Shot Two People.

Grass Valley, Cal., March 15.—William Treblecox shot and instantly killed his wife and dangerously wounded her cousin, Charles Allen, at the outskirts of this city. No apparent cause is given for the crime.

Treblecox and his wife had been married eight years, but their life was unhappy. He came home after an absence of some time, and was met at the front door by Allen, who had not yet reached his majority. He burst in, ordered Allen out of the place, and threatened to kill him.

Allen jumped behind a door, drew a pistol, having caught sight of Treblecox's weapon, and fired. The shot went wild, and Treblecox reached around the door and fired, sending a bullet through Allen's thigh. He then dashed through the door, and his wife fled out of the rear door. As she did so Treblecox fired at close range, the bullet striking her in the back of the head. She fell dead in a pool of blood.

Allen then escaped and ran for a near by saloon, Treblecox firing two shots after him. Treblecox then walked into town and delivered himself to Marshal Deeble, carrying his six-shooter in his hand, and saying:

"I have done the job."

He was hurried to the county jail at Nevada City, fears being entertained of lynching. Young Allen was badly wounded, and is too weak to make a statement.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." J. C. Perry, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

Remains Started Home.

Honolulu, March 15.—The remains of Mrs. Stanford were sent to San Francisco this morning on the steamer Alameda, after services at the church. All that portion of the white population that could get away from their duties gathered at the church and wharf, to pay final reverence to all that is mortal of the philanthropist. The services at the Central Union church were attended by President Jordan, of Stanford University, Miss Berner, Governor Carter, one of the honorary pallbearers, and members of the territorial senate. Bishop Restarick, an old friend of the deceased, conducted the services, and when he reached the obsequy of the dead, but few dry eyes were in the audience. Miss Berner wept silently as the bishop recounted the good deeds of her late mistress. Immediately after the services the remains, under a police escort, were conveyed to the wharf and placed on board the Alameda. The wharf was crowded, and while coffin was being carried to and up the gang plank hats were removed, and the heads remained bared until the solemn procession had passed into the salon. Including the funeral party, there were on the Alameda Detectives Reynolds and Culland, with all the evidence gathered by themselves and the Honolulu police.

EMPLOYS JUDGE BENNETT

Famous Jury Lawyer of The Dalles Will Defend Mitchell

(From the Portland Journal.)

"The newspapers have been trying me and convicting me. I do not propose to say anything more to them. The charges will soon be tried before a jury, instead of in the newspapers, and in the meantime I have nothing to say."

The words were Senator John H. Mitchell's. He returned last evening from Washington to begin preparation for his defense to the indictments found against him by the federal grand jury. As to the nature of his defense the senator would say nothing.

"That is a matter which I do not care to discuss for publication. The newspapers here and elsewhere have been unfair to me."

Senator Mitchell paused for a moment, and then, with a flash of indignation, he burst forth vehemently:

"The Oregonian has been damnable. You know that as well as I do."

The angry gleam in his eye and the vigor with which he spoke were even more expressive than the words. But it was evident that Senator Mitchell was firmly resolved to keep a tight rein on himself, and he added immediately:

"I really do not wish to discuss the charges against me. You will have to excuse me."

The interview took place in the lobby of the Portland hotel, and Senator Mitchell turned aside to greet some friends. Several people were waiting to speak with him. To all inquiries the senator declared that his health was good, and he appears to be much better than when he left for Washington in January, although the ordeal through which he has passed has left its impress upon him.

Could Not Enjoy Life.

Bellingham, Wash., March 15.—Because she had become tired of the constant quarreling of two lovers for her hand, Eva Spangler, an 18-year-old girl, who is living here with her parents, this morning drank an almost fatal dose of Carbolio acid.

William Cullin and Edward Pierson, two young men, have been habitual callers at the Spangler residence for several months. They repeatedly clashed, and many times were at the point of blows, when separated by the girl.

Recently Eva told some of her friends that she was growing tired of keeping peace between her admirers, and said if they did not stop, she would end her life.

Missouri Legislature. The Missouri legislature is still deadlocked over the election of a United States senator. Neidringhaus has dropped down to one vote, although he was the caucus nominee. Speaker Hill announced yesterday that he would cast his vote for a Democrat, if the Republican majority did not settle the trouble before long. The announcement created a sensation.

Pain in the Head

Is a danger signal, warning you that the brain nerves are exhausted—irritated, and are undergoing an unnatural strain. Frequent and prolonged attacks of pain weaken the generative power of the nerve cells of the brain, and lead to loss of memory, melancholy, spasms, epilepsy, and frequently insanity.

When the brain nerves are weakened they are unable to supply sufficient nerve force to the nerves that control the lungs, heart, stomach and other organs, and these organs are thus robbed of energy, and unable to meet the demands upon them and they get sick. Stop the head pains with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and the influence upon your general health will be greater than you can realize.

"I want to tell you how thankful I am for Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. From a child I have been subject to sick headache, and never found any lasting relief until I received a sample of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills while in Geneva six years ago. By taking one it usually throws off my pain, so I can go about my home duties."

MRS. ALMA GATES, R. F. D. No. 4, Geneva, Ohio. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Bore Fictitious Name.

Seattle, March 15.—After hearing a fictitious name for 20 years, Westey May, a prominent real estate man petitioned the court this morning to make the name legal. May's real name is Savacool. He was the first husband of Martha Place, the only woman ever electrocuted in New York. After she had made several attempts to kill him, he took the new name and came West.
