AMUSEMENTS.
TONIGHT.
 Edison—Vaudeville.

New Edison Theatre.
 Excellent vaudeville this week is packing this popular place of amusement. The high-class standard of the entertainments has caught the public fancy; nightly the amusement-loving Salemites crowd the theatre to the doors. The cause is obvious. They like Hanford & Hart in their Dutch travesty; Kehoe & Rainer, in their rapid-fire sketch; Mylle Pratt, the song bird, and Dan Hart, the old veteran comedian. Then the Edison-scope is so instructive and up-to-date, that the public, well, they just like to come, that's all.

New Edison Theatre
 R. P. Starkoy, Manager.

Week Commencing March 13, 1905.
 A galaxy of vaudeville stars, Hanford & Hart, in their comical absurdity, "Dinglebender's Hotel."
 The old war veteran, Dan Hart, comical black-face monologist.
 Kehoe & Rainer, "Rapid Fire" artists. "A Bunch of Nonsense."
 Mylle Pratt, sweet singer of illustrated songs.
 Wonderful Edison-scope, something to amuse and instruct.
 Matinee Wednesday and Saturday. Change of acts Thursday. Any seat 10c

Delegates from Eugene.
 The Eugene Commercial Club has appointed delegates to attend the Willamette Valley Development League convention, which meets in this city on March 23d, as follows:
 S. H. Friendly, R. S. Bryson, R. McMurphy, G. R. Chrisman, F. Wilkins, H. W. Thompson and H. E. Penland.

Williams a Candidate.
 Mayor Geo. H. Williams announces that he will be a candidate for reelection at the election to be held in Portland in June. This decision will cause a rearrangement of the program in the metropolis, as it was generally thought that he would decline to accept another term, if it was offered to him.

Trial of Bank Robbers.
 A large number of witnesses were examined in the trial of the Lebanon bank robbers at Albany yesterday, and the state rested its case late in the evening. The men, Crossley and Dunn, were recognized by a large number of witnesses, and very little doubt remains that they will be found guilty.

Prof. and Mrs. Francesco Seley and family, of Salem, were in Albany yesterday, leaving for Newport on the bay train. Professor Seley is dean of the Willamette University College of Music, at Salem—Albany Herald.

INDEPENDENCE SENDS WORDS OF CHEER

Valley Development Work One of the Important Things at Present

The Independence Enterprise says: Every man, woman and child interested in the development of the Willamette valley should attend the meeting of the valley commercial bodies in Salem on the 23d, as well as the meeting of all the club leagues of the state in Portland, April 4th. The Willamette valley has been sleeping long enough. The time is ripe for a general awakening. Peanut politics have milked this rich valley long enough. Selfish politicians have been too long permitted to do the thinking and acting for the people. It is now time for the commercial interests to come to the front. There is not another people on earth that would pay tribute at the rate of 50 cents a ton to so small an obstacle as the locks at Oregon City, and with so little protest, and for so long a time, as have the people of this valley. The millions squandered by Willamette valley farmers and shippers in transportation is really amazing. The producer and shipper has been paying the freight almost uncomplainingly and voting to send men to Washington to roll in luxury and debauchery, and to the state legislature to "log roll," swap and "stand in" for petty appropriations. The price has been dearly paid. A new era seems to be dawning. The old Southern Pacific of Oregon has now passed into new hands. We have new men to deal with. They offer co-operation. They want to know the conditions. These questions will be discussed at Salem. Why the Willamette valley has lain dormant, while the younger state of Washington has outstripped us in population and development will be brought out. With all your suggestions and complaints attend the improvement league meeting Monday night, and the Salem meeting on the 23d.

Prizes will be given in the usual way and manner of awards similar to county fairs. There will be an entrance fee charged, and the prizes will be awarded by a committee selected by the President, secretary and treasurer. Full particulars can be had by addressing the secretary, W. P. Pennebaker, at Woodburn, Oregon.
 The ladies of the First Presbyterian church gave a chicken pie social to the members and friends of the church Tuesday. A short program was rendered, and greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

MRS. HOLMAN'S FUNERAL

Remains Laid Away in City View Cemetery With Tender Attention.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Minnie Holman was held from the late residence of the deceased on High street Wednesday at 2 o'clock. There was a large attendance of friends of the family, and a very impressive funeral service was conducted by the Episcopal minister from Oregon City, Rev. Hammond, at the home and at City View cemetery. Mrs. C. H. Hinges sang the favorite hymn of the departed one, "Lead Kindly Light." Miss Slade also sang one of her favorites, "Sing Me to Sleep." At the grave Mrs. Hinges sang "Only Remembered," in her most beautiful and touching manner. All the exercises were most appropriate and rendered with deep feeling for one who was universally respected, loved and admired. The grave was covered with flowers, more than a wagon could carry being taken from the house to the cemetery. There were floral pieces from the Order of Maccabees and from the St. Paul's Guild, of both of which Mrs. Holman was a devoted member. In the latter organization Mrs. Holman was especially active. There were many floral gifts, some from Portland and San Francisco, but none could fully express the sweet disposition and the sunny and cheerful nature that made Mrs. Minnie Holman more than a mother to the large family circle. The pallbearers were Milton Meyers, Geo. F. Rodgers, Andrew Vass, Harry Albert, W. H. Dancy and Whit Holman, three being relatives and three from a social circle to which she belonged for many years. Those attending the funeral from other places were Mrs. J. H. Lunn and Walter J. Holman, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and W. C. Tweedale, of Albany, and Miss Pauline Klein, of Corvallis. In all her life Mrs. Holman was thoughtful and devoted to others, and thought little of herself, and the many beautiful expressions of regard on the occasion of her death were tributes to her nobleness of character that came from the hearts that had been touched by her many kindnesses. Her death is an irreparable loss to her family and the community.

North Dakota at Fair.

Bismarck, N. D., March 16.—The State World's Fair Commission held a meeting yesterday, and decided to make an exhibit at Portland, notwithstanding the failure of the appropriation bill. Governor Sears will request total voluntary subscriptions of $5000 from the citizens of the state, with which the state's St. Louis display can be transported and installed, believing the next legislature will reimburse those who contribute. W. N. Stelle, of Rolla, has consented to act as manager of the exhibit.
 The governor believes that one man can be found in each county and ten at large in the state, making 50 in all, who will contribute $100 each for this purpose. Many offers of contributions have been received already, and it is believed that the state will be able to make a creditable exhibit.
 It was a great disappointment to the advocates of the Lewis and Clark exposition when the legislature found it impossible to make an appropriation. The appropriation was pared to what was thought the lowest possible figure, but Governor Searles found a way to veto $250,000 of this appropriation, which he did today.

Tonka, the usual cheat for vanilla, costs one or two cents for a certain amount; Schilling's Best vanilla a dollar.

One is strong; the other is fine. One is rank; the other is delicate. Nevertheless four-fifths of "vanilla" is tonka. The 98 cents accounts for it.
