AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT.
Edison—Vaudeville.
A GOOD COMEDY SHOW.

If You Want to Laugh, Go to the Edison Vaudeville Theatre This Week.

Kern and Seimer are a couple of young men who understand how to make laugh, and their songs and witty talk manage to keep the audience going all the time. M. J. Hooley, in an Irish character skit, has some very funny monologue away from the rest, and his finished dancing is unique. John Roberts, in his blackface comedy and musical act, pleased the audience, as he did when he was here some five months ago. His playing of the mouth organ is worth the price of admission. Harry Seimer delivers a neat Dutch Monologue, and sings some good, funny parodies. The illustrated song, "Would You," is pretty, and the illustrations are unique. The Edison-scope shows King Edward, the operator's troubles and when Reuben comes to town. The management wish to announce that on Saturday a souvenir photo of Helen Vance will be presented to every one present. Matinee Wednesday, as usual. If you don't go to Portland on Salem day, see the good show at the Edison, either matinee or night.

THANKS GENTLE BROTHER

The Journal Local Lifts His Hat to the Daily up the Creek

The local on The Journal desires to make an open, free confession, and relieve the strain on his mind. The rural free delivery convention, which was held here last week, was entirely overlooked, not only by him but by the energetic newgatherers of the esteemed contemporary. It would have been still overlooked but for the wide-awake Albany Democrat, who kindly called our attention to it. We accept, with all due humility, the gentle chastisement given in that paper's headlines, and promise not to do it again. Our only excuse is that the rural delivery boys are of such modest demeanor, such gentle and retiring dispositions, such diffident bearing and bashful presence that they never even chirped to the newspapers. Our esteemed exchange in Albany has our thanks, and we take its word that the following statements are true, for we have no way of obtaining now the news at first hands, and we realize that, having seen it in the Democrat, it must be so. We, therefore, have no hesitancy in taking second-handed something that really belonged to us. The Democrat says: Captain C. W. Wallace, J. L. Goin and E. B. Cornett, R. F. D. carriers out of Albany, returned last evening from Salem, where they attended a two-days' annual state convention of rural mail carriers, a great success. There were 35 or 40 carriers of the 160 in the state present, and much enthusiasm prevailed. The carriers were addressed by Mayor Waters and P. H. D'Arcy, of Salem, and C. D. Minton, of the Homestead, and ex-Governors Geer and Moody. Postmaster Hirsch and Assistant P. H. Raymond were among the visitors.

The following officers were elected for next year: A. E. Tower, of Junction, president; K. P. Loop, of McMinnville, first, and H. A. Johnson, Salem, second vice-president; J. H. Goins, Albany, secretary and treasurer; J. H. Goins, Albany, delegate, and J. H. Sebram, Cleone, alternate to the national convention at Indianapolis, Ind.; J. A. Renington, Salem, organizer; H. A. Johnson, Salem; C. R. Allen, Silverton; J. S. Albert, Salem, executive committee; P. Pearson, Turner; K. P. Loop, McMinnville, and Archie Parker, Independence, funeral benefit committee.

F. H. Cunningham was endorsed for the next national president. The report showed prosperity in the organization.

Under the Stars and Bars.
Louisville, Ky., June 13.—The annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will begin in this city at noon tomorrow. Ex-Confederates and their friends and families are arriving in large numbers from every state of the South. They have found Louisville profusely decorated in their honor with the stars and bars of the Confederacy predominating.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and proscribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Prominent Financier Dies.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Musical Graduation.

Last evening at the First Methodist church occurred the graduation of the College of Music. There was a large and appreciative audience and all were well pleased with the fine program.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. The choir gallery was banked with ferns, and this with the large number of floral tributes for the graduates, made it like a flower garden.

The opening number was the second Liszt rhapsody arranged for four hands, and was beautifully rendered by Messrs. Frank Churchill and Chester Catlow, who played brilliantly and in perfect harmony.

Miss Margaret Fisher pleased every one with Liszt's "Liebestraume" and Grieg's "Wedding Day." She played with a clear understanding and perfect technique.

Beethoven's sonata in C minor was brilliantly played by Chester Catlow, and showed careful training and a clear understanding of the great masterpiece.

Miss Jennie Sanders gave "Chopin ballad in G minor" which she rendered in excellent time and brought out the beauties of the piece in a very pleasing manner.

Perhaps one of the best pieces on the program, at least the most difficult, was the "Sonata Eroica by MacDowell," and was rendered by Frank Churchill in a striking manner, and showed great talent.

The last number on the program was "The Parting March," by Miss Elizabeth Will, and deserves especial mention, as she brought out the different parts in a very fine manner.

The entire program was good, and shows musical talent, brought about by careful study and hard labor.

Dean Seley announced the result of the class competition in the writing of original compositions. Frank E. Churchill was awarded the first prize for his waltz in Chopin style, and Chester Catlow the second on his song "A Lullabye." Their teacher, Mr. Frank Newberry, then presented the prizes, the first a fine musical dictionary, and the second a volume of Beethoven sonatas.

Dean Seley presented the class to Prof. Hawley, who made a short, interesting address on music, after which the diplomas were conferred.

Hallock-Welch Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Florence Hallock to James Burton Welch, on Monday afternoon, was of interest to many friends among whom the bride has grown very popular during her two years' residence here. She formerly lived in Pendleton, and was a favorite of the younger set there, several of whom were among the 50 guests attending. The date was chosen because it was the silver wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hallock. Mr. and Mrs. Welch went to Seattle for a short trip and thence to Pendleton to attend the wedding of Mr. Welch's niece, Miss Ida Thompson to Seth Catlin, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Welch will be at home in about a week.—Portland Journal.

Miss Hallock is well known in this city, where she has many friends. She was one of the efficient clerks in the recent session of the legislature.

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Inside facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—Dr. G. G. Green.

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Roscoe's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, which warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration.

But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.
