

AMUSEMENTS.
TONIGHT.
 Edison—Vaudeville.
 Variety of Acts at Edison.
 "Her Boy in Blue" is the name of the new song, illustrated, being sung by Morris Jones. Morris & Morris talked a bunch of witty dialogue, and the Wiley Ferris Co., somersaulted like real circus actors; all that was lacking was the odor of the saw dust ring. They will present their illusion act tonight. The matinee today was well attended. Next week a brilliant array of all star features.

RECEIVER CLOSES BARGAIN.
 Gilbert Bos' Piano Stock Sold by Big Firm—Should Not Be Overlooked—Present Exceptional Opportunity to Secure a Good Piano at a Little Price Will Interest Many.

There are numerous music-loving families in Salem who will hail with delight the announcement of Eller's Piano House, to be found in this paper, that a large number of goods, slightly used pianos are to be sold by it in Salem during the next few days. Those who are familiar with the line of pianos formerly carried by the bankrupt firm of Gilbert Bros., of which these pianos are a part, will understand they are getting exceptional bargains, and, although the number of pianos to be offered is large, we do not

It Wouldn't Lather.
 An April Fool joke was played this forenoon on one of the barbers in a Commercial street shop. A piece of potato, resembling soap, was put at the bottom of his shaving mug. A man came in to get shaved, and the barber went through the regular routine with the lather brush, talking to his customer all the time. But the more he tried to make lather the less came, and he finally investigated and found the cause.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

BOSTON, MASS., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.
 After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.
 I am happy to give you this endorsement.
Beth Ricker
 President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.
 It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.
 A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

INDICT MONTE WRIGHT

Through the efforts of Sheriff Culver, Deputy Minto and Warden Curtis, of the penitentiary, Harry Wright and Charles Monte, will probably be indicted at the next term of the Marion county circuit court for complicity in the escape of Tracy and Merrill, the notorious outlaws, who were responsible for several murders at the time and shortly after they broke out of the prison.

Both men are hard characters. Wright served a term in the Oregon penitentiary for burglary, and secured his release a few days prior to the outbreak. Monte also did time, and his sentence expired a short time before Wright's.

The two men are accused of having slipped two 30-30 rifles and two revolvers within the prison walls. This could only be accomplished by scaling the walls at a point where a night guard was not maintained at that time. After the outbreak the officers suspicious Wright and Monte, but were unable to locate them.

Monte is now serving a three-year sentence for burglary in the Oregon prison, under the name of Bennett, while Wright is at Walla Walla, serving a like sentence for a similar charge. Their terms will soon expire, and they will be rearrested on the complicity indictment.

The officers have made a strong hunt for the men, and their efforts have at last been rewarded. The evidence against them is said to be conclusive, as from the very first day it was almost certain that they were the men wanted for the terrible crime.
