NEW SILK REDINGOTES JUST RECEIVED.

Lowest "Shape" is Just Like Letter S.

Ready Grand and Damsel Fair wear unto this sorry lay, Letter "S" describes the stay you will have to wear. When cruel decrees your fate; diaphragm eliminate.

—Sprint Poet.

Catherine Leckie, Staff Correspondent of The Star.

New York.—Horror! What is to be done of those who can't do it?

What? Why, don't you know that Miss Beth A. C. White, president of the makers' Protective association, come out flat-footed in favor of new shape? She says the woman can't shake off the old kangaroo suit figure might as well go into prison. Smart folks cannot possibly do anything to do with her.

What shall the women do? Well, this is what Mrs. White herself says.

"With the opening season we have a new Paris fashion to follow, it is nothing less than a new figure. In a profile view the new shape is the lines of a letter 'S.' The most graceful, and it means complete elimination of the diaphragm which for years we have been building up with the straight front corset.

"No this is not impossible. Last year I had a diaphragm that was perfectly terrible. I realized that I would have to make the change. And I have. It's all gone, thank heaven, and I can stand with fashionable women."

"With the old straight front, we worked the fat up from the hips, and now we work it off the diaphragm. Thus, you see, we have the decidedly desirable high bust effect. And then, the tight-fitting bodice, which has come to do away with the blouse, acts as accentuating this high bust effect. That's the whole thing in a nutshell. But how did she do it—the elimination?

Be patient, you shall hear:

"As I have said, I have accomplished this seemingly difficult task. So it is not impossible. Sleep on your stomach, with your head far back. That will do it. That will take the fat off the diaphragm and the neck. Of course, one can insure a speedier result by including other processes, such as holding onto straps in street cars, with the head thrown back and swaying to and fro.

"The most prominent feature in the new shape is the chest, and I have cultivated the use of my chest in many ways. Why, I even walk with it. The first thing you will want to do, to take advice, is to throw back your shoulders. That's not necessary. Just hold them in their natural position, but hold your chest up. Try it! See? It doesn't mean the throwing back of the shoulders, does it? It is a part unto itself. Now, keep your knees stiff and see how tall you are with your bust thrown out. Do that and you will win what every woman who pretends to follow fashion must acquire if she hasn't got it naturally.

"There is one thing about this new figure which we can keep just as we have. That is the back. The old kangaroo line remains. With this, the high bust, the tight-fitting bodice, the natural elevation of the shoulders, a perfectly perpendicular neck, and stiff knees, we have the shape of 1905."

But how terrible for those with double chins!

Oh, no. Miss White says that constant star-gazing will cure that.

A cool glass of Salem BOCK BEER is a sure cure for spring fever.

CHRONIC SORES

Wheeling, W. Va., May 28, 1903.

Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broke out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so signally benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier.

JOHN W. FUNKIE.

Care Schmalback Brewing Co.

Chronic sores start often from a pimple, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, removes all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral whatever but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write us and our physicians will advise without charge. Book on diseases of the blood free.

Mrs. E. P. Morecom and daughter, Lucy, were Portland visitors Friday. Colonel J. M. Pogman and son, Tracy, spent Sunday at their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Armes and little son, were visitors to Portland Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Cowles, of the girls' academy, at Mt. Angel, spent Sunday at her home in this city.

Mr. Lonsberry, traveling freight agent for the S. P. Co., was a business visitor to Woodburn Wednesday.

Mr. S. I. Guiss, of the Woodburn Mercantile Company, was a business visitor to Portland for several days last week.

Miss Mahel Kenady, of Locust Grove, near Woodburn, was visiting and shopping in Portland Friday.

Company 1 is to give an entertainment in the armory next Wednesday, April 26th. The program will be a mixture of the comical and the serious, and promises to be most interesting.

Miss Molly Maxfield, who has been taking treatment of an osteopath physician in Portland for the past two weeks, returned home Saturday evening, to remain until Tuesday.

Miss Theresa Wallace, of New York, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Grey, of Portland, for the past year, was with her sister and little niece, Margarette, the guests of Mrs. H. L. Gill Monday. They stopped off here on their way to Los Angeles on a pleasure trip. Miss Margarette will remain here under Mrs. Gill's care, and attend the Woodburn public school until Mrs. Grey and her sister return.

Mr. E. W. Joseph died at his home in this city Friday night of neuritis of the heart. He was born in Ohio April 20, 1830. At 20 years of age he went across the Isthmus of Panama, and shortly after to California, where he engaged in mining and stock raising for some time. Then he came to Southwestern Oregon, where he built the first sawmill in that part of the country. Later he went to Nevada, and invested in the Buffalo salt works, where he, in time, controlled one-half interest. He came to Woodburn in 1900, where he has resided since that time, and for the past year has been engaged in the real estate business. He leaves five children: Geo. W., Eva Carey, Jennie Joseph, all of Portland and E. F. Joseph, of San Jose, Cal. Mr. Joseph was a man of sterling worth. He at one time had amassed a fortune of several hundred thousand dollars; was a true friend, a kind father and generous to a fault. He was a true American, a typical Westerner and a builder of the fortunes of the West.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer. "I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case." Mrs. Emma Sawyer, Conyers, Ga.

Thalian School Recital.

The Thalian School of Oratory and Physical Culture concluded its first year of successful work last Saturday night by a recital presented in Tioga hall by the members of the school. Besides the exercises and recitations of the pupils, a further charm was added to the interesting program in the assistance of the violin scholars of Prof. Graham, and the rendition of several beautiful numbers by the Artisan orchestra of this city.

Fall of Tragic Meaning are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At J. C. Perry's, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
