CLARY'S BRILLIANT CAREER.

The Most Remarkable Success Ever Attained by an American Contralto.

Great interest is being manifested in the Salem appearance of Mary Louise Clary, the famous concert contralto, who will sing at the Grand, Friday night, May 12. Her many musical triumphs during the past twelve years are too numerous to recite. Her robust physique, magnetic personality and thousands of enthusiastic musical admirers.

Among the many interesting episodes connected with Miss Clary's artistic career, the fact is often mentioned of her engagement in the phenomenally successful production of Du Maurier's "Trilby" in New York a few seasons ago. Being engaged in Mr. Palmer's original company as "Trilby's voice," which was supposed to be the most wonderful world has ever heard, she revived the long-forgotten ballad, "Ben Bolt," with such great effect that it forthwith swept like wild fire through all the English speaking countries.

Tonight at the Edison.
Despite the opposition of the "Red Feather" Company at the opera house last night, the Edison theatre did a big business, the people appreciate a good, clean show, and one within the means of all, and the show this week is deserving of crowded houses. A complete change of program is promised for tonight. Goodwin, West and Goodwin present an entirely different act. F. J. Byrd sings the illustrated song, "Honey, Stay in Your Own Back Yard." Trainer and Wilson use a different act, as do the Goodwin duo. For next week an unusual program is offered, headed by Barnold's $250 per week dog and cat show, conceded by press and public to be the funniest and most original act of its character on the stage today. No advance in prices, but three full shows a night, to give everybody a chance to see a complete show.

FINE COSTUMES PREVAIL

At the Presentation of the Opera Red Feather

The romantic opera, "Red Feather," was presented last evening at the Grand to a crowded house of appreciative listeners. No play that has come to Salem for a long time has succeeded in pleasing the popular taste of theatre-goers in this city so well as the play given last night. There was not a dull moment during the whole performance. The solo work, the magnificent choruses and the excellent way in which the comic side was sustained, all called forth the heartiest and most spontaneous applause on the part of the audience.

The play has to do with a certain Countess Von Draga, who masquerades under the nom-de-plume of "Red Feather," a daring female bandit. This venturesome young woman divides her time in reigning as a court beauty and robbing travelers on the highway. She steals that she may help the cause of the Prince of Romanica, who seeks to rule that mythical kingdom. In one of her escapades she robs Captain Travers, of the Romanica army, and he vows to capture the bandit, who is believed to be a man. Both he and the prince love the countess, and this leads to enmity. Travers insults the prince, and can only obtain pardon by capturing "Red Feather." The countess gives a grand ball and Travers tracks "Red Feather" there. To save Travers the countess declares herself to be "Red Feather," and then makes known her love for him.

The costumes of the participants were of the most elaborate character, and the stage settings have never been excelled in beauty and taste by any show which has been here lately.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Twentieth Anniversary.
Rev. and Mrs. H. V. Haslam last night celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary, at the church parsonage of the Free Methodist church, in North Salem, with 50 friends and neighbors as their guests.

The house was prettily decorated, roses being everywhere in evidence, and the evening was spent in delightful social intercourse, vocal and instrumental music. Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Blackburn and Mr. A. L. Grinnell favored the company with vocal selections which were greatly enjoyed.

After refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Haslam were called upon to give impromptu talks, which were more enjoyed than any other part of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Haslam were married in Kosse, Texas, and three children were born to the union, a daughter, Miss Clara, and two sons, Edwin and Oliver, all of whom were present last evening. Rev. Haslam has been in the ministry for 24 years, and during that time has served as pastor in Kosse, Corsicana, San Antonio, Lawrence, Terrell, Batchelor, Ennis, Dallas, all in the state of Texas, when they removed to Gresham, Oregon, then to Portland, and a year ago came to Salem.

This being the china wedding, many pretty gifts of chinaware were received.

Mrs. Wm. Barrett, of Arletta Park, Portland, mother of Mrs. Haslam; Rev. Mrs. L. R. Blackburn, recently of Michigan; Mrs. Charles Nowt, Miss Mary Lewis, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod and son, of Chemawa, were among the guests.

Married.
At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Shants, Miss Jessie Shants last evening became the wife of Mr. Joe Reese, Rev. H. V. Haslam officiating. A large number of relatives and friends were present.

"I Thank the Lord!"
Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for five years. It is a marvelous healer. Guaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store; 25c.

HIGH ENGLISH SCANDAL

London, May 11.—Scandalous revelations which have come to light this week have afforded a choice morsel for gossip in official and social circles. It appears from the rumors going the rounds that a member of parliament and a very prominent politician has only narrowly escaped becoming the leading figure in a grave scandal. The charge against him is one of seduction, the victim being the young daughter of one of his tenants. The girl is quite young, considerably under 20, and when her condition became known she revealed certain facts of a particularly disgraceful nature against the M. P. Her father, according to the story, at once visited the politician and charged him with being the cause of his daughter's downfall. At first an attempt was made to carry the matter through with a high hand, and the farmer was ordered to leave the house as a black-mailer. He quickly took his departure, having first of all knocked his landlord down in his own library, and at once placed the matter in the hands of a well-known firm of London solicitors, who prepared to make matters very warm for the politician. After much fencing, the latter ultimately broke down and admitted everything. In his eagerness to prevent the matter becoming public, he consented to pay any sum that might be suggested, and it is said that the matter was finally settled for something like $20,000.

Will Debate High School.
The Roseburg Review says: Elmer Wilson, Ethel Shupe and Lillith Moore, constituting a debating team from the Roseburg high school, which will go to Salem next Friday to debate with a team from the Salem high school. The question for discussion is: "Resolved, That the ends of justice would be better served if the jury system were abolished and the decisions in all cases of litigation be rendered by the judge or judges." The Roseburg team takes the affirmative of the question. The judges have not been selected. Prof. Sanders and perhaps some other members of the high school, will very likely accompany the team.

Grand Ban.
At the M. B. A. hall, one-half mile west of Chemawa, Friday night, May 12th.

Salem Man Injured.
While District Attorney J. H. McNary was returning from a trip to McMinnville last evening, in a rig drawn by two horses, he met with a painful and dangerous mishap. It was about 10 o'clock p. m., and Mr. McNary, in company with Webster Holmes and W. H. Holmes, had almost reached the end of the steel bridge spanning the Willamette river at this place, when the horses became frightened at the arc light hanging directly over the bridge at this end and started to run. As the night was dark and stormy, it was a difficult matter to guide the frightened animals, and so Mr. McNary thought he would risk jumping out rather than perhaps be dashed out over the bridge railing into the dark waters of the Willamette. He leaped and struck on his head, cutting him quite badly on the forehead and bruising him in many other places, besides giving him a severe nervous shock. The driver, after the team had ran a quarter of a mile or so, succeeded in bringing the horses to a standstill. Returning he found Mr. McNary lying on the bridge, and, with the aid of several passersby, conveyed him to his home. The injuries are not such as to cause any uneasiness on the part of Mr. McNary's friends, but still will necessitate that he rest and recuperate for a few days.

Man's Unreasonableness.
Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. H. Austin, manager of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasoning when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist, price 50c.

"Good Clothes"

Something everybody wants, but few get. We make a specialty of good clothes and the things that go with them. We don't sell anything else. The market is flooded with clothing, and people are tempted to buy with the enticing bait of low prices, which usually means low qualities. When you are ready for a new suit, suppose you look into the question a little closer. When you realize that the style depends a good deal on the quality, and quality clothes can't be bought at what the cloth alone is worth; then price alone will not tempt you. Our S. W. M. made clothes cost as little as good clothes can be made to sell for. Try them.
