INTERESTING DISCOURSES.

Large Audience Last Night Listens to Dr. Martin Talk.

A large crowd packed the pavilion east of the Christian church last night, and accorded Dr. S. M. Martin a most attentive hearing, while he spoke on "The Holy Spirit." Dr. Martin spoke slowly, in order that every one might understand every thought given. As he said he first drove the stakes and then tied something to them. The sermon was highly spoken of by those present, and many people crowded around the evangelist at the close to thank and congratulate him. In a great many places where Dr. Martin has preached this sermon he has been asked to repeat it. Prof. McVey's solo last night was "The Home That Used to Be," and was very effectively rendered. The subject tonight will be "Hiding From God."

Maccabees.

State Commander J. W. Sherwood will be present at the review this evening. A full attendance is desired.
