Cyrus Smith Dead.

Cyrus Smith, a well-known and highly respected pioneer of Douglas county, died at his home 4 1/2 miles south of Roseburg at 8 o'clock yesterday morning aged 75 years, of heart failure.

Deceased was a native of Maine, and came to Oregon in 1851, and settled in Polk county, after which he went to California, and finally settled in Douglas county, where he has lived ever since. He was married in 1864 to Miss Elizabeth Woodruff, who passed away on the 6th of this month. The funeral service will be held today.

Portage Engine Arrives.

The engine ordered from Davenport, Ia., for the use of the portage road has been completed, and is now on the way westward. It will reach Portland the latter part of this week, and, after its trial tests by the portage road people, will be brought up here to be used in the construction work now going on. The engine is of the same type of locomotive as those used by the Southern Pacific and O. R. & N., though not so heavy, and will be used on the short line of the portage road.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At J. C. Perry's drug store. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Church Etiquette.

Have you ever noticed the church etiquette of some people? How as soon as they rise for the last hymn, or during the doxology or benediction, they will begin to prepare for leaving, putting on wraps or gloves and otherwise disturbing them. A minister in Kansas City startled his congregation one Sabbath at the close of service by saying: "Let us adjust our clothes, slip on our gloves, grab our hats and be dismissed."

IT WILL KEEP

It is not always necessary to use a whole bottle of Scott's Emulsion. What is left will keep. We have seen a bottle of our Emulsion three years old that is still good. What other preparation of cod liver oil will keep sweet and permanent for half that length of time? Scott's Emulsion is always reliable because it's always absolutely pure.

EUGENE

The Willamette University baseball team went to Eugene this morning, where, tomorrow, they go up against the Eugene high school and the University of Oregon baseball teams.

This is the first game of the season for W. U., and there is much interest rife over the games. The team has been in hard practice by former Manager Averill, and they are in good shape, and hope to come off victors.

The players who went this morning are as follows: Rader, Metcalf, Beach, Unruh, Jerman, Trill, Graunis, George Hunt, Percy Hunt, and the new manager, A. G. Nace.

They were in fine spirits as they left, and a large crowd of enthusiastic students accompanied them to the train, and rent the air with their college yells.

Coleman, the baseball player who has caused the trouble in the team, accompanied, but, it is said, he will not play.

Twenty Years' Trial.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from overwork, dissipation or exposure, causing weak and watery blood and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong, steady nerves and increasing the strength, producing solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 pounds per week. This means health. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75c per box or 3 boxes for $2. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures, which we have been for sale by Dr. S. C. Stone, druggist.

Runaway Boy Arrested.

Officer Cornelius arrested a 12-year-old youth this morning out at the depot. The boy did not give his name, but said that he had run away from his home in Roseburg on account of ill-treatment. He had come north by the brake-beam route, and when found by the officers presented anything but a clean sight. He will be held here until his parents are notified of his whereabouts.

Health Board Talk.

Ed. Journal: There is a great deal of talk about what the city board of health needs and wants, but there is little evidence anywhere that anything is being done by that respected body to better conditions. Will some one point out any place where they have compelled the cleaning up of any property? Does any one know of a case where they have compelled the abatement of a nuisance? Is there a case on record where any defective plumbing has been removed and proper repairs made? It is the general opinion that the health board has a great deal to do in the way of preliminary work, such as getting rid of ordinary filth and dirt before they begin building new pest houses, and in other ways expending money. Let the alleys and back yards be cleaned up. Let there be some evidence of common sense attempts to abate disease and bad smells by ordinary processes, such as hauling off dirt, rot and filth. When that is all disposed of it will be time enough for fancy business, such as cracks and mischievous-makers want to force upon the people at great expense.

PENSIONS

(By H. Gilson Gardner.)

Washington, April 14.—The United States pension office is considerably embarrassed by the efforts of a number of pensioners lately to give up their pensions. The situation is said to be entirely novel, and the law does not provide for such a contingency. These pensioners are sending in their certificates, with letters stating that they are not entitled to draw this allowance from the government, and asking to be stricken from the pension rolls.

It is learned that by far the largest number of pension resigners are men who claim to have been healed of their physical disabilities by Christian Science.

One of the cases to come to the attention of the department was that of Robert Waddell, of West Mitchell, Ia. He wrote to Washington, sending his pension certificate, and asking that his name be dropped from the rolls, as he had entirely recovered from the disabilities which were the ground for granting his pension. He said he had been cured by Christian Science. The pension office officials suspected the man of a mild form of insanity, and sent a special examiner to Iowa to look into the case.

The record shows that the original medical examination had shown the applicant to be suffering from "malarial poisoning and its results," among which were enumerated "stomach, liver and kidney trouble, affecting the heart, together with frequent rheumatic conditions. On this showing Waddell was drawing $14 a month. The examiner interviewed the leading people of West Mitchell, and found no doubt among his fellow townsmen of Waddell's sanity, and finally Waddell was himself examined, and required to give his deposition. The examiner reported to the Washington office that the man was all right, and evidently quite well, and accordingly entitled to give up his pension, and he was accordingly dropped.

Since then John Warner Keys, a dentist of Washington, D. C., has surrendered his certificate entitling him to $24 a month pension. His reason is similar to that of Robert Waddell, namely that he has been healed by Christian Science and has no right, as a well man, to be drawing a disability pension. Dr. Keys is an active member of the Christian Science church of Washington, and well-known in the community.

The pension office is not disposed to encourage the surrender of pensions. Commissioner Warner expresses his belief that the law did not contemplate the surrender of the pension any more than it did the recovery of the veterans from the physical ills which they might have contracted in the service. In order to discourage this recent and growing practice it will be the future policy of the office to decline to make public the names of veterans who give up their pensions.

As the law does not provide any method for canceling the pension of the veteran who has been restored to health, it will be the practice of the department to file the papers, and at the end of three years, during which no effort has been made to draw the pension, the pensioner will be considered deceased.

Pendleton has a baseball team, and they expect to be the star players of Eastern Oregon. They are running their team entirely on their own plans, and have not asked a cent of the business men, but expect to pay their own expenses. They play their first game Sunday with Weston. Eastern Oregon towns are all in for the sport, and propose to keep it going.

ONE OUGHT TO KNOW

HOW TO STRENGTHEN THE ORGANS OF DIGESTION.

A Course of Treatment That Really Cures Indigestion Instead of Merely Relieving Symptoms.

There are plenty of remedies by which you can relieve for the time heartburn, pain and gas in the stomach and can smother nervous sensations and induce artificial sleep. But when you take your next meal all your troubles begin afresh.

You can humor your stomach by giving it predigested food. Still there isn't much fun in that kind of eating and when you want to get some pleasure out of your meals again, you find that your stomach is weaker than ever.

There is only one sensible thing to do. Strengthen the stomach and when it is once in proper condition it will do its own work better than any process devised by man can ever do it. When it is again strong don't abuse it. Choose rational food and study the effect even of that, as your may at best be a freakish stomach.

For a weak stomach, a lazy stomach, a broken-down stomach you need a tonic that will rouse the stomach to do the work that will keep it robust. The best remedy ever found for this purpose is the one used by Mrs. Nettie Darvoux, of Detroit, Mich., whose recovery from dyspepsia of nine years' standing attracted widespread attention in September last.

Mr. Strong read with interest her statement that she had been cured of chronic dyspepsia by a few weeks' use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He had suffered in the same way most of his life, and just then was having a very severe attack. He began the same treatment at once and in a few months wrote that he, too, had realized a complete cure.

"For years," states Mr. Strong, "I suffered greatly from indigestion. I tried many remedies and some of them would relieve me for a time, but the trouble always came back. About six months ago I had an unusually severe attack, and while I tried everything I had ever heard of, I found nothing that would reach the difficulty this time."

"One day I read in a Memphis paper an account of the very remarkable cure of a Michigan woman, a sufferer from dyspepsia of a most stubborn type. Twelve doctors had at different times treated her without success, but at last she was entirely cured, and in a short time, too, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Her statement led me to try the same remedy and it proved just as successful in my case. I took only three boxes, and I am permanently cured. I have not had the slightest symptoms of indigestion for the last two months."

Multitudes of cases that had defied all other remedies have been quickly cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. E. E. Strong lives at Capeville, Shelby county, Tennessee. The remedy which he used with such success can be found at any drug store.

While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful multitudes of cases that had defied safely and create no drug habit. Every dyspeptic should read "What to Eat and How to Eat." Write the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy.

CORDIAL INVITATION

ADDRESSED TO WORKING GIRLS

Miss Barrows Tells How Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Helps Working Girls

Girls who work are particularly susceptible to female disorders, especially those who are obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night in stores or factories.

Day in and day out the girl toils, and she is often the bread-winner of the family. Whether she is sick or well, whether it rains or shines, she must get to her place of employment, perform the duties exacted of her, smile and be agreeable.

Among this class the symptoms of female diseases are early manifest by weak and aching backs, pain in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach. In consequence of frequent wetting of the feet, monthly periods become painful and irregular, and frequently there are faint and dizzy spells, with loss of appetite, until life is a burden. All of these symptoms point to a derangement of the female organism which can be easily and promptly cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio, tells what this great medicine did for her. She writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and months were irregular, I had been to several doctors, and they did me no good. "Your medicine has made me well and strong. I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right. "I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your medicine. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer."

It is to such girls that Mrs. Pinkham holds out a helping hand and extends a cordial invitation to correspond with her. Her long record of success in treating woman's ills makes her letters of advice of untold value to every ailing working girl, and from her wide experience and skill she quickly points the way to health. Her advice is free, and all letters are held by her in the strictest confidence. Address, Mrs. Pinkham.

Birthdays Party.

A birthday party was given recently by Mrs. Rue Hofflich, at her home, to Miss Arzalia Sprenger, of Shedd, who has just returned from visiting her sister near Salem. Several of the friends and neighbors were invited in and an enjoyable evening was spent playing games, singing, and a debate on the important question: "Resolved, That the consumer pays the expenses of raising, or manufacturing any article," after which a delicious lunch of ice cream, cake and lemonade was served. —Albany Democrat.
