Boys and Girls Can Romp In These Stockings.

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Tag and marbles or hockey quickly show the quality in children's stockings. They must be stout, but not too heavy, they must be elastic, but not too light, but must wear well, of course. They must be pony stockings to be just right.

Pony stockings are elastic, and the fine grade yarn is soft to the feet. That's quality. Then they are three-ply at knee, heel and toe, where three times the wear comes. That's strength. As to color, they are never anything but black.

Always look for this Mark.

Ramblers vs. Dallas.

The Rambler Amateur Athletic Club, of this city, and the second Dallas College team will give an exhibition of baseball on Willamette field Saturday afternoon, June 3d, at 3 o'clock.

Both are leading junior teams in the state. The Ramblers hardly know the name of defeat, and the friends and everybody else should turn out to witness the game. The admission will be 25 cents.

Silverware Worth Buying

That the best is the cheapest, goes without saying when buying silver-plated spoons, knives and forks. They are used three times a day, every day in the year—so you'll save money in the long run by buying good, durable heavy-plated ware.

Here are Rogers' fine plated goods at unusually attractive prices:

$4 A SET FOR ROGERS' KNIVES AND FORKS—6 OF EACH.
$1.25 FOR A SET OF ROGERS' TEASPOONS.
$2.50 FOR A SET OF ROGERS' TABLESPOONS.

HE DIDN'T CATCH THE TITLE

And That Was Why He Asked the Attorney a Leading Question

Assistant Attorney-General Robb, of Washington, D. C., was in the city Monday, being in Oregon, so the birds say, to examine the brands, dewlaps and ear marks of the candidates for the federal judgeship left vacant by the death of Judge Bellinger. No matter, however, why he came, while here he was at the state house, and was introduced to Attorney-General A. M. Crawford. The gentleman from Washington didn't catch the title, at the introduction, and after a few moments' conversation, quite innocently said: "Are you not a lawyer?" Mr. Crawford was for a moment rather bewildered, but, lighting on his feet, as lawyers learn to do, replied, "Well, general, the fact that I am attorney-general of this state, and that I was elected by the people without hypnotic influences being brought to bear, can be taken as prima facie evidence that I am." Then there was a "my dear Gaston" act by General Robb, and a mutual smile, and—well—they were in the state capitol, and house bill No. 104 has never been repealed.

Girl Missing.

Miss Orlinda Jackson, daughter of Veterinary Surgeon E. E. Jackson, of this city, has been missing from home for three days. He was in Portland Tuesday, looking for her,, as he thought she had followed the Cozad dog and pony show to that point. He was, however, unable to locate her, and others think she is hiding in the city. It is claimed she charged she was ill-treated at home, and had claimed protection from the city recorder. As that gentleman's office was closed today, and her father is yet in Portland, nothing could be learned as to the truth of the rumors. The girl is about 14 years old, and rather under the normal height for her years.

Body Found.

The body of the late Fred Smith, who was drowned one day this week in Alaska, has been found in the Skagit river.

Mr. Smith was well-known in this city, where he went to school, and lived with his aunt, Mrs. W. H. Downing, nee Miss Gussie Newton. He graduated in the 1900 class at the East school, and was liked by all who knew him. The death comes as a sad blow to his relatives and friends. He leaves a wife, they having been married but one month.

The body will be brought to this city and is expected to arrive on the 4 o'clock train tomorrow. The interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, immediately after the arrival of the body. Rev. Griswold, of Albany, will take charge of the services.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Claud Settlemier, of this city, is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. L. M. Curl, of Albany.

Mrs. S. G. Schaefer has been spending a few days the guest of Miss Mabel Jones, at "Labish Meadows."

Mr. Clarence Wilson, in the employ of Mr. Jack Rogers, left today for his two weeks' vacation, going to Lebanon for a starter. Mr. Rogers makes a practice of giving his employes a half month vacation each year, and generously forgets to remember it on the pay roll. It is a habit that, unfortunately, is not dangerously contagious.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Simonds and Miss Inez Scott, who have played a three-nights' engagement at the Edison, left today for Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Simonds were old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Byrd, whose guests they were during their stay. The ladies each carried away a big bouquet of Salem roses, and their talk to The Journal man indicated that they also had a big bouquet for Salem.

A Smal Blaze.

An alarm of fire at 1:20 this afternoon was caused by a small blaze at the residence of Wm. Egan, on Winter street. No damage, except to the feelings of the fire department, who had a run for fun.

For Governor's Signature.

Madison, Wis., June 1.—The assembly today concurred in the Wisconsin freight rate commission and the senate commission bil, with minor amendments. The measure now goes to the governor.

Will Be Retired.

Washington, June 1.—It is announced with authority that the investigation of the Loomis-Bowen controversy failed to establish a case against Loomis. Bowen will probably be retired from the diplomatic service.

"GOD'S MOST PERFECT GARDEN."

California Lady Falls in Love With Salem's Lovely Roses.

A lady from the classic California neighborhood known as "Yuba Dam" was in the city last week, remaining for several days. She heard some of the guests at the hotel where she was stopping mention Salem's beautiful roses, and immediately butted in, as every enthusiastic Californian will, and every Webfoot ought to, with an enthusiastic disseration on her native state's beautiful flowers. The next day she took a walk, and she saw roses; she saw plenty of them, too, drooping, heavy salmon-tinted beauties, others so deeply red as to be almost black, delicate falls of roses, dainty of petal and tinted like the first dawn of love, stately, massive roses, big as peonys, and dreams of tinted buds, whose stems the fairies had, in their desire to add to the beautiful, wreathed with delicate moss Then she realized that she had seen roses, and she gathered a great mass of the beauties, and packed them, wrapped in dampened moss, in a box, and she paid express on it clear down to Yuba Dam, so that her friends there would believe the raptuous description she wrote of them. And when The Journal man said "roses" to her, she just shook her pretty head, and said: "Oh, this wonderful Oregon of yours, God's most perfect garden."

WAS A KILLING.

South Salem Takes Yew Park Into Camp, 12 to 0.

A match game of ball was played Decoration day betwen the Yew Park boys and the South Salem Stars. A good game of ball was played by both teams, but the Stars were too much for the Park boys. Only a few errors were made by the Stars and not a great many by the Parks. Keeton, the Star batter of the day for the Stars, whaled out a home run, crossing the plate before the ball reached second base, and several two-base hits were also made by some of the other Stars. The Parks also did good batting, but could not get the ball past the infielders, the game ending with a score of 12 to 0 in favor of the Stars.

Daue, for the Stars, pitched fine ball, and only one hit was made by the Parks. Basher also pitched good ball, but was easily found.
