FREEDOM THROUGH WORK

Dramatic Reader Entertains the Students of Willamette

"Personal Development" was the theme of a short address to the University students this morning by Mrs. Jessie Eldridge Southwick, of the Emerson College of Oratory, of Boston.
"Freedom is gained through work," was the opening thought, and she went on to develop this and to show that freedom is a positive achievement which enables its possessor to express the universal law of nature through himself.
"Education is not merely a learning of facts and figures, which will be most forgotten by the time you are out of school, but it is an eternal possession which gives one the power to know the power to do, and the power to dare."
Patience and right endeavor were two guiding principles recommended by the speaker.
"Patience," she declared, "is a great virtue. It is not a mere passiveness, but it is a sublime fortitude that never relaxes, never gives up."
"Every day of our school life is an opportunity to correct some fault, to eradicate some evil in our lives. According as we have sown so shall we reap."
In conclusion she gave as an emphasis to her remarks two very beautiful readings, "The Chambered Mantilis" and "Life and Song."
Mrs. Southwick has wonderful powers of expression, which combines with her charming personality to make her a favorite with any audience. The students were more than delighted this morning and will turn out en masse to hear her in "The Merchant of Venice" tonight.

LONG'S CIGAR STORE ROBBED.

Slot Machine Broken Into, and Contents Stolen by Local Thugs.

A great deal of mystery surrounds the robbery of a slot machine in Long's cigar (?) store, which presumably occurred Saturday or Sunday night, as the robbery was evidently committed by some one who was acquainted with the arrangement of the place. The burglars came in by a back door and pried the lock off of a nickle-in-the-slot machine, robbing it of about $30 in nickles. There are also a box of cigars and a few packages of gum reported missing, making the total amount lost about $35.
The store was closed by the proprietor at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, his gambling games being closed, and was not opened again until Sunday afternoon, when he dropped into the place for a few minutes, but did not notice anything wrong. He then again closed the place until yesterday, when he came down and opened the store, finding, to his astonishment, that the machine had been broken and robbed.

AMATEUR BASEBALL LEAGUE

Willamette-Oregon-O. A. C. Alliance for Promotion of National Game

Baseball enthusiasm at Willamette received a big impetus this morning when the management received word from Eugene that the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis, wished to join with Willamette in the formation of a three-cornered intercollegiate baseball league. This removes all doubt as to the possibility of the local team being unable to secure games with any other institutions. Every important institution in the state has a team, and it is very probable that this league will be enlarged so as to include Pacific University, at Forest Grove, and Columbia University, at Portland.
In addition to the league games, Willamette will have some preliminary games with Mt. Angel, Monmouth and Chemawa. The crowning event of the season will be the baseball tournament which is proposed to be held in conjunction with the Lewis and Clarke centennial at Portland in June.
Willamette never had brighter prospects for putting out a winning team, and the "fiends" are more than enthusiastic. Every time the sun comes out for a few hours, the athletic field is soon peopled with a large number of devotees of the national game.
The work of selecting a team will be a hard one, for every position has at least one, and some of them many applicants.
Jerman and Nace will, no doubt do the twirling, while Unruh and Rader will preside at the receiving end of the battery. So far, but two applicants have turned up for shortstop, they are M. M. Long and Mendenhall. First base seems to be the most popular, and for this position are available O. B. Long, Hamilton, Eyre and Averill. Beach will probably officiate at the second station, and Curtis Coleman will no doubt be found on the third bag. For the outfield there will be available all the surplus infield material and in addition Mac Hofer, Jones, Hunt, Trill, Grannis, Elliott and a few others.
These men are all old players, and thoroughly understand the game.

KNIGHTS VISIT ALBANY

Albany, Feb. 28.—A special conclave of Temple Commandery, called for work in the degrees, was held last night in the Masonic hall of this city. It was one of the most interesting and impressive ceremonies ever witnessed in that hall, and was attended by members of the Salem and Eugene lodges, elaborate preparations having been made for their reception and entertainment. There were also a few distinguished guests from Corvallis present, most of whom belonged to the Albany Commandery.
After the work in the hall was concluded the Knights adjourned to Simpson's Grill, where covers had been laid for over 60. A royal banquet was spread before the visitors, and, when toasts were in order, under the direction of Toastmaster Bilyeu, nearly every one was forced to speak before the merry band dispersed by singing "Auld Lang Syne."
Among the members from outside cities were the following:
DeMolay Commandery No. 5, Salem—Judge George H. Burnett, Dr. W. H. Byrd, Lot L. Pearce, Judge J. M. Payne, F. A. Turner, J. S. Wyant, M. L. Meyers, Geo. G. Brown, William Warner, J. H. Settlemier, Henry Shumaker, Dr. E. A. Pierce, A. A. Cunningham, Francis E. Shafer, C. A. Murphy.
Ivanhoe Commandery No. 2, Eugene—L. N. Poney, grand commander of Oregon; L. Bilyeu, eminent commander; J. F. Robison, grand recorder; J. D. Matlock, E. Whattam, G. Debar, H. W. Thompson, O. E. Smith, John Rowe, P. E. Duan, W. W. Preston, J. A. Mourer,

POPULAR SALEM TEACHERS

There is great interest being taken by the children and parents in the contest for the most popular teacher in the schools and colleges of Salem, and a large vote will be cast.
The free box at the play of "Othello," by Mr. Hanford, is a desirable attraction, and will be much prized by the winner, as it means five seats in the best and highest-priced chairs in the house. It begins to look as though some school other than the public school would win the contest.

RODE A HORSE NEARLY TO DEATH

George Gilchrist Arrested at Springfield for Cruelty to Animals.
Eugene Guard, February 27th.
George Gilchrist was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dan Humphreys at Springfield, charged with cruelty to animals. He pleaded not guilty, and his trial will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Yesterday Gilchrist rode a horse from Creswell to Springfield, a distance of about ten miles, at a terrific pace, and when he arrived at Springfield the animal was covered with blood, and nearly dead with exhaustion. After stopping there he beat the horse and otherwise abused it.
Gilchrist, it is said, was drunk at the time.

THE DAY'S NEWS

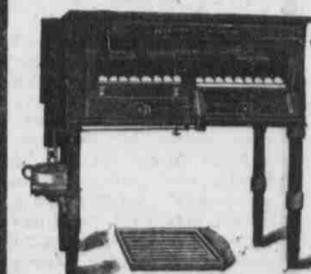

The Albany demonstration added 400 new members to the Woodmen of the World.
The bill appropriating $25,000 for a Wisconsin exhibit at the Lewis and Clarke exposition passed the senate today.
The state department has been informed of the appointment of Senor Don Diego Mendosa, as minister from Colombia. The post has been vacant three years.
The board of directors of the Vistula railroad, in Russia, decided today to grant most of the strikers' demands. It is hoped the train service will be resumed immediately.

The Petaluma Incubator

We have recently accepted the agency for this incubator, the standard of the country, and if you are a poultry raiser you need one, unless you already have a Petaluma. Come in and see them and get a catalogue, or write us for information.
Standard sizes always in stock. Brooders as well.

Studebaker Hacks

Are famous all over the United States for their lasting qualities. They are made of wood that is thoroughly air-seasoned, not rushed through a dry kiln, and when you get one you get a finished product. All weights and styles. Our "village wagon" has more friends than any similar vehicle in the country; 11-8 inch, three springs, a good, substantial, medium-priced hack for farm or city use. Come and see.

We are always ready with reasonable lines of implements, vehicles and machinery. We learn each year a little better how to take care of your needs, and we sell only reliable merchandise in all lines. If it "has wheels" we have everything that runs or can be drawn. Call and see us and state your needs. We're always glad to see you, and we try to treat you so you'll come back.
