

Two Are One

In marriage only when there is equality of health as well as affection. Affection may be the basis of unity in marriage, but the superstructure depends largely on the womanly health. When the wife is tormented with headache, distressed by headache, and racked by nervousness, she has no ambition for exercise or pleasure.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures headache, backache, and other womanly ills by curing the diseases of the womanly organism which cause them. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

"My wife commenced to complain twenty years ago," writes Lewis A. Miller, ex-Chief of Police, 33 Prospect Street, Westport, Pa. "We have tried the skill of twelve different doctors. She took gallons of medicine during the time she was ill, until I wrote to you and you told us what to do. She has taken eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and six of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' She can do her own work now and can walk around again and is quite smart."

"You can publish this letter if you wish. We have received such benefit that we wish every sufferer could derive the same amount of good. My wife's complaint seemed to be a complication of diseases—so the doctors said. We will ever remain your friends. May God bless you and your Institute."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

MARTIN THEODORE RINEMAN

Prominent Salem Business Man Dies After Lingering Illness

Martin Theodore Rineman died at his home on Church street, Sunday morning, after a lingering illness of eight months from tuberculosis.

Mr. Rineman was born at Fostoria, Ohio, in 1857, and spent his early childhood at Blockton, in the same state. In 1880 he married Carrie Rakestraw, of Hicksville, Ohio, and moved to Wisconsin, where he remained 10 years. In 1889 he came to Oregon, settling in Salem, where he engaged in the grocery business, and remained in this city until his death.

Deceased leaves a wife and four children, Mrs. L. E. Hooker, of Denver, Colorado; Chester, Frank and Grace Rineman, all residing at home.

Mr. Rineman was an enterprising business man, and held the love and respect of all who knew him. All Salem grocery stores will be closed tomorrow during the funeral.

The funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. at the family home on Church street, in this city; interment at City View cemetery.

Here's a Pointer.

(Ashland Tribune.)

"If you have a homestead that you find is too heavily timbered to hold as a homestead, W. B. Sherman has some Eastern people who want to buy improvements, secure relinquishments on homesteads and file on them as timber claims."

The above significant advertisement from the Grants Pass Herald is the result of the government investigation into Oregon public land matters. Wonder how many homesteaders will suddenly discover that their claims are really timber claims, not homesteads?

John Roberts went to Gervais this morning on business for Livesley & Company.

OLD AGE

Depends Not Upon Years, but Upon Vital Force.

A GREAT DISCOVERY TO WARD OFF OLD AGE.

In Salem lately there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to old people. Some at 50 years call themselves old, and really appear so; while others at 70 years seem active, vigorous and young.

A reporter of The Capital Journal happened in the store of Geo. W. Putnam, our local druggist, the other evening, and this subject was brought up. Said Mr. Putnam: "It is a fact, and we see it illustrated every day right here in Salem; it is not years, old age does not begin at any set time, but it is loss of vital force that makes a person old. Weakened digestion, thin blood and poor circulation soon start functional powers and vitality wane, and then the symptoms of old age quickly appear. You know a man is as old as he feels.

"On the other hand," continued Mr. Putnam, "that old feeling may be warded off, and I wish every person in Salem who feels old, whether they are so in years or not, would try the great discovery, Vinol. I know that it has vital principles which will in a natural manner strengthen digestion, assimilation and all the functional powers, send rich, red blood coursing through the veins, and give new life to every organ of the body, and this is what makes the old feel young again."

Mrs. H. W. Avery, of Norwich, N. Y., writes:

"At the age of 89 I felt the need of a tonic, something to strengthen and build me up. For a year and a half I have taken Vinol, and I have found that it brings vigor and life to the aged as nothing else will."

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom (cousin to the late United States President, Zachary Taylor), 429 West Erie street, Chicago, who is 76 years old, says Vinol is a godsend to old people. So also does Mr. George L. Jones, Sr., of 19 Perrine avenue, Jersey City, and A. J. Baker of 713 Locust street, Evansville, Ind.

Vinol repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline and replaces weakness with strength. It is an ideal body builder for old folks.

We promise you that Vinol is, first of all, agreeable, because it contains no fishy oil. Second, that it is a genuine cod liver medicine, containing all the medicinal curatives and strength-making elements taken direct from fresh cod livers; and third, we will return your money if it does not do exactly what we claim for it. Geo. W. Putnam, Druggist.

Maiden Trip of New Cunarder.

New York, Feb. 20.—A dispatch from London says that the new Cunard line steamer Carolina sailed from Liverpool today on her maiden voyage to this city. The coming of the Carolina is awaited here with much interest, as she is designed to be the fastest steamship in the trans-Atlantic service. In size, also the Carolina sets a new record, being the largest passenger vessel ever constructed in England.

The Cunard company is constructing a sister ship to the Caronia, which will be fitted with turbine engines. The turbine boat and the Caronia will enable the company to judge of the merits of the two systems of propulsion—turbine and reciprocating engines—prior to going on with the two huge steamships being designed to be propelled by turbines.

New Oregon Railroads.

Astoria, Feb. 20.—The assertion is made that the Seaside Spruce Lumber company will soon begin work on the construction of a logging railroad south of Seaside. Rails for one and one-quarter miles of road are said to have been purchased. The road is to run on the survey already made adjacent to the Necanicum river, and can be utilized by the extension of the Astoria & Columbia River railroad to Nehalem, if desired.

Tillamook, Feb. 20.—One hour after a subscription had been started to raise the $35,000 subsidy required by Promoter Simmons for an electric railway along a free right of way from Forest Grove to Tillamook, $10,000 had been raised, Mayor George Cohn heading the list with $1000. The Forest Grove board of trade has sent word that it will see to the furnishing of a free right of way from that point to the Tillamook county border through Washington county.
