ABOUT

Go Away With an Unierstanding of Its Growth and Possibilities

A number of the Southern Pacific ailroad officials were in the city yes, thus far, and that was when the pa terday, Mr. Storrs, W. E. Coman, R. B. Miller and Mr. Lownsberry being of the party. They came for the purpose of inquiring into the flax industry, and gain all possible information concerning the industry in this county. They recognized the interest taken in the matter by our townsman, Mr. H. B. Thielsen, and he was invited to meet them. Mr. Bosse, the pioneer in the industry, and Mrs. Lord, who has done so much to assist in establishing it were present, and gave the visitors the benefit of much hardly-earned information. The railroad officials are deeply interested in the matter, and will do everything possible to interest those engaged in the working of flax fibre in Oregon's product, It is, perhaps, needless to add that the industry had well-informed advocates, and that the railroad's representatives got information that could not have been procured elsewhere.

Oregon produces a quality of flax qual to the best grown in Ireland, and therefore, in the world, and it is only a meeting for the benefit of the church that, when linen products wil lbe one of Salem principal shipments.

Rehearsal at Asylum.

The students of the University College of Oratory gave a dress rehearsal of the dramatic recital which is to be given by them in the opera house Saturday night. The play was "Drifted Apart," and the audience proved appreciative and admiring. While easily moved to tears the humorous situations seemed to touch them more quickly, and caused them to applaud heartily. It was not only a treat to the patients, but the officials speak of the talent displayed in the highest terms. Immediately following the entertainment the officials entertained the young players by serving a splendid lunch, to which youthful appetites did ample justice.

Gas Range Demonstration.

The following is the program for Saturday at the gas range demonstraly take advantage of this valuable offer, and see the demonstrations. Subject: "Dinner."

Visnna Steak with Mushroom Sauce and Potato Bowkoks. Cabbage au Grafin. Fruit Salad. K. of P. Picnic. The Knights of Pythias of Hubbard Over Ladd & Bush's Bank, Salem, Or. Journal the body would arrive on the and Aurora will hold their annual pienie at Hubbard tomorrow. This joint meeting has become a feature with these lodges, and one looked forward to with ever-increasing pleasure by the members of the lodges. Quite a number of Salem knights will attend, and if they talk as well there as they do here, in speaking of it, every one of them could be "orator of the day."

Evangelistic Service Meeting With Good Results, and Will Continue

TO CONTINUE

SERVICES

"Start slow, go slow, rise higher, catch fire , wax warm, end in a storm' was announced by Dr. S. M. Martin at the beginning as his program in a meet ing last night. He said that the "Rise Higher" point had only been reached vilion had to be enlarged last week The evangelists are being rewarded with abundant success, even though they consider the meetings fairly well started. The services will continue in definitely, possibly lasting up to the date set for the state convention of the Christian churches at Turner, June 23d where Evangelist McVay will conduct the music. Sixty-two persons have united with the church thus far. A large number were baptized last night at the close of the services. "The Old Paths" was the subject of the evangelist's sermon last night, and was one of his best. Prof. McVay sang "The Bells of Conscience" in sweet, clear voice, and it was heartily enjoyed. Prof. McVay is certainly a prince of song among the singing evangelists of the country. None better has ever visited Salem. His many friends are anxious to hear him in other classes of music, and he expects to give a song recital at the close of the question of time, and a short time at at which time he will sing his best and most popular songs, consisting of humorous, pathetic and classic selections. The subject of Dr. Martin's discourse for tonight is "The Narrow Way."

Silverware Worth Buying

That the best is the cheapest, goes without saying when buying silverplated spoons, knives and forks. They are used three times a day, every day in the year-so you'll mave money in the long run by baying good, durable heavy-plated ware.

Here are Rogers' fine plated goods at unusually attractive prices: 54 A SET FOR ROGERS' KNIVES AND FORKS-6 OF EACH. $1.25 FOR A SET OF BOGERS' TEASPOONS. $2.50 FOR A SET OF ROGERS' TABLESPOONS.

Closing Exercises Blind School. The closing exercises of the Oregon Institute for the Blind will take place at the M. E. church this evening. A splendid program has been provided, and it is quite certain that those who never attended a performance of this kind will be both astonished and delighted, for the proficiency of the pupils, in spite of the eternal darkness in which they live, is simply wonderful.

Parents Came for Him.

Otto Goswick, a boy of from 18 to 20 years, who has, for the past few days, shown signs of insanity, was taken in charge by Chief of Police Cornelius this morning, but no examination was held, as his parents came after him, and will see what can be done to straighten him out.

Entertainment Tonight.

The Oregon Institute for the Blind will give a most interesting entertainment at the First M. E. church tonight at 8 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited to attend. There will be songs by the pupils, recitations and instrumental music, and will be well worth attending.

See Mr. Averill as the bachelor in "Thirty Minutes for Refreshments," at the Grand Saturday night.
