GOTHAM LETTER

New York, March 25.—The long rise in the price of securities and the maintenance of the high level that has been reached here resulted in the usual futile but interesting guesses as to the winners by the upward movement. Investment holders and some small speculators, of course, have made great gains by the advance in stocks, but Wall street has time only just now to gossip about the operations of the larger lights of finance. According to current talk in the street, William Rockefeller is the largest of the winners in the speculation of the past few months. About 15 months ago when Union Pacific was selling for about $70, Mr. Rockefeller is known to have purchased at least 100,000 shares of this stock. Mr. Rockefeller has disposed of little or no part of these holdings, and meanwhile this stock has advanced 50 points in value. In addition to his holdings in Union Pacific, Mr. Rockefeller is known to have bought large blocks of other securities that are steadily on the advance. His winnings in the present bull market are estimated conservatively at $15,000,000. Charles M. Schwab, former head of the steel trust, who figured prominently in the troubles that attended this combine last year, is said to have made $2,000,000 in the last twelve months. It is known that Mr. Schwab purchased heavily of United States steel, while E. H. Harriman is said to have made $600,000 by incidental dealings in Union Pacific. The individual fortunes that have been made or enhanced are legion, while brokers have grown rich from commissions alone. Fortunately, or unfortunately, there has been no great public speculation. It is the rich men principally who have profited by the advance in securities and professional Wall Street expects them to prevent the usual crash that follows a protracted rise.

The Catholic church in this country contributed last year in private contributions and "Peter's pence" a trifle more than $500,000 to the support of the church's expenses, and at the present rate will exceed that amount by several hundred thousand for 1905. This is the answer the American bishops gave to the proposal to make Mr. Broderick of Havana a sort of commissioner in this country to increase the Peter's pence contributions. Broderick, therefore, was no surprise. Bishop McDonnell of Brooklyn and other prelates who were at Rome recently are believed to have voiced the American sentiment against the proposed mission.

Politicians and others who have expressed their views on the subject differ radically as to the reception that Charles W. Anderson, the negro appointed to the internal revenue collectorship for the Second New York district, will receive when he takes up his new duties. Prejudice against the negro is very strong in New York. No theater, first-class hotel or restaurant will accept negro patronage. Two cases resulting from such discrimination are pending in the courts now. The negro is no nearer recognition in New York as a social equal than he is in a southern city. As to Anderson, his enemies are digging up unpleasant incidents in his record, and it is declared in certain quarters that a fight that threatens to assume the proportions of that made against President Roosevelt's famous Crum appointment is to be waged by local Republicans against the appointment. There is no doubt that many people did not like the appointment, but there is a question as to whether the opposition will develop openly. Officials of the internal revenue office say that he will be warmly welcomed by his staff, the members of which remember him as a competent officer during his four years' service with them as gauger.

Some one has figured it out that the Interborough company will make money out of the recent strike. The cost of the strike on the road will be borne by the strikers themselves. Each striker that comes back to work does so as a new man and is put to work at the lowest rate on the sliding scale of wages, no matter what pay he may have been getting when the strike was declared. Motormen, for instance, who, after a year's service, were paid $3.50 a day, are taken back at $3 a day, the wage at which they started. There are about 900 motormen employed by the company, and of these about 600 have been at work long enough to get the $3.50 rate. They now go back to work at $3, and the company will therefore save $300 a day, without counting the saving on motormen who received $3.25. It will be six months before these men are advanced to the $3.25 rate, and, in that time, for the motormen, the company will save at least $55,000.

Visitors who wish to lunch or dine in Chinatown will not be compelled hereafter to confine their range of epicurean choice for Occidental fare to chop suey and various entrees of shark's fins. A Celestial Delmonico, whose chef is reported to have once had charge of the kitchen of the Dowager Empress, is about to open near Pell street a palatial restaurant, on which $100,000 is being expended. Teakwood tables, inlaid with real mother-of-pearl, and divans covered with rich silks and woolen stuffs of the finest and glossiest texture, can be found in this new establishment, and rich hangings and draperies lend harmonious tone to the surroundings.

On every side the eye meets startling surprises in the hideous grimaces of China idols, bronze-faced demons and brass dragons and lizards, all most ingeniously wrought. The chop suey that will be served here is expected to delight the most blasé epicure. Wonderful dishes, the ingredients of which

What Time Proves

This thing of being sick and looking for a cure is a mighty serious business. People are not given to joking even at the first symptom of the approach of the Grim Destroyer. They do not want to be the subjects of experiment, but want medicine that has had the test of years behind it. A medicine that has been made and used for 20 years gives assurance of its worth, and can be taken with a faith that they have the very best cure the world affords. All this can be said about Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills as a remedy for sick headache, dyspepsia and indigestion, it begins right at the source of the trouble and removes the cause. Sold by all druggists for 25c per box. One pill a dose.

one may perhaps prefer to remain in ignorance will be served at prices that rival those of the St. Rigis. Every Friday this Chinese Delmonico will receive an importation of gray eels from the Tolo river and a crate of cold storage herring from Dingdong creek, a tributary of the How Do river. A stew made of these together may be had for $11 for a small tureen.

Enthusiasm for the automobile is growing upon John D. Rockefeller. For some time he has been devoted to motoring, and recently he purchased a machine for his wife. Mr. Rockefeller's machine is of 40 horsepower. While the machine is capable of making 40 miles an hour, the Standard Oil magnate will not permit his chauffeur to travel faster than eight miles an hour. There is no danger that the village constables will ever be able to haul Mr. Rockefeller to the village lockup for violating the speed ordinance. The time that he does not devote to golf on his private links Mr. Rockefeller spends in traveling in his motor car. Gold and automobiling have wrought wonderful changes in Mr. Rockefeller's health, and it is said that he is now in no terror of the richest concoctions of his chef.

The above Portland prices are taken from latest catalogues from two of the largest institutions in that city, and no doubt many of these catalogues are scattered over territory contiguous to Salem, hence our object in publishing these prices is plain. Prices on furniture are equally as much in our favor as those on floor coverings. No doubt this same condition exists in many other lines.
