TEXAS GREETED TEDDY

Austin, Texas, April 6.—The welcome which Texas has given to President Roosevelt has been quite in keeping with that of Kentucky and the Indian Territory, noisy as human voices, steam whistles and guns and anvils and plain dynamite blasts could make it and as cordial in words as in other manifestations of patriotic joy. The President spoke at Waco and at one or two small towns en route to the capital. At Tyler, Governor Lanham and a committee representing the state legislature joined the President and welcomed him to Texas. The governor, a Democrat, made his speech to the President a tribute to Mr. Roosevelt's democratic qualities.

The special train reached Austin early this afternoon. The city was a mass of bunting and flags in honor of the distinguished guest. The ordinary population of the capital city, with hundreds of visitors from other parts of the state, was massed along the streets and avenues from the railroad station to the state capitol, where the President spoke to the two branches of the legislature met in joint session.

A military escort was in waiting at the station to receive the President on his arrival in the city. The mayor and the members of the reception committee greeted the President and his party when they alighted from the train, accompanied by Governor Lanham and staff. Nearly every regiment of the Texas national guard was represented in the military procession to the capitol. All along the route the sidewalks, windows, doors and even the roofs of business houses and residences were crowded with spectators who cheered enthusiastically as the chief executive of the nation passed. At the capitol President Roosevelt was escorted to the hall of representatives, and after a brief address to the members and the hundreds of privileged visitors who filled the galleries, he proceeded to a stand erected at the main entrance of the capitol building. Meanwhile the bands played patriotic airs. The President was introduced by Governor Lanham and he spoke for 15 minutes, his remarks being frequently interrupted by applause.

A pleasing feature of the day's program was furnished by the thousands of school children of the city who were amassed around Travis park and joined in singing "America" and waving flags as the President made his appearance.

Rough Riders Prepare Greeting

San Antonio, Texas, April 6.—President Roosevelt will spend tomorrow in San Antonio and elaborate arrangements have been made for his reception and entertainment. He comes to attend the annual reunion of his regiment of Rough Riders and to the members of that famous organization have been left the plans for his entertainment. The members of his old command have gathered here from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and other states and territories. It will be as their former leader in camp and on the field that the President will mingle with his old comrades, and not in his capacity of chief executive of the nation. In accordance with his expressed wish all formalities will be dispensed with and the President will spend the day in renewing acquaintances and exchanging reminiscences of the days of '98. A program of sports has been prepared, there will be a reunion dinner and probably one address from the President.

In anticipation of the coming of the distinguished guest San Antonio has put on gala attire and the streets are crowded with visitors from far and near.

Reward will be paid to any person who can find one atom of opium, chloral, morphine, cocaine, ether or chloroform in any form in any of Dr. Miles' Remedies.

This reward is offered because certain unscrupulous persons make false statements about these remedies. It is understood that this reward applies only to goods purchased in the open market, which have not been tampered with in any way.

Dr. Miles' remedies cure by their soothing, nourishing, strengthening and invigorating effects upon the nervous system, and not by paralyzing and weakening the nerves as would be the case if these drugs were used.

For this reason Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are universally considered the best pain remedy.

"I have suffered for 25 years with severe pains in my head, heart and back, and have tried everything I could get and could not find any relief until I got a box of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I suffered as long as 12 hours at a time with such severe pains that I feared I would lose my mind. The Anti-Pain Pills gave me relief in from 10 to 20 minutes. I do not have to use Morphine any more. I wish you would publish this so that other sufferers may find relief."
