PRESS EXPRESS OPINIONS

About Divers Oregon Persons, Officials and Things

Honest Confession Good for the Soul.
(Eugene Register.)
Judgement and common sense are essential qualities in journalism.

Made Happy While You Wait.
(Eugene Journal.)

One firm of lawyers in Salem, Bonham & Martin, have obtained forty divorces during the past twelve months an average of more than three each month. Salem is a good place to get divorces, and Bonham & Martin can get them, so there it is not necessary to go Chicago or Dakota.

Some One Answer.
(Santiam News.)

If Oregon should go democratic at the election a year hence because of dissension in the ranks of the Republican party, because of legislative extravagance, and because that a number of the leading men of that party are being prosecuted for crime, would not the Republican party receive the rebuke that it richly deserves?

He Will Hear Himself as Others Hear Him.
(Toledo Reporter.)

It is reported that Judge Whitney, of Albany has been cured of deafness by electric treatment. It is hoped that the judge will now be able to hear his own voice and in his future campaign speeches will lower it so as not to rupture the acoustic nerves of his auditors.

How a Woodburn Paper Downed the Rates.

(Eugene Guard.)
J. P. Jones, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific Company was in Eugene today and stated that the giving of a low rate to Woodburn was through an error. The Woodburn paper advertised the rate at 90 cents, instead of $1.15, and as a protest was made the company graciously furnished a special train and furnished 90-cent transportation.

The above statement is due the company, but had we advertised the rate at $2.50 here would we have received this rate? The company is to be commended for its action with Woodburn.

End of Controversy With Rev. Townsend.

(Roseburg Review.)
I hereby challenge you to a public debate on the former issues, same to be held in your church or elsewhere, at such time and under such conditions as may be mutually agreed. This will afford me an opportunity to hold you to the subject, while you will have ample opportunity to prove me an "atheist," a "Pagan," a "fool," etc., and to "reduce the swelling that disfigures my upper story."

Very respectfully yours,
LOUIS BARZEE.
Roseburg, Ore., June 15, 1905.

Several Quartets.
(Eugene Guard, Dem.)

The following appeared in yesterday's Register:

"The Portland Quartette."
"The Portland quartette is now composed of Larry Sullivan, Harvey Scott, Fred Merrill and Francis Healey. You ought to hear them warble.—Astorian.

Why not add that the state quartette is Jack Mathews, Binger Hermann, J. D. Mitchell and J. N. Williamson, and the national quartette is President Roosevelt, Secretary Hitchcock, Commissioner Richards and Judge DeHaven?

Democratic Courtesies.
(Roseburg Plaindealer.)

The Democratic Eugene Guard and the Roseburg Review want Frank C. Baker, Republican state committee man, to resign. It was through the energy, ability and indomitable pluck and perseverance of Frank C. Baker that Oregon rolled up the largest Republican vote in its history last November, which exceeded the estimates of the most optimistic. No wonder the Democratic brethren want Frank C. to resign! However, the Republican party of Oregon will still endeavor to get along some way without soliciting or heeding the very courteous suggestions and advice of the Democratic press.

Friends of the People.
(Dallas Observer.)

The Development meeting at Independence developed the fact that there is no dearth of office-seekers in Oregon. They were all there except "Doc" Withycombe, as he couldn't get away. Prominent among the "glad-handers" were: Hon. Walter Tooze, the Patrick Henry of Woodburn, who aspires to step into the shoes of Congressman Binger Hermann; Hon. Ben Jones, of Toledo, who wouldn't be averse to serving another term as joint representative for Polk and Lincoln counties; Hon. Jim Cooper, whose aspirations are an exact ditto of those of Mr. Jones; tall Timothy Geer, Hi Plummer's bosom friend, who once declared that he was not a "miscellaneous candidate," but who doubtless isn't so particular now, and a host of other patriots who would be glad to serve the dear people. It was a great day for the politicians, and they all kept busy.

Exit Gasoline Motor.
(Forest Grove News.)

The S. P. gasoline motor car made its first trip to Forest Grove Friday morning, arriving here at 11:30. News of its coming was spread about town, and at the appointed time a large crowd was at the depot when the car, loaded with Engineer Fields and other S. P. officials, besides the Hillsboro ladies band and citizens, came in. While here Mr. Fields stated that the car would not be put on this line as at first announced, as it was unable to climb the 4 per cent grade out of Portland. He was willing to do what he could to give Forest Grove a better service and the matter of a stub train service aside from the regular train was discussed. Mr. Fields wished to know what Forest Grove wanted and was told by representative citizens that they thought that a three-trip service would satisfactorily meet the demands, upon which suggestion he promised to bring the matter before the officials of the road and that he would do all he could to grant our request.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by J. C. Perry, druggist, at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

EXPERIMENTING WITH FLOUR.

Doesn't always pay, unless you have the Salem mills printed on the bag. It is always a guarantee of white and delicious bread, fluffy biscuits, and delicious cake and pastry. It gives a sweet, nutty flavor to your bread that can't be obtained from any other flour milled, and is wholesome and nutritious. After once testing it you will never use any other.
