

DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL

CODY DIVORCE TRIAL

Two Other Cases in Which Women Were Un- fortunate

North Platte, Neb., Feb. 27.—The Cody divorce case was resumed today behind closed doors. Witnesses testified that Cody drank and caroused with women. Seven prominent women of North Platte testified that Mrs. Cody never drank or used profane language. Friends of Mrs. Cody say that she would gladly forgive the scout and welcome him back, if he would but say the word, and publicly deny the poisoning charges.

New York, Feb. 27.—The jury in the divorce suit of Mrs. Brady against Daniel Brady, a wealthy railway supply manufacturer, in which Gertrude Macenzie, a comic opera actress, is respondent, disagreed. Mrs. Bailey is a granddaughter of the late Isaac Singer, inventor of the Singer sewing machine.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Policeman Dan Harman at noon today shot and killed Miss Minnie Mulvial, aged 21, at 39th and Wabash avenue. Jealousy is said to be the cause. Harman escaped. The woman's father is a wealthy liquor dealer.

The victim, Mary E. Mulvial, is the only daughter of John Mulvial, a wealthy wine merchant, who died several years ago, leaving the girl a fortune of a quarter of a million. The girl is prominent in Catholic circles and devoted most of her time to philanthropic work in St. James' parish. Kermann tried to persuade the girl to marry him, but she refused.

STATE BOODLE CHARGES

Election Frauds in Colorado About to Be Decided

Denver, Feb. 27.—The legislative committee, appointed to hear evidence on the gubernatorial contest, meet this afternoon. Review briefs have been submitted by Adams and Peabody. The impression prevails that a report favoring Adams will be adopted, but not unanimously.

Salt Lake, Feb. 27.—It has been decided to send the house investigating committee tonight to St. Louis to probe the Utah commission at the world's fair scandal to the bottom. Today further vouchers were discovered.

You'll Need

to brighten up the house a little before your Eastern friends visit you during the fair this summer. It's remarkable what a difference a few pairs of

New Lace Curtains

will make in the appearance of a room. Just let us show you the splendid values we are offering in
LACE CURTAINS,
CURTAIN SWISS and VESTIBULE NETS.

Barnes' Cash Store
E. T. BARNES,
Proprietor.
SALEM'S CHEAPEST ONE-PRICE CASH STORE.

The handwriting expert testified before the committee that they were forgery, and appeared to have been done by John Q. Cannon, the missing secretary.

Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—The grand jury investigation of the Baker-Baker and other legislative bribery charges began this morning. Judge Alfred gave special instructions to the jury on the subject of bribery, and promised to punish any one attempting to tamper with the jury.

Northwest Personalities.
It is said that Governor Mead, of Washington, will veto the capital removal bill.

Dr. Withycombe of the Corvallis Agricultural college, has announced himself as a candidate for governor.

Jeremiah McNutt, of Wallula, has been arrested for insanity because he drew money from the bank and threw it away.

Mrs. James Woody, a pioneer of Garfield, Wash., is dead.

ANTI- TRUST DECISION

United States Supreme Court Upholds Texas Law

Washington, Feb. 27.—The supreme court today upheld the anti-trust laws of Texas, affirming the judgment of the state court, enjoining the National Cotton Seed Oil and Southern Cotton Seed Oil Companies from doing further business in the state, having violated the anti-combination statute. Justice McKenna read the decision, holding the statute proper and within the legitimate powers of the legislature.

YAQUI INDIANS WARLIKE

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 27.—A dispatch from Opodepe, Mexico, states that a band of Yaquis held up a wagon train at Estacion Pozo, securing silver bullion valued at $15,000, and other booty. All mines in that vicinity, and some which are operated by Americans, are closed down temporarily, on account of the great activity and depredations of the Yaquis.

BURNING MEN IN MINE

Welch, W. Va., Feb. 27.—It is reported that the mines of the United States Coal Company, eight miles east, where an explosion occurred yesterday, are afire. The rescuing party was forced to abandon work. It is stated that at least 15 miners are known to be dead, but it is feared the total death list will greatly exceed this.

MORE OF BOODLE SENATOR

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 27.—Senator Bunkers, indicted for boodling, surrendered to the sheriff this morning, for the purpose of securing a writ of habeas corpus to go before the supreme court. The writ was prepared by the sheriff, who will probably take Bunkers to San Francisco this afternoon.

Chas. B. Hanford.
Mr. Charles B. Hanford, who has always been an enthusiast in the matter of stage properties, has made an especial study of the costuming of Othello, which he will present at the Grand Opera House on Friday, March 3d. The little touches of detail have been minutely watched with the keen delight of an enthusiast, and in the presentation of the play the costuming will reflect the spirit of the times in which the characters are cast as accurately as does the dialogue.

HEAVIEST FIGHTING OF THE WAR

Japanese Canonading Does Ter- rible Destruction

No Peace Proposals Have Ever Been Submitted to the American Government

Tien Tsin, Feb. 27.—Reports from the front via New Chwang, says the 11-inch mortars used by the Japanese in the bombardment of Mukden have caused great damage. Also that a general engagement is in progress, with the heaviest fighting on the Japanese right. Kuroki is said to be threatening to crumple the Russians back onto the railroad.

No Peace Proposals.
Washington, Feb. 27.—The state department this morning made the following statement regarding the alleged peace proposals: "The government states that it has never received from the Japanese government a request to lay a proposition of peace before the Russian government. Never directly or indirectly was it approached by the Russian government on the subject."

General Japanese Attack.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—General Kuropatkin reports that the Japanese have commenced canonading the Russian positions at Coutalin and Canfaulin.

Fourth Squadron Arming.
Kronstadt, Feb. 27.—The Fourth

Baltic squadron, consisting of two battleships, four torpedo destroyers and two transports begins arming tomorrow for a voyage to the Far East.

Murder Peaceful Artisans.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—The situation in the Caucasus is becoming more serious. At Baku today armed Armenians invaded Melikoff's factory and massacred 42 Russian workmen, who refused to participate in the revolutionary movement.

Police Join Strikers.
Warsaw, Feb. 27.—Sixty per cent. of the police force struck today, openly joining the workmen, and forced the strikers to rebel. Policemen paraded the suburbs this morning, felling telegraph poles. In a fight at Nowelipki street one soldier and one policeman were killed. Ten policemen were wounded.

Russian Officers Reduced.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Yielding to the demands of the United States, Russia ordered the officers of the cruiser Lenn, who violated their parole, to return to San Francisco, and reduced them one grade as a punishment. The only excuse offered was their youth.

BOODLING SENATORS UNANIMOUSLY EXPELLED

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 27.—The senate this morning adopted the committee report recommending the expulsion of Senators Emmons, Wright, Bunkers and French for accepting bribes. Immediately upon the adoption which was unanimous, a resolution to formally expel the accused men was introduced. On a separate vote French and Bunkers were unanimously expelled. The vote in the Emmons and Wright cases will be taken up later in the day.

OLYMPIA RETAINS STATE CAPITOL

Olympia, Feb. 27.—Governor Mead today vetoed the capitol removal building on the ground that it entailed needless expense, and there was apparent coercion in accomplishing the passage of the bill. An attempt to pass the bill over the veto in the senate resulted in a tie vote. The removal of the supreme court was also defeated in the senate.

FRIGHTFUL JAPANESE EXECUTION AT MUKDEN

Mukden, Feb. 27.—In the fight for the possession of the Da and Che passes Sunday, the Russians were greatly outnumbered, and sustained severe losses.

Some regiments lost as high as 70 per cent killed and wounded in hand to hand struggles. At night the Russians are still in possession of the two passes.

ACCOMODATE HIGH SCHOOL APPOINTEES

Governor Chamberlain is in receipt of information in regard to the accommodation of the representatives of Oregon high schools, whom he has appointed to take part in the inaugural parade in Washington, March 4th.

The headquarters of the high school representatives will be at the Franklin school, on the corner of 13th and K streets, about five blocks from the White House. Good board and lodging may be obtained at about $2 per day, and information as to location of hotels and restaurants will be given at time of registration.

An informal reception will be held at the Franklin school, Friday evening, March 3d, and it is urgently requested that all representatives be present. The representatives will march in a body in the column of civic organizations.

Appointees should send their official appointment from the governor to Chas. B. Clark, chairman of the committee on state representatives. His address is in care of the Dennison school, Washington, D. C.
The house has agreed to the conference report on the army appropriation bill.

THE DAY'S NEWS

The Cape Town British steamer Dee was wrecked at Possession Island, and it is believed that all on board are lost.

Prominent Jews of Berlin, have received confirmation of the anti-Jewish riots at Feodosia, Crimea, in which 47 Jews, including 17 women, were killed and 183 wounded.

It is understood that Judge Swayne, who was acquitted by the senate, will send his resignation to President Roosevelt without delay.

Announcement of the acquittal of Judge Swayne was made to the house by the sergeant at arms and was received in silence by congress.

Senator Dubois introduced in the senate today a joint resolution providing for a constitutional amendment prohibiting polygamy.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL LOSSES

Run Into Millions From the New Orleans Fire

New Orleans, Feb. 27.—The loss by the fire which swept the Illinois Central freight terminals last night is now estimated at close to $5,000,000. The flames are still sweeping the district for 11 blocks, but are under control. A thousand cars of grain, over 28,000 bales of cotton and 15,000 barrels of sugar were burned. Over a half million bushels of corn were burned in the Stuesvant docks.

In all about a mile of docks was wiped out. Six fire department horses and three engines are ruined. Eighty houses, belonging to the laboring classes, were destroyed. The steamships Royal and Indiana are damaged to the extent of $50,000. The company has announced that it will rebuild the docks.

The fire strikes a serious temporary blow at the immense export trade of New Orleans.

The ocean-going shipping seems to have escaped serious damage. A number of firemen and employes of the docks were injured. Actual estimates of the losses are impossible to obtain tonight, though they may exceed $5,000,000.

The Stuesvant docks extend from Louisiana avenue almost to Napoleon avenue, a distance of 12 squares. The wharves between these two points were covered with miles of trackage, and a steel and iron shed ran the whole distance.

The bodies of two more victims of the explosion at the Virginia mine were recovered today, making a total of 105. Six more bodies are in sight. Official investigation of the accident began today.

At Tokio, capital of Japan, it was announced today that the Russians continued the bombardment of South Mukden Saturday and Sunday. The weather is very cold, and snow is falling.

JUDGE SWAYNE ACQUITTED

Federal Judge From Florida Who Was Impeached by Congress

Washington, Feb. 10.—The senate at 10 o'clock this morning began voting on the Swayne impeachment case. On the charge that he collected $230 expenses, at $10 a day, for holding court at Waco, Texas, they adjudged him "not guilty" by a vote of 40 to 35. The voting was on party lines.

On articles 2 to 8, inclusive, charges of using a private car, the vote was not guilty.

With the voting of "not guilty" on article 12, a resolution was immediately adopted declaring Swayne acquitted, and the senate as a court of impeachment, adjourned sine die. The galleries were crowded, and every senator was in his seat. Swayne paced the lobby, awaiting the verdict, which was carried to him immediately on the final vote.

NAN HAS HABEAS CORPUS

Patterson Woman Also Gains a Point on Another Plea

New York, Feb. 27.—Justice Gaynor today issued a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Nan Patterson, who is now in the Tombs prison, accused of the murder of Caesar Young, returnable before him. She will be brought in tomorrow. The justice also granted the application of Miss Patterson's counsel for a writ of certiorari, bringing her case before the May term of court, on the ground that she has been deprived of her constitutional rights to a speedy trial.

AFTER MANY YEARS

An Ohio Man Is Put on Trial for Arson

Bryan, O., Feb. 27.—For the alleged crime of arson, committed at Montpelier, Ohio, 24 years ago, George Letcher, a former banker of Fayette, Ohio, was placed on trial here today. Letcher was a resident of San Jose, Cal., from whence he was spirited last December by Ohio officers, after fruitless extradition proceedings. He is being defended by George Buchard, a San Francisco attorney.

Special Sale Curtains Wednesday.

SEE BIG AD ON PAGE THREE

Jos. Meyers & Sons
SALEM'S GREATEST STORE
THE WHITE CORNER