"I Thank the Lord!" Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for five years.

Last Sunday night's frost in the vicinity of Pendleton killed considerable fruit. One apple crop valued at $2000, is reported killed, and many orchards of cherries, plums and peaches show a loss of 50 per cent.

A BAD DISORDER In the fall of 1895 I contracted that fearful disease, Blood Poison. It gained such headway that I was forced to resign my position and seek relief at Hot Springs. After spending all the means I had I went to Memphis. In less than three weeks I was in a hospital, and after nine weeks of suffering I was discharged as cured.

SSS The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga. Of all human diseases, Contagious Blood Poison is the most hideous and hateful. The victim is tortured with eating ulcers, sores and abscesses, unsightly blotches, eruptions and other symptoms of the miserable disease.

To Tackle the Russian Lion. New York, May 5.—Seats are in demand for Madison Square garden tonight to see the world's championship catch-as-catch-can wrestling contest between George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," and Tom Jenkins, the American champion. It will be Hackenschmidt's first appearance on the mat in America. Realizing that it will require his utmost strength and cleverness to gain the victory, Jenkins has trained as he seldom has before for a contest. Hackenschmidt has the advantage in strength and size, but the admirers of the American wrestler regard him as the cleverer of the two. Jenkins has a further advantage in the fact that the contest will be catch-as-catch-can, at which style he is the more adept, while the Russian favors the Green-Roman style. The articles call for the best two out of three falls. The price of a pretty face is $1.—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Stone's drug store.
