

SHOULD THE WIFE HAVE A SALARY

By Cynthia Grey.

A wife does her own housework, saving the expense of hired labor, and her husband should place her on a salary. The matter stands in most families, the wife works for her board and clothes.

How long would a man work for a company that give him in payment only board, shelter and clothing? That girl will take charge of a kitchen, do the cooking and the washing and ironing for board and clothes? Compare the wife's services with the services of the office stenographer, how long would the stenographer work for board and clothes?

The monotony of housework is supposed to be the cause of many family troubles. What work would not be monotonous that brought as a return nothing but board and clothes?

No matter how interested a man may be in his work, he will not attempt to deny that his interest will increase with each increase of salary. No matter how much pleasure is found in the chosen work or profession, a man would attempt to deny the fact that the interest will cease with the cessation of salary.

Who can wonder that a woman's work seems monotonous when she has absolutely no cash return, and often not even a kind word of appreciation for the services rendered. Simply board and clothes fall to her share.

Is it any wonder that wives grow weary of helping save money (which is as everyone knows equivalent to earning the same amount) which goes to line the husband's pocket with clinking silver? Perhaps she has visions of her share of the money going to deck out the charms of a second wife.

A man hates to ask for every cent he spends. So does a woman. She likes to know it is her own, she likes to spend it without giving account of it.

Now the man who puts his wife on a salary, pays for services rendered. He need not put himself on the head for his generosity about it. It is a return for labor done. The salary is hers.

"She has everything heart can wish," man says, and he believes it. But she hasn't. She hasn't the one thing that she needs most to make her happy. She has not the independence of action that comes from ownership. She has not the right to spend what she has earned. So let no misguided husband go on thinking that any woman is wholly satisfied with board and clothes. Would he be content? Then no more will she be happy.

When the wife who keeps her own house is on a salary many of the discomforts which arise from ill kept and improperly managed households will be avoided. Many discontented lives will be made happy and many husbands will find smiles where before they have met but melancholy.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

In Indian Territory.

Visits, I. T., April 5.—Twelve hundred people turned out here to see President Roosevelt. The station was decked with bunting and flags. The President's salute was fired with the aid of an anvil and sticks of dynamite. The President made a short speech, and said that he expected soon to see the Indian Territory and Oklahoma admitted to statehood.

JOURNAL OPEN FORUM

Correspondents need not sign names to communication in good faith, and not personal, and of local interest.

Angy Wants to Know.

The Journal's Heart-to-Heart department has received a communication from a young lady signing herself "Angeline." She writes: "I am keeping company with a young man who has been coming to see me for the past two years, and I think a good deal of him. Is it proper and good form for me to allow him to kiss and hug me more than twice or three times during an evening?"

Well, Angy, according to all the rules of good form society that we can find around the office we do not think a few extra snuggles would be playing the limit too high, or a hug or two additional fracture any of the rules of etiquette, so long as he don't embrace you hard enough to burst your corset.

To the Public.

You are respectfully requested to call on the undersigned and satisfy yourselves that the wines, liquors, cigars, etc., at 221 Commercial street are the best in the city. New patrons, as well as old, will receive the best attention.

RALPH SWARTS.

While returning to her home at Clackamas with her husband Monday afternoon, Mrs. J. A. Sieben became violently insane. Officers were summoned and the unfortunate woman, after being persuaded to give up her 6-week-old child, that she was carrying in her arms, was taken to the county jail.

A Pleasant Way to Travel.

The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the east, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. From Denver, Colorado Springs and Denver there are two through trains daily to Kansas City and St. Louis, carrying Pullman's latest standard electric-lighted sleeping cars, chair cars and up-to-date dining cars. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St. Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going east or south, write for particulars and full information.

A POOR IMITATION

Is weak flattery—style and quality are lacking and prices are less. Must be, because the genuine article costs more to produce. If you really want good, serviceable shoes you'll discover real economy in the sort we sell. You see, we've been in the shoe business for years; expect to continue along that line many a year to come, and we must suit you to hold our trade. Sense in that.
