Edison—Vaudeville.

Barnold's Dogs Are Wonders.

The banner week at the Edison theater surely, as the performance is of especial merit!

It's worth the price of admission to see any one trick, as performed by Barnold's marvelous dogs and cats. They do so many great ones that space will not permit of special mention of any one trick. Then Prof. Leo Worley made a tremendous hit with his violin and other musical instruments. His violin, by the way, is a $2000.00 instrument, and the professor is certainly a master. Helen Vance rendered the beautifully illustrated song, "When My Golden Hair Has Turned to Silver Grey," and received hearty applause. Louise Lister presented an act, quite different from any before presented in Salem, and pleased. Be sure to have the children see this week's show.

DON'T WANT IT TO GO.

Eugene People In Hopes Woolen Mill May Be Retained There.

Eugene Register: Interest in the ultimate destiny of the Eugene woolen mill was revived yesterday when the southbound overland brought to our city A. A. Jayne, of Hood River, and T. B. Kay, of Salem, whose ostensible mission is to inspect the plant with the object in view of purchasing the same for a stock company, recently organized in Hood River, for the purpose of establishing a woolen mill.

They accordingly examined the plant, but the outcome of their inspection was not learned, as both gentlemen are very reticent over the matter.

It has been intimated, however, that the intention is to move the mill to Hood River, should negotiations now pending terminate in the purchase of the plant.

Mr. Kay returned to Salem on the morning train and Mr. Jayne left for Hood River to submit the result of his investigations to the parties interested.

It is profoundly hoped that Eugene may retain the plant, no matter how the present deal terminates.

THUNDER STORM AT ALBANY.

Thunder and Lightning Put Telephone Wires Out of Commission.

Albany Herald: Albany was treated to a genuine thunder storm Tuesday morning, one of the kind that in the prairie states is frequently accompanied by a gentle zephyr called by the people of that section, a cyclone. A lightning flash struck the wires on the corner of First and Ellsworth streets, and the wires were out of business for a time. A large number of the telephone wires in the city were out of business for a time, and the force connected with the office was kept busy until late last evening repairing the damage. Late in the evening the system was again in complete working order, and subscribers who were unable for a time to get central were again placed in communication with the rest of mankind.

Invited to Take Part.

Bill Anderson, the well-known Salem saloon man, and all-around sport, has been invited by the management of the Lewis and Clark Fair and Oriental Exposition, through the influence of President Jeff Myers, to participate and provide a bull race as one of the features and drawing cards for foreign nations. He has been asked to provide 23 bulls, and if any of them prove fierce enough they may arrange a bull fight on the grounds. Mr. Anderson has also a call to take down his exhibition of curios, that he has been over 30 years in accumulating, and that the State Historical Society has several times tried to procure for their great exhibit at the city hall in Portland. Next thing they will be wanting to get Bill himself to put on exhibition. He would draw like a house afire in the North End.

Telegraphic Brevities.

The Elkhorn river dike at Neligh, near Lincoln, Neb., has broken and thousands of acres of farm lands flooded, causing heavy losses to livestock and crops.

Henry G. Goll, former cashier of the First National Bank of Milwaukee, charged with doctoring the books to aid President Frank Bigelow, who embezzled $1,500,000 waived preliminary examination, and was bound over to the federal grand jury.

In the Hoch murder trial, held at Chicago, Prof. Haines, a chemical expert, testified it was highly improbable, if not impossible for arsenic to find its way to the stomach of Mrs. Walcker-Hoch through the casket and soil in the cemetery.

Norway's Independence Day.

St. Paul, Minn., May 17.—Norway's fair daughters and sturdy sons throughout the Northwest and across the Dominion border are today celebrating the anniversary of the declaration of independence and the promulgation of a constitution by the popular assembly, which met at Eidsvold in the spring of 1814.

Trap Tournament at Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., May 17.—The annual tournament of the Stanley Gun Club, which opened today, bids fair to be the most successful event of the kind ever pulled off in Canada. An unusually large number of expert marksmen are competing for the cash prizes and valuable trophies. The program of events covers three days.

Cashier Suicides.

Milwaukee, May 17.—George Richardson, cashier of the internal revenue office here, committed suicide today by shooting. He was 46 years old, and leaves a family. Officials from Washington will make an investigation of his accounts.

Mother Is Prostrated.

New York, May 17.—The remains of Herbert V. Croker, who died suddenly on the train at Newton, Kansas, arrived here this morning. The body was taken to the family residence, where it will remain until the funeral. Mrs. Croker is prostrated by her son's death.

A 28½ pound baby won the prize for the fattest baby at the baby contest at the Arnold shows at Eugene last week.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

We don't put Scott's Emulsion in the class of advertised cure-alls; it doesn't belong there. We hardly like to use the word "cure" at all, but we are bound to say that it can be used for a great many troubles with great satisfaction. Its special function is to repair the waste of the body when the ordinary food does not nourish, and this means that it is useful in many cases which are indicated by wasting.

We'll send you a sample free.

NEBRASKA G. A. R. MEET

Grand Island, Neb., May 17.—Grand Island is being flooded today with old soldiers, members of the Women's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans and soldiers of the Spanish war. They are the delegates to the annual encampment of the G. A. R., department of Nebraska, and the meetings of the affiliated organizations. Up to noon today delegates to each order came in slowly, but the afternoon trains brought in large crowds. A meeting of the council of administration and a reception in honor of the visiting ladies are scheduled for this evening. The encampment parade and the formal opening of the convention takes place tomorrow morning. The city is profusely decorated with flags and bunting in honor of the occasion.

Petition Not Yet Filed.

It is expected that H. B. Hendricks, who has charge of the referendum petition, will not arrive in the city until this evening. Mr. Hendricks went to Portland last Monday morning to have the 1500 names on the petition, which had not been properly certified by the Multnomah county clerk, attended to. He was expected to be able to file the petition today, but, for some reason, did not arrive. Tomorrow is the last day remaining in which the petition can be filed, so it is assured that Mr. Hendricks will be here tomorrow.

Presbyterians in Conference.

Fresno, Cal., May 17.—Delegates to the annual conference of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which will open tomorrow, and last until the 28th, began to arrive today. A majority of the delegates now here declare themselves in favor of uniting with the old church. This is the most important matter to be considered by the conference.

Last week was quiet in police circles at Baker City—not even a hobo being fired out of town.
