Swell Styles In Shoes and Oxfords

Putting your foot in the wrong thing generally causes lots of trouble.

How much suffering has been occasioned by putting a foot in the wrong shoe!

Foot was all right; shoe was all wrong.

We do not offer a line of goods that will make it necessary to fit your feet to the shoes.

The kind of shoes we offer are the kind that fit the feet.

Shoes are made to order, feet are not.

Fitting feet with our shoes is a pleasure.

If you want shoes that fit, that feel comfortable, that give good service, that have the style—buy our Green-Wheeler Shoe, for which we are sole agents.

GIRL BALL TOSSERS

Champion Girls' Basketball Team of Oregon will be the title borne by the victors in a contest to be held in Portland Friday, if nothing goes amiss.

The contestants for this great honor are girls representing Albany College and Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis, and the game will be played either in the Multnomah Club court or that of the Portland Y. M. C. A.; it has not yet been decided which. In fact this is a bone of contention between the two teams, which at present threatens to postpone game, or even efface it from the world of sports. Albany is contending for the Y. M. C. A. hall, on the grounds that it is larger than the Albany and smaller than the Corvallis court, it strikes a happy medium, which that of the Multnomah Club does not, it being larger than even the Corvallis court.

This game is looked forward to with great interest by all enthusiasts, for a fast, hot game is assured. Each team has already defeated the other in one trial, and this is the great, final test of supremacy.

DIED.

HERREN.—At his home, three miles east of Salem, March 4, 1905, at 1:15 p. m., Noah Fowler, aged 71 years, 5 months and 27 days, of a complication of diseases.

The funeral services were held at the family home at 11 a. m., Monday, March 6th, and the burial was in City View cemetery.

ANDERSON.—At the family home, two miles west of Salem, at 2:15 o'clock, Sunday, March 5, 1905, Mary A. Anderson, aged 71 years, 2 months and two days, of asthma and heart trouble.

Deceased was born in Bengal, Maine, January 2, 1834. She was first married to Mr. Jas. Moore. One child was born to them, a daughter, Mrs. Flora A. Reed, who now resides at Oakland, Cal. After the death of her first husband she went to Poche, Missouri, where, in 1863, she married Mr. C. F. Anderson, who is still living. She also leaves a son, Fred Anderson. They came to Polk county, Oregon, in 1855, and have resided there ever since.

Deceased was a good woman, who had many friends. Her last hours were peaceful, and she passed away as if falling to sleep.

The funeral was held at the home this afternoon, and the burial was in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT.
Edison—Vaudeville.

New Edison Theater.

Another vaudeville bill of careful selection has been secured by the Edison management. The program includes the best pickings from the best companies, and are new to Salem, Chic Kehoe & Ida Rainer, eastern artists, present a rural comedy sketch entitled "Way Down in Maine." It is chock full of comedy and "down east" sayings.

Mr. Dan Hart, the veteran minstrel, comes with a bag full of new sayings and songs; Miss Grace Armond, the charming soubrette, and Mr. Eric Kleppin in his specialty, "Just From the Country," form a program of rare excellence.

Miss Mylle Pratt, the clever illustrated songstress, will sing "Just For the Sake of Society," which will give her a chance to show her sweet voice to good advantage.

The Edisonoscope as usual will present a new film of human interest. Judging from the list of artists the popular Edison will again have a banner week.

as the program is one of unusual strength and variety.

A Superb Concert.

The musical concert to be given at the Grand Opera house on Friday evening, March 10, by Mr. William Wallace Graham, Mrs. Anna Solkirk Norton and Miss Helen Calbreath, three of Oregon's most accomplished musicians, will be a rare event among Salem entertainments. The following press notices of the participants will be of interest, not only on account of this particular event, but as giving an idea to the uninitiated what Oregon has in the way of musical artists.

Objections Argued.

Judge Galloway held a session of department No. 2 of the circuit court this morning, and heard the arguments of the objections to the findings of fact in the case of Wolfard vs. Fisher.

Say Boys

Did you ever see such a March for wheeling?

You may not soon see another like it so here's your chance to get an early start.

See that wheel!

That's a Tribune Racer.

The regular model looks just the same, and, as usual, it's a Tribune all over.

Drop in and try a spin. You'll appreciate the correct lines, the quiet running chain, and the easy pull of the wheel.

We have a snap in a chainless or two, previous years' models with coasters or cushion frames as desired. Drop in and get wise.

Our sundry stock is very complete. Anything in tires or fittings of any sort for any wheel.

From Turner.

Thursday afternoon the ladies of the W. P. M. society met at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Ransome, with the usual number in attendance. Next meeting to be held at the residence of Mrs. R. O. Thomas on the first Thursday in April.

On Wednesday of this week, Mr. B. A. Witzel, an aged pioneer and old-time resident of this vicinity, was buried in Twin Oak cemetery.

Mrs. R. O. Thomas, who has been very ill with Lagrippe for some time past, is rapidly regaining her health.

Mrs. M. C. Smith is recovering from a recent attack of illness.

Surprise grange will hold their monthly meeting on Saturday, March 11. A good attendance desired.

Poll Tax Suit Decided.

The suit of Matthew Dorman vs. Crawford Moore for $3 poll tax, claimed to be due for 1904, was decided by Justice Turner in favor of the supervisor. With the costs the verdict will be quite a sum to pay, and this is the second case that Dorman has won. Deputy District Attorney McNary appeared for the country. Mr. Dorman deserves credit for being a good collector, as this was the last poll tax due for 1904, in his district, which is No. 28.

In Eastern Oregon.

Phil Metschan, former state treasurer of Oregon, one of the most prominent politicians of the state, and now proprietor of the Imperial hotel in Portland, is in the city to attend the wedding of Miss Stella Alexander tonight. Mr. Metschan is an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, and is a guest at the Alexander home while in the city.

James S. Cooper, member of the legislature from Polk county, accompanied Mr. Metschan to Pendleton, and leaves for a business trip to Baker City tonight. Mr. Cooper is an uncle of Dr. E. A. and L. L. Mann, of this city.—East Oregonian.

Attacked by a Mob

and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklin's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I used it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
