CLAIMS HE IS CALLED

Lewis Hahn Will Pitch His Tent Here and Work for the Lord

The communication printed below is, in some respects, unique. The writer is undoubtedly conscientious in his belief, and pure of heart. The modern idea has little faith in miracles, and yet, the healings of Schattler, and others who claim only power through faith, are of record. Schattler was followed by immense throngs of followers, devout believers in his divine powers, and certainly the reports of his many wonderful cures gives evidence, not to the fact that he was divine, but to that that he performed things beyond human understanding. What Hahn may do remains to be seen, and yet there are stories of his work that classify him with Schattler. However, here is his story:

Was called by vision to preach the everlasting gospel, to heal the sick by prayer of faith through the divine power of God and to testify to the second, soon coming, of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The people of Salem and vicinity will be honored by another campmeeting. Lewis Hahn, who resides on Route 8, two miles southwest of Brooks, came to the United States from Europe 14 years ago, and has lived ever since in the United States, and he came to Oregon five and a half years ago, and has lived here ever since. Was saved from infidelity two years ago, and was called in a vision, when he says the Master, Jesus Christ, the son of the living God, appeared before him to testify of what he had seen and heard, and he was obedient to the one that spoke to him, and went out to preach the everlasting gospel of the unchangeable living God, that dwells in heaven and with them that obey. At first in his neighborhood, and then went all over the state of Washington, and God was with him, confirming his word by healing the sick. When returned from Washington he was inspired by the holy spirit of God to publish a booklet containing 75 pages, under the title "Behold He Cometh With Clouds, the Messiah" where in he sets forth the truth of the unchangeable gospel and latest revelation concerning the coming of Christ to give the light that was shown to him unto his fellow creatures, and expand his own means and devoted his time and has distributed his literature free of charge to persons in 20 different prisons, in 13 different states. And he shall carry on his last journey to the state of California. Mighty miracles were wrought by his hands through the divine power of God. Casting out devils and healing the sick as recorded in the gospel. And after he returned from California received a witness making full proof of the ministry, and devoting his time unto the gospel work, to sell his farm and make his home either in Salem or Portland, Oregon. As this is the most suitable climate for him he has ever lived in, in a few days he will pitch up a home-made tent in Salem. The frame of the tent was given to him by one of his honorable neighbors, and the canvas for the tent will be bought in Salem. In a few days meeting will be opened and last as long as God wants, and then go to Portland. Ministerial help and singers are needed, both in German and English. Every gift of charity will be thankfully accepted. Respectfully,
LEWIS HAHN,
Salem, Or.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
