations, but keep up the unjust exactions on the unprofitable miners and the poverty-stricken miners. That's a very attractive political program to go before the people with.

STATE SOCIAL NEWS

FRUITLAND.

Mrs. Benninghof and little daughters, Marjorie and Irene, of Pringle, visited with friends in Fruitland last week.

Miss Floy Brokaw has been quite ill for the past week with la grippe.

Master Vano Ralston has just recovered from an attack of la grippe.

The revival meetings closed Sunday night. There was much interest manifested throughout the meetings.

There will be preaching services at Fruitland Sunday evening at 7:30. Y. P. A. at 7 o'clock.

The Fruitland Literary and Debating Society will meet Tuesday evening as usual.

A. H. Runner and son, Kenneth, left for Cottage Grove Saturday. They expected to be gone about a week.

Will Graham met with quite an accident while working in the timber Tuesday. He was cutting the top from a tree, when it let loose sooner than he expected and fell, striking him on the left side, cutting a gash about four inches long. He was badly hurt, but managed to walk home. It is hoped that the accident will not be a serious one.

The farmers round about Fruitland are putting in the time grubbing and clearing the timber land. Already quite an improvement is noticeable. There will be a number of acres ready for cultivation this year.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A CURE FOR ALL.

Not a Patent Cure-all, Nor a Modern Miracle, but Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making any undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this, and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medicinal properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, giving refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach, which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

Labor Leader on Trial.

Hartford City, Ind., Feb. 3.—Paul St. Peter, of Pittsburg, president of the national organization of window glass workers, was put on trial here today on a charge of shooting Ollie Walker with intent to kill. The fracas occurred last fall and was the outgrowth of a factional fight among the window glass workers. The faction of which Mr. St. Peter is the head has engaged eminent counsel for his defense and the trial promises to be one of intense interest.

What would this session of the legislature be without Smith, of Josephine, to liven things up occasionally.

PORTAGE ROAD RELIEF

Another Appropriation Not Authorized by the Constitution

The house has passed the Pierce bill to create an emergency fund of $25,000 for the successful operation of the portage road.

Cornett objected to the bill on the ground that the house had turned down the project to improve the upper Willamette. The portage road should support itself.

Smith said the state had invested $165,000, and he would favor enough more to make it a success. But the state was paying good money to accomplish good results in lowering freight rates, which should be regulated by law.

Linthicum spoke for the bill as a just proposition to compel the opening of the Inland Empire.

Killingworth made the point against Cornett that if he had proposed to make the locks at Oregon City free and open, instead of a little improvement that was only patchwork, it would have had more support.

House Proceedings.

Speaker Mills called the house to order at 10 a. m. Rev. T. F. Royal asked the invocation, and was introduced as the oldest pioneer Methodist preacher in the state, who had founded the first educational institution south of Salem, and who has for seven years preached to the prisoners and the insane without compensation. He is now in his 85th year, and is writing a history of Oregon.

The speaker announced a special train for Portland at 3 p. m.

Bramhall, of Clackamas, was excused for the day.

MITCHELL WILL BE THERE

To Meet Heney and His Allies When Court Meets in April

Senator Mitchell said concerning the latest indictment against him: "When Francis J. Heney, prosecuting officer, gets through with his character-blackening process, and the court shall meet in April, I shall be on hand to meet Heney and his allies, and all accusers and accusations which seek to connect me with the land frauds, bribery or other offense.

"Of the final outcome, I have not the slightest fear, but in the meantime I assert in the most positive manner. I never in my life had any conversation with Frederick A. Kribs whatever, in reference to any land or any other business matter. I am equally positive in the statement that I never at any time or place received from him, directly or indirectly, a check or checks on a Roseburg banker or any other bank, in consideration for any services rendered or to be rendered by me as senator or for any purpose whatever.

"I further assert that Frederick A. Kribs never in his life contracted with me for the services of A. H. Tanner and myself or agreed with me to pay for services alleged to have been rendered in part by me, in appearing before, and persuading Binger Hermann, commissioner of the general land office, to make special patent or recommend issue of any patents; nor do I believe he ever made any contract with A. H. Tanner, for the reason that by our articles of copartnership, it was expressly stipulated that I could not be interested in department business, but as to business matters that Judge Tanner may have had with Kribs, Judge Tanner can himself speak. I have no knowledge of them whatever."

PALACE PHAR.

GROWING UP

There's something the matter with the child that fails to grow up. A child that grows up too much, however, without proper filling out of flesh, is almost as badly off. Nothing will help these pale, thin "weedy" children like Scott's Emulsion. It supplies the rounding out of flesh and the rich inward nourishment of blood and vital organs which insures rapid growth and healthy and uniform development.

WILL BE AT THE FAIR

Portland, Feb. 3.—For the Lewis and Clark centennial, which will be held at Portland from June 1 to October 15 next, the United States government will make an absolutely unique naval exhibit. Instead of confining to exhibit of warships entirely to miniature models, the government will mention a number of her largest and finest men-of-war in the Willamette river adjoining the fair grounds. These vessels will be open to the public for certain periods each day, and launch will carry visitors to and from them, order that the people may see for themselves just what a modern warship looks like, how it is constructed, equipped, manned and controlled.

As the government buildings are located on a peninsula, which is connected to the narrow strip of mainland separating the Willamette river and Guild's lake, the natural "grand basin" of the exposition, access to warships in the river from the ground is made easy, and the convenient location of the ships makes it certain that they will prove a most popular attraction.

The exhibit which the navy department will make in the United States government building will be complete in every detail and interesting to every one. It will include large models from eight to ten feet in length, which cost the government $8000 to $10,000 each, and which will embrace every type of warship, from the greatest battleship to the little Holland submarine torpedo boat. This array of models will include reproductions of the Maine, which was sunk in Havana harbor; the Brooklyn, Admiral Schley's flagship at Santiago; the Olympia, Dewey's flagship at Manila; the Oregon, New York, Missouri, Columbia, Kearsarge, Iowa, Newark, Louis, Texas, Arkansas, Nashville, Chesapeake, Helena, Tacoma and Annapolis, and probably several others.

A most fascinating feature of the exhibit of models will be two workable models of dry docks, one of the familiar type of dock found at most of the navy yards of the world; the other, a floating dock patterned after the docks recently installed at New Orleans and Pensacola. These models which will be operated continuously will show the manner of docking and undocking war vessels, some of ship models being used for illustration.

In one corner of the navy space will be a map of the world, 20 feet long, eight feet high, on which will be distributed diminutive models of ships in the United States navy. These models will be moved about day to day, so that at a glance the visitor can tell the location of a ship in the service.

A company of marines will be on duty at the exposition grounds during the fair. The marines will give drills and conduct a model camp.

Thirty-Five Wives.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Today Chief Police O'Neill received a telegram from the chief of police of Pasadena, stating that Martha Herz was dead and had recognized the photograph of Johann Hoch as the man whom she married in Chicago in 1896. This was the unofficial count of Hoch's wives.
