

SALEM POLICE COURT

Various Characters Arraigned and Asked to Leave

Myrtle P. Wallace, the Indian woman, whose name so often appears upon the police court docket, was arrested again last night, as was her "friend," John Gilpin, in the Eldridge rooming house, on Commercial street, where the pair had made their headquarters.

The Wallace woman was arrested on January 31st, and sentenced to 20 days in the city jail, but, upon promising to leave town and return no more, she was released. Last night it was learned by the police that she was in the city again, and was once more visiting her friends in Chinatown. A visit was made to this neighborhood by the officers, where it was learned that Gilpin had come after her, and taken her away, but the Celestials claimed they did not know where. After a short search the couple were found in the Eldridge, and they were promptly arrested. The woman still has 19 days on her January sentence to serve, and the man will be detained until a preliminary examination of both of them is held on the charge of lewd cohabitation, which will mean that they will be bound over to await the action of the circuit court, and, upon conviction, about six months in the county jail.

John Lickusky, an ex-convict, who served 15 years for the state, was arrested this morning about 3 o'clock and fined $10 this morning by Judge Moores.

Madam Dollarhide, another of Salem's notorious characters, narrowly escaped being gathered in by the mighty arm of the law last night, also, for she had been located by the police, but when a trip was made after her, it was learned that her trunk was packed, and she had started for pastures new.

UNIVERSITY LABORATORY.

Salem Institution Will Be Better Equipped Hereafter.

The equipment of the University laboratory was greatly increased yesterday by the receipt of a large shipment of apparatus. Included in this were a Winnhurst's static machine for X-Ray and wireless telegraphy, a laboratory microscope, torsion apparatus for determining strength of wood and iron beams, accurately ground parabolic reflectors, accurately measured sonometer, Kundt's apparatus for determining velocity of sound in air and metals, and a quantity of electric apparatus.

Two other shipments are on the way, each of which are larger than either of the ones received thus far.

Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medical tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair ave., Columbus, Ohio, writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak from useless doctor's drugs that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guarantee at J. O. Perry's drug store; price 50c.

Motion Filed.

A motion to strike out has been filed by Carson & Cannon, attorneys for defendant in the libel suit of Robert Burns vs. R. D. Hume.

SOCIAL EVENTS

A '63' Party.

Miss Ruth Gabrielson entertained a number of friends last evening in a most delightful manner at her home on High street. The amusement of the evening was "63," and Miss Helen Calbreath won first prize and Mr. Samuel Young captured the gentleman's prize. Other games were played, and the whole evening was most enjoyable. Miss Daisy Freeman, of Portland, who is visiting in the city, favored the company with several songs, which were much enjoyed. A dainty lunch was served.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Gatens, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Smith, Misses Helen Calbreath, Bertha Kay, Lela Herren, Ilda Jones, of Brooks; Daisy Freeman, of Portland; Eva Coshaw, Claire and Jessie Holmes, Jettie Watson, Messrs Fred and Edward Thielsen, Roy and Chauncey Bishop, Paul Wallace, Will Burghardt, Samuel Young and Mae Hofer.

Bach Recital at University.

The Bach recital by the College of Music, given in the University chapel last night, was well attended, and well given. Each number on the program was the work of the famous composer, who is to music what Shakespeare is to literature.

Introductory to the program Prof. Newberry, principal of the piano department, made a few interesting remarks on Bach and his achievements.

The numbers were all well rendered, but the baritone solo, "Ave Maria," by R. H. Zercher, was, without doubt, the best received of any.

Following is the program as given:

Kleine Praeludien, No. 3—Con Moto, Chloé E. Bashor.

No. 4—Allegretto Moderato, Anna Hume.

No. 7—Praeludio Fughetta, Ethel L. Thomas.

Song, "My Heart Ever Faithful," Nellie A. Parsons, soprano.

Two part Inventionen, No. 2—Moderato, Margaret A. Fisher.

No. 12—Allegro vivace e brioso, Elizabeth T. Will.

Song, "Forget Me Not," Minetta Magers, contralto.

Three part Inventionen, No. 6—Allegro "Alla Gigue," Jennie Sanders.

No. 15—Moderato, non Troppo, C. J. Catlow.

Song, "Ave Maria," adapted to the first prelude, Well Tempered Clavichord, by Chas. Gunnod, R. H. Zercher, baritone.

Well Tempered Clavichord, No. 1—Prelude Fuga, Frank E. Churchill.

Chinaman Pardoned.

Governor Chamberlain, this morning, granted a full pardon to Wong Gee, the Chinese convict who was serving a life sentence for murder in the second degree, giving as reasons that he had been a most exemplary prisoner, is advanced in years, and is in feeble health, and also that His Excellency Prince Kang Yu Wei has agreed to transport the convict back to China to his friends, who may take care of him in his old age.

Prince Kang Yu Wei went to the country today to inspect hop yards and farms, but left his private secretary Chew Kok Hean, to make the necessary arrangements for Wong's release and his transportation back to China.

HON. L. T. HARRIS JUDGE

Three Important Appointments Made Today

Governor Chamberlain has announced the appointment of Lawrence T. Harris as judge of the second judicial district; Samuel White, judge of the eighth judicial district, and Clarence Crawford, as district attorney of the tenth judicial district.

The governor stated that, as he believed in a non-partisan judiciary, he has made an appointment of a Republican in a district where there is now a Democratic judge, and vice versa.

A Remarkable Petition.

Ed. Journal: The Portland delegation here during the legislature made their brags that when the proper time came they would wipe the state fair off the earth. They did that, with a few Salem men signing a petition. At the last hours of the legislature it was a very nice trick, but it worked, and, as yesterday's Journal stated, the street cars would lose $9000 and the hotels, boarding places and restaurants $5000. This cuts no figure. Those institutions have no moral right to live and when they have a chance to make a dollar, the Salem business man ought to knock them out, as they have done in this case. That was a remarkable petition gotten up by Portland, and ought to be preserved for future reference. A SALEMITE.

Where Doctors Agree.

When a patient is under the doctor's care for some months, with constantly varying symptoms, but ever increasing weakness from the loss of flesh and strength by the ravages of disease, all doctors will agree that the first gain of flesh indicates a change for the better. Weak, thin, fleshless people know they feel better as soon as they gain flesh. The best flesh and blood maker is Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. For pimply, pale and sickly people, both old and young, a better medicine was never made. It turns the food you eat into strong, red blood, making solid flesh and muscle at the rate of 1 to 3 pounds per week. It is sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. To overcome the effect of over-indulgence or dissipation use this medicine. For sale by Dr. S. C. Stone, druggist.

PUBLIC BUILDING BILL

Will Not Be Up for Action at this Congress

Washington, Feb. 21.—Speaker Cannon today informed the committee on public buildings and grounds that he wouldn't grant a rule for consideration of a public building bill carrying $9,500,000. A petition, signed by 300 members, asking that the bill be considered was presented to the speaker, but he was obdurate.

JESSIE ELDRIDGE SOUTHWICK COMING

Head of the Dramatic Department of Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, to Appear in the Merchant of Venice on the 28th Inst.

It is with great pleasure and satisfaction that we announce the coming of Mrs. Southwick. Having known her for many years, and being familiar with her work, we do not hesitate to say that Salem has never heard her superior and seldom her equal. No lover of good literature and artistic interpretation, no one interested in dramatic art should fail to hear her. Sara Brown Savage, dean of College of Oratory, Willamette University.

LIVED WITH WIFE LESS THAN MONTH

Mrs. M. A. Deadmond Sues J. J. Deadmond for Divorce for Desertion.

J. J. Deadmond and wife lived together less than a month after they were married, according to the complaint of the wife, M. A. Deadmond, who has sued her husband for a divorce. They were married in Lane county on January 16, 1904, and Mrs. Deadmond alleges her husband willfully and without cause or provocation deserted her on February 12, 1904, and has neglected to provide for her since.

J. M. Williams is Mrs. Deadmond's attorney in the case.—Eugene Guard.
