Full of Tragic Meaning

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At J. C. Perry's, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wisner, of Salem, were visiting Wednesday at the home of Mr. T. White.

Mr. McElwain and family have again moved to Fruitland, and intend taking charge of their place themselves for a time.

Mr. Haggerty and family were given a farewell party Friday evening. A number of their friends gathered at their home after the literary, and spent a few hours playing games. We wish them success.

We understand Mr. Parson, our new groceryman, intends enlarging the store building, and will put in a general merchandise store. here is no reason why Fruitland should not become a trade center, and such improvements are much appreciated by the people of this vicinity.

The Literary and Debating Society held their closing exercises Friday evening. The program was well rendered. The subject for debate was: "Resolved, That the signs of the times indicate the downfall of the republic." It proved to be a very interesting debate. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The society decided to meet again the first Friday evening in October.
