

SYSTEMIC CATARRH SO LITTLE UNDERSTOOD

Claims Many Thousands. A Tragedian's Thanks to Pe-ru-na.

ROBERT DOWNING, THE FAMOUS TRAGEDIAN.

In speaking of Peruna, Robert Downing, the famous tragedian, says:

"You may notice that persons in poor health always find the heat most intolerable; this I avoid by using Peruna. I know by the thermometer that the weather is hot, yet I have felt the heat less this summer than ever."

"I find Peruna a preventative against all sudden summer ills that swoop upon me in changing climates and water. It is the finest traveling companion and safeguard against malarial influences."

"The cooling action of Peruna on the mucous membrane makes it invaluable to actors and singers, as it does away with that tendency to sudden hoarseness so apt to overtake one on emerging from a hot dressing room to a draughty stage."

"To sum it up Peruna has done me more good than any tonic I have ever taken,"—Robert Downing.

Dr. Hartman was the first physician in the United States to accurately describe systemic catarrh. His remedy, Peruna, the only systemic catarrh remedy yet devised, is now known all over the civilized world.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Slade-Roberts Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Harriett Isabelle Slade to Mr. John J. Roberts was a happy event Thursday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., No. 220 Chemeketa street, at 9 o'clock, Rev. P. S. Knight performing the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The Smith home was appropriately decorated for the occasion with a profusion of flowers and plants. The reception room was especially pretty. The predominating color was red, and was carried out in crimson rambler roses and red carnations. The mantel was banked with the red roses and these with the beautiful green foliage made a lovely scene. The stair rail was very pretty, ocean spray and vines being used effectively. The parlor was in pink and white, baskets of roses, sweet peas and asparagus vine, being used in abundance while beautiful potted plants added much to the scene.

At 9 o'clock Miss Claire Holmes played Lohengren's wedding march and the young couple took their places in the front parlor where Rev. Knight performed the ring ceremony. Dr. T. C. Smith, Jr., gave the bride away. They were unattended. The bride was especially sweet and girlish in her gown of white silk crepe de chine, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated with a profusion of sweet peas and roses, the color scheme being pink. The table was especially attractive, candelabras with pink shades being used. White ribbons were festooned from the corners of the table to the chandelier. Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. E. Sherman and the Misses Alene and Lou Thompson.

The bride is quite well known in this city where she has been for the past year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Slade of Oxford, Canada, and a cousin of Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., whom she has been visiting, and is a very charming young lady. She has been attending the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston and is a talented vocalist, and has delighted Salem audiences with her sweet voice.

Mr. Roberts is a resident of this city, and a member of the firm of T. A. Livesley & Co., prominent hop dealers

H. C. EPLEY, LEADER OF THE STALWART QUARTET

And People's Candidate for Member of the Board of Education

DR. EPLEY'S PLATFORM.

In an interview Friday Dr. Epley stated that, if elected, there will be no strings on him, politically or otherwise.

"I will stand for the best possible advancement of the public schools, and for the best business interests of the district."

"I am opposed to star chamber sessions of the board, and will make a demand for square business methods in every department."

of this city. Both are very popular in the social circles of the city and have many friends.

Many telegrams of congratulations from friends and relatives in the east and elsewhere were received. They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents including silver and cut glass, from friends, who were glad to show in every way their happiness in the prospect of the happy life just entered.

They left on the overland train for the south on a short wedding trip, after which they will reside in this city.

Boles-Rowe Wedding.

A pretty home wedding took place in Philomath Wednesday evening, when Miss Kittie Boles, of Philomath, and Mr. Harry Rowe, of this city, were married at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Neff, elder of Oregon and Washington United Brethren church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The home was decorated in a profusion of flowers. The parlors were a mass of bride's roses, and the ceremony took place in a beautiful bower, which was filled with graceful ferns and clusters of roses were arranged in every available space. Mrs. Ella Jones, of Portland, sister of the bride, played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served in the dining room, which artistically decorated, the prevailing color being pink, and was carried out with roses and sweet peas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boles, of Philomath, and is a charming young lady, and popular among her friends. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rowe, of this city, late of Sac City, Iowa, and is a young man of sterling qualities.

They will reside in their new home on 18th street, in this city. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Ella Jones, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Cooper, Nebraska, and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Thomas of this city.

Today is the fortieth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, and all the children and grandchildren will be present, and it will be an event in the Boles family.

Engagement Announced.

Cards are out, announcing the engagement of David Griggs, of Cottage Grove, and Miss Maude Frances Bingham, of Eugene. Mr. Griggs is well-known, and is engaged in the drug business at Cottage Grove. Miss Bingham is the daughter of Hon. I. H. Bingham, representative of Lane county.
