SOCIAL EVENTS

Brilliant Social Event.

One of the elaborate social functions of the past week was the reception given by Mrs. Squire Farrar and her daughter, Miss Gladys Farrar, at their pleasant home on North Commercial street, Wednesday afternoon. The affair was really a coming out party for Miss Farrar, and she will be a charming acquisition to the society circles of the capital city.

The residence was radiant with June roses in all their beauty and fragrance. The parlors were banked with them and large palms added much to the scene. McElroy's orchestra discoursed music throughout the afternoon. They were stationed behind a beautiful screen of ferns and palms. The back parlor was decorated with a profusion of the bright colored iris and ferns. The library was in red roses, which were beautifully arranged. The dining rooms where the refreshments were served, were bowers of roses one in pink and the other in white. The rooms were all lovely and made a succession of beautiful pictures, enlivened by the presence of the brilliant gathering of ladies in summer attire. Mrs. Farrar, in a beautiful costume of gray silk cologne, and Miss Farrar in a dainty dress of embroidered blue silk mill, received the guests. Miss Jennie Fry attended the door. Miss Elizabeth Lord presided at the punch bowl, which was in a flower decked corner in the parlor. Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mrs. Ed. Weller and Mrs. W. P. Babcock assisted in the dining rooms.

The young debutante is already a great favorite among her acquaintances, and was given a warm welcome into society by her many friends on this occasion.

The invited guests were: Mrs. J.

Ready With the Goods

We can truly make it worth the while for the prospective buyer of a buggy, runabout, surrey, driving wagon hack or other vehicle to see our fine assortment. We handle the Studebaker line of work, which is the most comprehensive assortment in the world. Besides this, we have three other lines of specialties, which gives us as complete a selection as is found in any wholesale or retail house in the valley. Besides the good stock carried on our floor, we get immediate delivery out of Portland on anything shown in above four catalogues, which is a great convenience to our trade.

No vexatious delays when you buy of us. Our famous "Hundred-Dollar Bike" is still the leader in its class. Our $110, $125 and $140 kinds surpass any shown. Come and see for yourself.

Wedding Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Lenore, to Anderson M. Cannon, the wedding to take place June 14, 1905, at "Lalish Meadows."

Musicales for Next Week.

Notable among the entertainments of next week will be the two piano recitals given at the Methodist church by the pupils of Miss Beatrice Shelton. The first one will be given Tuesday evening, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock, while the second will be given the following evening. On Tuesday they will be assisted by Miss Louise Peebles, a promising young vocalist, and on Wednesday by Miss Bertha Hewitt, reader. The young daughters of Andrew Vercler, both specially talented violinists, will also appear on Wednesday evening. Miss Shelton's recitals have always been successful, and these will no doubt be even better.

Pleasant Party.

Misses Ava Shirley and Iza Constable entertained a number of their friends Tuesday evening at the home of the latter on Court street, in honor of Miss Shirley's guest, Miss Pearson, of Pullman, Wash., who is spending a few weeks in Salem. The principal game was "forfeits," each person being furnished with ten peanuts and forfeiting one each time they said "yes" or "no" during the evening. Chester Moores took the prize, he having the largest number of peanuts at the close of the evening. Other interesting games were played, and refreshments were served at a seasonable hour.

Those present were: Misses Vera Pearson, Iza Constable, Chrissie Clark, Edna Savage, Edith Ragan, Etta Welch Edith Welch, Olive Riddell, Murah Hatch, Emma Nerod, Ava Shirley, Mildred Perkins, Alice McCauley, Mabel DeLong, Olive Metcalf and Belle Crouse. Messrs. Ralph Moores, Chester Moores, Harry Mourer, Ross Flower, Abbey Graber, Herbert Nutter, Percy Hunt, Homer Hunt, George Cartwright, Ross McIntire, Blaine Hubbard, Curtis Cross, Hollister Chamberlain, Bob Shepard and Ralph Cronise.

Celebrated Birthday.

Miss Winifred Livingston celebrated the occasion of her 17th birthday anniversary Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Livingston, on the Garden Road, and entertained about a dozen of her young friends in honor of the party event.

The evening was spent very pleasantly in games, among them a guessing contest, in which Raymond Axley captured the prize. The hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Belle Niles and Zoia Toothacre.

Birthday Party.

The celebration of the sixth birthday of little J. Robertson Brooks was a most enjoyable event, and was attended by a large number of his little friends. The party was given at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, on North Winter street. Mrs. Brooks was assisted in entertaining the children by Misses Bertha Sroat and Miss Edith Winstanley. The entertainment was out of doors on the lawn, and the children played all sorts of games, popcorn tossing, soap bubbles, blind man's buff, peanut hunts, etc., and made merry as children will. Hammocks and swings added much to the fun. The luncheon was served on a long table on the lawn, the feature being the huge birthday cake, on which the six candles burned. The decorations were in keeping with Memorial day, and each pyramid of ice cream was surmounted by a little flag. Misses Florence Houston and Martha Brooks presided at the punch bowl.

The crowning feature of the afternoon, and the one most enjoyed by the little folks was the big pie. The children recited "Sing a song of sixpence, pocket full of rye, four and twenty blackbirds baked in a pie, etc." The four and twenty blackbirds protruded from the pie, and at the end of each rhyme each child pulled a string, to which a little souvenir was attached.

It was a delightful party, everything being arranged for the pleasure of the guests. One little tot, the smallest among them, said as she left "I've had a high time," which voiced the thoughts of all.

Those present were: Marjory Cannon and Alice Wilson, of Portland; Carolyn and Dorothy Dick, Marjory Kay, Angela and Olive Cliffe, Margaret Mulkey, Ada Coleman, Margaret Stolz, Elizabeth Dwyer, Florence McDonald, Wilhelmina Smith, Elizabeth Sroat, Pauline and Ray Remington, Charles and Charlotte Robertson, Eugene Houston, Willie Smith, Orris Fry, Nyle

THOUSANDS OF FAIR WOMEN HERALD PRAISES OF PE-RU-NA.

Catarrh and Catarrhal Diseases Make Invalids of More Women Than All Other Ailments Combined.

Suffered Long With Catarrh.

Miss Clara Case, 115 9th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I can think of no event in my life that fills me with more gratitude and at the same time a sense of future security, as a cure after long suffering from catarrh, brought about by using Peruna as directed. It has completely cured me."—Clara Case.

Entire System Toned by Pe-ru-na.

Miss Mary Bennett, 1619 Addison Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"A few months ago I contracted a cold by getting my feet wet, and although I used the usual remedies I could not shake it off.

"I finally took Peruna. In a week I was better. After several weeks I succeeded in ridding myself of any trace of a cold, and besides the medicine had toned up my system so that I felt invigorated."—Mary Bennett.

Physicians Had Given Up the Case—Now Entirely Well.

Miss Gertrude Linford, Vice President Parkside Whist Club and teacher of Whist, 221 Niagara street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

"Peruna has effectually cured me after physicians had practically given up my case.

"For a long time I suffered with catarrh of the kidneys, had a weakness and pain in the back, lost flesh rapidly, my feet were swollen, my face was puffed under the eyes and I had a waxy sallowness of the skin.

"I took Peruna for some time and am entirely well. I cannot endorse Peruna too strongly."—Gertrude Linford.

If you suffer from catarrh in any form, do not delay. Take Peruna at once. Delays are dangerous.

Miss Nalley's Story—Short, But Interesting to Every Woman.

Miss Addie Nalley, 157 D street, S. E., Washington, D. C., writes:

"A cough, the grip, catarrh of the moanest kind—all sorts of remedies, home, patent and prescribed by doctors, and no relief,—that tells my story, a story of suffering and distress that lasted four years.

"Then—three bottles of Peruna—catarrh gone, appetite and strength returned—a happy woman, and now more grateful for the blessing of health—that is what Peruna has done for me."—Addie Nalley.

Darby-McGregor Wedding.

Miss Kathryn McGregor and Mr. B. L. Darby, of Glendale, were married at that place June 1, 1905.

The groom is well-known in this city. He is a son of W. H. H. Darby, and is an enterprising young druggist of Glendale. His bride is a most estimable and charming young lady, and is a niece of Mrs. Kathryn Clarke, proprietress of the famous Hotel Glendale.

Both are very popular in that place, and the many friends here and at Glendale join in congratulating them.

Pleasing Musicales.

A delightful musicale was given Wednesday evening by the pupils of Miss Edith Ketchum, at the First Presbyterian church. A large number of people were present, and enjoyed every number, which was carefully given.

The program was in two parts, and consisted of 25 instrumental solos, duets and two eight-handed pieces, and each pupil did their best. May Steusloff sang "My Rocky Mountain Home" very sweetly. Ruth Staley and Iris Hawley each gave a recitation, which were very interesting.

Those taking part in the musicale were Dorothy and May Steusloff, Essie Gosser, Marion Tolman, Ray Pomeroy, Mabel Patrick, Delma Viesko, Lucile Staley, Velma Moffitt, Rosie Brownstein, Abbie and Frank Coryell, Merle Post, Margaret Ostrander, Winona Savage, Iris Hawley, Alice Warner, Zoe Olmstead and Delma Viesko.

"Sohp's" Picnic.

Although the day looked threatening, a gay crowd of 40 "soph's" of the Salem high school, boarded a big hay rack this morning, and hid themselves away to Bybee Lake, a distance of eight miles north of this city. A bountiful lunch was taken along and plenty of hammocks and other picnic accessories, and the day will prove to be one of pleasure, providing Jupiter Pluvius will be good.

Calvert-Tweeddale Wedding.

Miss Ethel Calvert and Mr. Lowe. Tweeddale were married at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. S. Knight, No. 157 Winter street, last evening, in the presence of a few friends of the contracting parties.

Both the young people are well-known in this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Calvert, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tweeddale, of Albany. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Entertained Them.

The Philodorian entertained the Philodorian in Society hall, at Willamette University, last night, serving refreshments, and making the evening one to be remembered.

Playing Ball.

The Rambler Amateur Athletic Club and second Dallas college team are having a match game of baseball this afternoon.

Composing Rooms Improved.

The Journal office, or rather the composing rooms, have had a general overhauling, a new floor being laid, making tanks moved and the floors around it covered with zinc, which is also placed under the linotype. The machine has been raised, and the boys upstairs will hardly speak to the office floor. Well, we are going to have paint at "fixins" down our way before long, and the proud people can't play in our back yard.
