

This Pretty Girl Saved From Catarrh of the Lungs By Pe-ru-na.

MISS FLORENCE KENAH.

Miss Florence E. Kenah, 434 Maria street, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "A few months ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and remained there so persistently that I became alarmed. I took medicine without benefit, until my digestive organs became upset, and my head and back began to ache severely and frequently. "I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had little faith I felt so sick that I was ready to try anything. It brought me blessed relief at once, and I felt that I had the right medicine at last. Within three weeks I was completely restored and have enjoyed perfect health since. "I now have the greatest faith in Peruna." Florence E. Kenah.

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CONTRACTING CATARRH. The cold wind and rain, slush and mud of winter are especially conducive to catarrhal derangements. Few women escape. Upon the first symptoms of catching cold Peruna should be taken. It fortifies the system against colds and catarrh.

Pe-ru-na for Colds and Catarrh. The following interesting letter gives one young woman's experience with Peruna: Miss Rose Gerbing, a popular society woman of Crown Point, Ind., writes: "Recently I took a long drive in the country, and being too thinly clad I caught a bad cold which settled on my lungs, and which I could not seem to shake off. I had heard a great deal of Peruna for colds and catarrh and I bought a bottle to try. I am pleased that I did, for it brought speedy relief. It only took about two bottles, and I consider this money well spent. "You have a firm friend in me, and I not only advise its use to my friends, but have purchased several bottles to give to those without the means to buy, and have noticed without exception that it has brought about a speedy cure wherever it has been used."—Rose Gerbing. Pe-ru-na Contains no Narcotics. One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect. It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio. ## OREGON TOBACCO PRODUCT

The Salem Cigar Factory Is Increasing Its Output All the Time

Those who have had experience say this climate and the rich soils of the river bottoms are well adapted to tobacco culture. Several growers claim to have produced saleable leaf tobacco. Those who understand the business in other sections of the country should have their attention called to the possibility of developing this industry. There is no doubt that certain kinds of leaf could be grown here to great advantage, and we suggest that persons who have friends in tobacco growing regions send them this paper and give their addresses to the Commercial club so that correspondence may result. Cigar Manufacturer. Several years ago August Hucklestein came to Salem and commenced to make cigars. He kept himself alone employed in his factory at first, while he was not out trying to sell the cigars he made. He had more trouble selling what he made than he experiences now in disposing of the output of himself and seven other men—eight of them in all, making cigars every day in the year.

During 1904, last year, they made and sold 350,000 cigars. There are several brands made and sold, but the most popular and the old stand-by of the Salem cigar factory is the La Corona 10c cigar. The Tashmoo, a two for a quarter all Havana cigar, has a considerable sale, and there are several 5c cigars, including Our Champion, having a steady run. Mr. Hucklestein expects that his Salem cigar factory will during 1905 exceed the sales of 1904 by considerable. The trade for January and February has kept up very well. Ought to Be More.

The employment of eight men in the making of cigars in Salem is a good deal better than no men at all. But there should be more of them working at this trade here. If all the smokers would use only home-made cigars, as some of them make a practice of doing, there would be 50 cigarmakers here, if not more. Mr. Hucklestein is obliged, in the making of 350,000 cigars a year, to keep a big lot of money invested in leaf tobacco. He has stacks of it, for wrappers, running as high as $5 a pound. He has on hand tobacco grown in Sumatra, Cuba, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and several other states. Some of the tobacco, if not all of it, must have age before being made into cigars. It must age for two years or more.

The Salem cigar factory occupies a considerable floor space upstairs in the building next to the Capital National bank. It is up off the street, and very little is known by the general public of its workings. But it is nevertheless an interesting place, and is becoming more and more important in the business life of Salem.

In Memoriam.

Upon call of President Prescott the members of the Salem Press Club held a special meeting last evening for the purpose of taking suitable action upon the death of one of the oldest members of the club, the late Frank X. Hofer, who died at the home of his brother, A. F. Hofer, yesterday morning. Several members of the club were present, and all expressed grief at the loss of such a valuable member and citizen, and, in the end, resolutions of condolence were drawn and submitted by the committee, consisting of L. A. Manning, J. C. Sullivan and E. F. Averill, which were adopted unanimously. This same committee was also instructed to summon the members of the club together attend the funeral in a body, and to select and purchase an appropriate floral piece in the name of the club out of respect to the deceased member. The following is a copy of the resolutions: "Whereas, Frank X. Hofer, a member of the Salem Press Club, departed this life on February 24, 1905, be it "Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Hofer the Salem Press Club has lost a member whose earnestness and ability have made him a valuable member of our profession, whose uprightness and ability have won our confidence and esteem, and whose kindness and unselfish spirit have endeared him to all his associates. "To his bereaved wife, son and brothers we extend our heartfelt sympathy, assuring them that the grief which they feel is shared by us. "Adopted by unanimous vote of the club February 24, 1905. "L. B. DAVIS Secretary. "A. W. PRESCOTT, President."

Competition In Architects Demanded

The Journal calls attention to a communication in this paper demanding open competition among architects for plans and specifications for the new high school building. If there is to be a favored architect there will be favored contractors, and public school buildings should be constructed by opening competition to all. If, after perfectly open competition, the Board awards the work to Mr. Pugh, he is the right man to do the work. But not otherwise. As the correspondent says the district has a right to competition among architects as well as among contractors.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD

Will Initiate 400 Candidates at Albany Tonight

The Woodmen of the World are holding a great jollification at Albany this afternoon and tonight, and large delegations are present from this city, Eugene, Corvallis and many other points in the valley. Tonight 400 members will be initiated into the mysteries of Woodcraft at the various lodge halls in Albany. This is the result of a great campaign inaugurated by Organizer Tichenor, of that order, following the plans of the late head of the Woodmen, F. A. Falkenberg. The Salem degree team, together with a large number of the members of the order, and McElroy's band went up on the train this morning, and will take a prominent part in the work tonight. The Salem camp will furnish several members for the frisky goat and the watchword of the local choppers is "we'll not go home until morning." The Albany Woodmen have prepared a splendid program, and propose to give the visitors a royal welcome. The banquet will be one of the finest ever served in the city by the Calpools, and every feature of the entertainment will be first-class. Oil on Kansas Waters. Topeka, Feb. 25.—Governor Hoch decided to put the state refinery in operation at once. The bond issue is being prepared, and the governor hopes to have the work started by April.
