NO PAPER TOMORROW

Tomorrow being Salem Day at the Lewis and Clark Fair, there will be no paper issued from The Journal office.

SALEM MOVES

The returns from the different agencies indicate that at least 1200 of Salem's citizens will visit Portland tomorrow. There would be more if it was thoroughly understood that there was going to be nothing doing here. Just imagine Salem with all the stores closed, when the fizz of the soda fountain is not heard in the land, when the popcorn won't pop, and the gentle gurgle of the beer bottle is not. When white goods are not in the market, and the 99-cent counter is as still as the mountain stream in winter. You might as well go and join the babbling throng, as to remain and look at deserted windows and closed doors. It is going to be awfully lonesome in Salem when Salem ain't at home. It is going to look like your mother-in-law was coming, and you wanted to go fishing. You might just as well go, for the scribe who pens these lines is going—and so what's the use of staying at home?

On behalf of the executive committee Mr. Derby requests that parties going down take with them such flowers as they can, to be left with the Marion county exhibit at Portland.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM

Following is the program for Salem Day, to be held in the Oregon building, Wednesday, June 14, 1905, at 11 o'clock a. m.
Administration band.
Assemblage called to order by Hon. J. H. Albert, of Salem, on behalf of the state commission.
Introduction of Mayor F. W. Waters, of Salem, who will act as president of the day.
Response on behalf of the Capital City of Oregon, by Judge H. J. Bigger, of Salem.
Stalwart quartet, of Salem, Jacob Wenger, H. C. Epley, Jesse Turner and George Curtis Lee Snyder.
Humorous address by Homer Davenport, entitled "Salem as a Great Chicken Center," and other things.
Stalwart quartet.
Address by Hon. I. H. Bingham, of Eugene.
Stalwart quartet.
Administration band.

Special Street Cars.

The Electric Light and Traction Co. will run extra street cars tomorrow, between 6:30 and 6:45, in time to connect with the train.

Salem in the Mines.

The Oglesby-Talkington mine in Bohemia is coming to the front with a remarkable good showing for the amount of work done. Assays run up to the $500 mark, and the ledge shows at such widely separated points that it is undoubtedly a true vein. Recently the superintendent following the course of the vein cross-cut it on the hill 1500 feet above the present workings, and found 12 feet of quartz with well-defined walls. It seems to have all the ear-marks of a mine, and Mr. Talkington's many friends surely wish him a mine a mile long and just as wide as he wants it.

Marriage License.

County Clerk Roland today issued the papers necessary to permit Miss Edna M. Burton to write her name Mrs. Elmer Walker. The genial county clerk diffidently confessed to having signed his name to 822 of these glory tickets, and confessed to a desire to bring the list right up to date. As the number is now 1644 and only goes double he will have to make it 1906.

DIED.

ROSS.—At the family home, corner Thirteenth and Waller streets, Salem, Or., Tuesday, June 13, 1905, at 1:30 a. m., Mrs. Lizzie Ross, aged about 58 years, of stomach trouble. Deceased was born in New York, but has lived in this city for the past 13 years. She is survived by a husband and three children. The children are Mrs. Kate Smith, Walter E. and Harry Ross, all of this city. The funeral will be held from the residence at 13th and Waller streets tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

John Fechter, Jr., has returned from Niagara Falls, where he attended the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. of the U. S. A. and the world. Mr. Fechter had a pleasant and profitable trip.

Will Assist in Entertainments.

The Misses Wiley, of Portland, have been for some days the guests of Dr. Calbreath's, at the asylum. One of the young ladies is a charming vocalist, and delightful singing is much appreciated by both the patients and the employees of that institution. Her voice is certainly unequalled, both in pitch and carrying powers, and it is esteemed a privilege to be permitted to hear her. Miss Wiley has kindly consented to assist in the musical entertainments now being given for the patients' benefit.

Attention, G. A. R.

Members of Sedgwick Post will attend the funeral of Mrs. Lizzie Ross, late member of Sedgwick Relief Corps, at 2 o'clock p. m., June 14th, from corner of Waller and 13th streets.
DANIEL WEBSTER,
Post Commander.
