

Consults A Physician

But does NOT Tell Him All.

Few women confide fully in a physician. They simply will not tell him all. That's why many doctors fail to cure female diseases.

Every woman dreads the ordeal of the physician's consulting room. A sensitive, refined woman shrinks from the searching questions and the physical examination!

It is not so in writing to Mrs. Pinkham. Thousands of women owe their present health and happiness (yes, and their good looks, too) to the fact that they have told all their physical troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her advice and been cured of female diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cures more women every year than any other medicine in the world. If you are in doubt about your case, write in perfect confidence to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. You will receive in reply a personal letter of advice free.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For three months I was sick in bed with female trouble and had four doctors, who all agreed that I must undergo an operation and have my ovaries removed. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I submitted to an operation. I did so and am very glad to say that after I had used five bottles I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since. I am only too glad to recommend your medicines, as they saved me from an operation which might have proved fatal.

MRS. M. KUTTNER,
556 South Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Hayes also profited by Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote you describing my symptoms (fibroid tumor) and asked your advice. You replied and I followed all your directions carefully and to-day am a well woman.

MRS. E. F. HAYES.

New Pastor.

Rev. Babcock, of Auburn, N. Y., has been called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Salem, to succeed Rev. Ketchum. Rev. Babcock has been recommended by Rev. H. L. Reed, and is a brother of the famous Dr. Babcock, of New York, who died on the Palestine trip last year. He is said to be a very bright young man.—Albany Democrat.

Eugene Register (Rep.): The great struggle in Washington state over the railroad question is about to be solved by passage of a bill for an elective railroad commission. This sudden change of front has created consternation in the railroad camp. Railroads never enter much objection to appointive commissions, but when they are elected by the people and are held amenable to the public for their acts, the railroads become intensely interested at once. If Washington wheat growers expect to accomplish what they have been fighting for they will have to do it through an elective commission.

VOTING CONTEST COUPON

For Free Box to Othello, March 3rd.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

MY CHOICE IS

The play of "Othello," by Shakespeare, is the fourth presentation from the greatest dramatist in the world by Mr. and Mrs. Hanford in this city. They have given "Taming of the Shrew," "Much Ado About Nothing," and "Richard III," and will now give "Othello" to our theatre-goers. All Shakespearian plays are educational, and The Journal has always fostered an interest in educational matters. Hence it takes this opportunity to compliment the ladies who give their life to the work of training our children, and hopes there will be a pleasant and friendly voting contest among the many popular teachers of this city.

Terms of the contest are simple. The contest closes at noon Friday, March 2d, and the result will be announced in The Journal of that evening. The teacher receiving the most votes will be entitled to the honor, and will occupy the free box with her party of friends. The votes will be received at any time after this date in a sealed box at The Journal office, and will be counted by a disinterested committee on Friday afternoon, March 3d. Voter can be cut out and cast by any person, whether a subscriber or not.

REFER MONEY BILLS

Plans to Tie Up Over a Million Dollars

State Will Pay a Large Sum in Interest and Extra on Supplies

McMinnville special to the Oregonian:

Ever since the adjournment of the legislature there has been talk of circulating a petition asking for the referendum on house bill No. 370, which carries an appropriation of over $1,000,000 for state penal, reformatory and charitable institutions at Salem, the State Agricultural college and the normal schools.

An executive committee, consisting of representatives from each of the political parties was appointed and instructed to have petition forms printed and to urge voters in all legitimate ways to work for the defeat of the bill. This committee consists of:

M. B. Hendrick, chairman; H. L. McCann, J. C. Cooper, William Vinton, David Stout, W. C. Hagerty and B. L. Asbury.

Discussion of the Subject.

Following the appointment of the committee, the meeting was opened for discussion of the step under consideration. W. C. Hagerty in response to a request from and in the behalf of Dr. J. C. Galbreath, of the state insane asylum, stated that if the appropriation bill should be killed, it would be a hardship upon and a positive detriment to that institution.

G. O. Holman then defined the financial situation of the state if the requisite number of petitioners should be secured. He also stated that, although such condition might and probably would cause temporary inconvenience, it would be an effectual way of eliminating a system of biennial appropriations which are considered by many to be unjust.

W. W. Mickle, a farmer from the Bellevue section, also made a pointed speech in behalf of the petition. W. T. Vinton stated that he considered the matter of making appropriations unjust and would support a petition for referendum on House bill 370, and would do all he could to further the movement.

Prescott's special has this from Salem: Great interest is being taken in the progress of the movement. Salem people are generally opposed to the referendum, for if the appropriation bill should be held up no warrants could be drawn for services or supplies at the state institutions and it would probably be necessary for employees and furnishers of supplies to discount their certificates showing the amount due them.

The amount of the appropriation bill was about $1,049,000, of which sum $300,000 was for the university, Agricultural college, Normal schools, new buildings, etc., not authorized by existing laws. If the appropriation bill should be held up by referendum petitions, the asylum, penitentiary, reform school, blind school, mute school, soldiers' home, university and Agricultural college would continue to operate as they have in the past, except that certificates of audit would be issued in payment of expenses instead of warrants. These certificates would not draw interest, unless the next legislature appropriated money for interest, but the amount of the certificate would be paid.

The university and Agricultural college have standing appropriations and all that would be cut off from these institutions by the referendum on the appropriation bill would be the additional sums allowed for new buildings and increased maintenance. With the appropriation bill held up, the Normal schools would receive neither certificates of audit nor warrants, for they exist by no authority of law.

The effect of demanding the referendum upon the appropriation bill would be to prevent the incurring of expenses of about $300,000 in the next two years, while necessary authorized expenses to the amount of $750,000 would be evidenced by certificates of audit. Should the next legislature allow 6 per cent interest on these certificates, the accumulated interest would amount to about $45,000.

Superintendent Galbreath, of the insane asylum, says that holding up the appropriation bill would probably also have the effect of raising the price of supplies 5 to 10 per cent, for bidders would take discount into consideration in making prices.

Editorial Comment.

As all efforts to hold a constitution al convention have been defeated there is probably no other way to accomplish reforms but by the referendum. The state will probably suffer the disadvantage and the disgrace of abolishing its Normal schools and crippling its institutions of higher education. But it is probably the only way out of the difficulty. The state has many people who refuse to look upon Normal schools as anything but a graft, and refuse to recognize that they are rendering the most valuable service to the common school system. In fact, an up-to-date public school system is impossible without state normal schools. The senators from counties having normal schools made a serious error when they killed the Vawter bill that passed the house unanimously to put the normal schools under one board of regents and a business management, and will pay dearly for resisting a reasonable reform that would have saved them to the state. The people have a right to use the initiative and referendum and will do so in all cases where there is no reform to be had in any other manner.
