OFFICIAL OPENING PROGRAM

Portland, Or., May 31.—The Lewis and Clark centennial exposition, upon which the city of Portland has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars, will be thrown open at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

During the last few days the people have worked with desperate energy to accomplish the thousand and one things that always remain to be done at the last moment. As a result of the carefully laid plans, the fair stands today completed in every detail, and all machinery of the exposition is but awaiting the President's touch to start in motion.

At 1 o'clock, Portland time, President Roosevelt, at Washington, will touch the golden telegraph key, and start the machinery of the exposition.

Following is the official program: Overture, "Festival" (Weber), Imes' Band. Assemblage called to order by the president of the exposition at 12 o'clock, noon.

Divine invocation by the Rt. Rev. David H. Moore, D. D., Portland, Oregon.

March, "Imperial Oregon," Innes. (Dedicated to the memory of Captains Lewis and Clark, and inscribed to the people of Oregon.)

Address by H. W. Goode, president of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition.

Address by George E. Chamberlain, governor of Oregon.

Address by Jefferson Myers, president of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition Commission for the state of Oregon.

Address by George H. Williams, mayor of Portland.

Address by Clarence D. Clark, United States senator, representing the United States senate.

Address by James A. Tawney, M. C., representing the United States house of representatives.

Address by H. A. Taylor, first assistant secretary of the treasury and chairman of the United States government board.

Address by Joseph H. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives of the United States.

Address by Charles Warren Fairbanks, vice-president of the United States and personal representative of the president.

Presidential salute of 21 guns. Notification by wire to president of the United States of the exposition management's readiness to receive signal to open the exposition.

President Roosevelt touches golden key at White House in Washington transmitting electrical energy which rings chimes in the United States government building and starts machinery of the exposition.

President Goode then declares the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition formally opened to the world.

"The Star Spangled Banner," by the massed bands with artillery accompaniments and cathedral chimes.

Divine benediction by the Most Rev. Alexander Christie, D. D., archbishop of Oregon.

The national anthem, Innes' band. Centennial salute of 100 guns.

Excursion Rates. During the Lewis and Clark Exposition the O. C. T. Co. will make a rate of 75 cents to Portland, round trip $1. Tickets good for 10 days. Boats leaving daily.

Rome Without a Stage. It will be news to most people that Rome, the channel through which the drama was disseminated through Europe, has today no dramatic traditions of her own, nor even a body of actors of her own. Such strolling companies, operatic and dramatic, as may be traveling through Italy, often from Milan, make a brief "season" in the capital as in other cities, and that is all. An organized effort is now being made to remove this reproach. A city orchestra of 100 high class performers has been formed, and this will be placed gratuitously at the disposal of the Costanzi theater, in return for six months of a varied repertory of opera. In the same way, the Argentine theater will become a national theater of comedy, with subventions of about $4000 a year, on condition of giving a six months' of a varied dramatic program.

If you are troubled with dizzy spells, headache, indigestion, constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. If it fails, get your money back. That's fair. 35 cents. Stone's Drug Store.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Salem Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad sufferers in Salem are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. People are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. W. Monech, wife of L. W. Monech, cabinet maker, residing corner Fourth and Main streets, Albany, Oregon, says: "After any over exertion, or when I contracted a cold, pain seated itself in the seat of my back, causing it to ache severely, and there was a difficulty with the kidney secretions. On such occasions stooping lifting, twisting or turning was always followed by sharp shooting twinges through the kidneys. When I was badly in need of something to bring relief I read about Doan's Kidney's Pills and procured a box and took them strictly according to directions. They thoroughly relieved me of the last attack, and up to the present time I have not had a trace of symptoms of irritated or inactive kidneys. I will be pleased to allow you to use my name if it will be the means of doing good to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NEIGHBORS KICK

If She Don't Get a New Step Ladder Neighbors Will Drive Her From the Neighborhood.

The stepladder which goes the rounds of a certain neighborhood in Atchison at this season is a dilapidated affair that needs more than an apology, says the Globe. The owner's apologies have been accepted long enough. One woman who used it yesterday found the only way it would stand was upside down, and she climbed it that way, the parts projecting against the wall. Since it started out this spring, women have had to become contortionists to maintain a foothold and use their arms at the same time. One woman had to use both her arms to hold on, and was compelled to wash windows with her feet. Another woman got no use out of the ladder until she had learned to balance herself on her head on the fourth round. It is found that if there is a bucket of hot, soapy water on top, the ladder is sure to spread and dump it. One woman has filed suit for $75,000 damages from the owner of the ladder for a fall she got from it yesterday. The owner has been notified that unless she gets a new stepladder to lend her neighbors, they will drive her from the neighborhood.

Negro Preaching Holy Rolling.

A negro giving his name as A. Swackhammer, is touring the country around Enterprise as a Holy Roller. He claims to hail from Hayti and also claims to have assisted in holding the meetings in the Willamette valley when the Holy Rollers held high carnival down here.

Swackhammer is a mulatto about 30 years old, is six feet tall and wears a coat reaching down to his ankles. His method is to secure a church in which to lecture and then to open up a series of services which usually close the second night. The first night a crowd attends through curiosity and the next night people remain away through disgust. The colored Holy Roller takes up a collection at his services, thus enabling him to pay his way at the leading hotels.
