With Us

We never met a man, no matter how big his income was, who would admit a willingness to pay $25 more for a suit or overcoat than it is worth. Our Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes of today are as different from the ordinary "ready-made" clothes of today as they are from the "ready-made" of twenty years ago. They have met the merchant tailor on his own grounds, and by virtue of superior resources and capabilities, have beaten him. To wear Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes have caught that something and made it their own, and for the same reasons they have beaten the merchant tailor, they have been able to keep the prices at a reasonable level.

OREGON PIONEER DEAD

One of Oregon's most highly respected and well-known citizens has passed away, and another place in the ranks of the old pioneers is vacant.

I. M. Wagner died at the home of his nephew, Mat Woods, in Turner, yesterday, April 3, 1905, at 10:30 o'clock a. m., of a complication of diseases.

Had deceased lived until the 1st of July he would have been 79 years old. He was born in Iowa, July 1, 1827, and on June 6, 1847, he was married to Miss Catherine S. Adams. They crossed the plains in 1856, and settled in California for a short time, when they moved to Southern Oregon, and finally came to Salem, where they settled on a farm seven miles south of this city, on the Jefferson road, which is an old landmark in this county. It has been his home until the time of his death. His wife predeceased him two years ago. Ten children were born to them, five boys and five girls, all of whom are living, and are as follows: Mrs. Esther Neal, Jefferson; Philip Wagner, Garfield; Mrs. C. L. Glenn, Spokane; Mrs. Monroe Nye, Mrs. Chas. Bruce, Alonzo Wagner, of Portland; Adolphus Wagner and Perry Wagner, of Tillamook county, Mat Wagner and Mrs. D. F. Jerman, of Salem.

He also leaves numerous other relatives.

Mr. Wagner had just returned a week ago from a trip East, where he went last October, and all during his visit he was ailing, and upon his arrival home he grew rapidly worse, and yesterday morning passed to his final resting place. He was a man of high moral standing, loved and respected by all who knew him. He had a pleasant word for every one, and his familiar figure will be missed in this city. He was a kind and indulgent father, and his children are sorrow-stricken over his death.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 o'clock, at Turner, and the interment will be held at the Odd Fellows' cemetery, in this city, where appropriate services will be held.

SUCCESSFUL STOCK FAIR AT WOODBURN

Woodburn, April 4.—The event of the stock fair, April 1st, was a decided success in every way. The crowd was immense, and the streets were lined from early morning till night with people of all descriptions, the curious, the interested and the pleasure seekers. The music for the day was furnished by the Mt. Angel band of 18 pieces. The prizes were awarded at 10 a. m. by committees appointed by President Fred Dose, Secretary Wm. Pennebaker and Treasurer G. L. Shriver. The prizes were presented as follows: First prize for shire stallions was to Aral Bros., $10; second prize to J. L. Edison, $5. First prize for Belgian stallions, J. L. Edison, $10; second prize, Joseph Vincent, $5. Percheron stallions, first prize, H. H. Hopkins, $10; second prize, G. W. Speight, $5. At 2 o'clock p. m. the parade took place. It passed through the principal streets, and the display of stock was very fine, although not very extensive. A program was held in the Association hall at 3 o'clock. The speakers were introduced by Mayor Corby with a welcoming address, in this order: Dr. Wythecombe, of the O. A. C., at Corvallis, who said: "The first thing I heard when I came to Oregon was something of Woodburn." His address was on "The Relation of Stock Raising to Agriculture."

J. W. Bailey food and dairy commissioner, of Portland, delivered a very fine address on "The Advantage of and privileges of the farm in Oregon." His speech was full of humor and was much enjoyed by the audience.

Colonel Eddy, of Portland, spoke on "The Advantages of the Present Day Over the Past." A short, but excellent, address was delivered by Hon. J. H. Settlemier, which concluded the afternoon program. A letter from Governor Chamberlain was received and read, regretting his inability to be present, as was expected. His excellency was suffering from a severe attack of la grippe, and his physicians would not permit him to leave his room.

The dance in the armory, given by Company I, was a success in every way. Captain O. D. Henderson had three men with "stars" stationed at the door who were to see that unwelcome intruders were not admitted, and the evening's events passed off without a flaw.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

STATE MILITARY BOARD

Meets, But Quorum Not Present to Transact Business

Adjutant General W. E. Finzer was in the city Thursday to attend the meeting of the state military board, which was to have been held in this city, but as there was not a quorum present it was postponed until today, and it will be held in Portland.

Mr. Finzer said that he did not think the board would name the place for the encampment at the present meeting, as there was much to be attended to, and the encampment question could be settled later.

It is more than likely that four or five days will at least be spent in Portland.

MISSFITTED GLASSES WORSE THAN NO GLASSES

We find many people wearing glasses that are missfitted and are positively injurious to their eyes. Such glasses are often sold by traveling opticians, who only desire to get the money and go. We make a very careful test and prescribe glasses under a new method, which reduces the possibility of mistakes to a minimum. All our glasses are guaranteed to give satisfaction for one year.
