THE ONLY JOHN L. TONIGHT

Greatest of All Fistic Artists to Be at the Grand Tonight

(Copy of letter received from C. A. Marshall, manager of the Lyceum Theater, Duluth, Minn.)
Lyceum Theater, Duluth, Minn.
April 29, 1905.

Mr. John L. Sullivan, Spokane, Wash.
My Dear Mr. Sullivan: We have heard nothing but good words for you from the thousands of people who saw you while in Duluth. They are all glad to see you succeed, and although I did not have a chance to meet you personally, wherever I go they ask me to write you and give you their best wishes.

It may be pleasing to you to know that more people stood up at your performance in Duluth (at the biggest theater in the city) than at any other performance or other show since the arena was built, and we have a seating capacity of 1621. "Ben Hur," and all the other big drawing shows included, have never done the business that you did here. This shows that you are still close to the hearts of the people. I never expected that John L. Sullivan would break all records, but I can assure you that it gives me great pleasure to say these words to you, and I hope if you think of coming back this way you will let me set up your time over our whole circuit of thirty theaters. Meantime, we all wish you continued health, happiness and prosperity.

I wish you would let me know when the fight comes off with Mitchell, as I am sure you can whip him in three rounds, unless he introduces his foot-tactics, in which event you might wish to spend an extra round on him before you knock him out.
I am, your warm and personal friend,
CHAS. A. MARSHALL,
Manager Lyceum Theater, Duluth, Minn.

John L. Sullivan and company give performance at the Grand opera house this (Tuesday) evening, June 20.

Torture of a Preacher.
The story of the torture of Rev. Q. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A good cure for diseased conditions of throat and lungs. At J. C. Perry's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

State Encampment.
The annual state encampment of the G. A. R. begins a three-days' session in Oregon city today. A large number of veterans went down from this city this morning. It is expected that a large delegation from all parts of the state will be in attendance. On Monday the veterans of this state will depart for Washington, who are holding sessions at Vancouver, Wash., and they will attend the Lewis & Clark Exposition, Friday being "G. A. R." day.

WITH AN ABUNDANCE OF MONEY

At a low rate of interest, we are able to meet the legitimate needs of this community. The man who borrows a hundred dollars needs it just as badly as the man who requires a thousand. On approved security, we are ready to accommodate the small borrower. We shall be glad to talk with those most interested.

GOOD WHEN SOBER

Nan Byxbee Tells a Little Story in the Seattle Star

"Papa is good to us; awf-ly good to us, when he is sober. But he mos'ly allus comes home drunk now." These were the words of little Willie Dougherty, aged six, as he stood in the juvenile court before Judge A. W. Frater on Monday morning, tightly grasping the brown fist of his five-year-old brother Johnny, both clad in faded soldier suits from which several brass buttons were missing.

Thomas Dougherty, father of the diminutive pair, stood before the judge, also, his head bowed in shame; one hand he held in a ragged pocket, and the other hung at his side, shaking with the palsy of long drink. Truant Officer Ketchum had rounded up the little fellows at 914, Fourth, in their father's lodging house for men. They were hungry, and had only a piece of dry, hardened bread to eat.

"Yes, yer honor," said the now penitent father, "yes, I have been drinking hard for nearly three weeks. But if you'll only give me a chance and not take my boys away from me, I'll try to do better and keep sober. You see their mother is dead, and I haven't had anybody to keep me straight since she died. But if you'll just give me another chance, I'll try to be decent and take care of the boys." Judge Frater gave the remorseful Dougherty a lecture and a warning. "You can have until a week from next Saturday to prove to this court that you are sincere," said the court. "If you keep straight until then, this may let you keep your boys. If you don't, they will be taken from you and put where they will have plenty to eat, good schooling and a chance to grow up into honest men."

"Thank ye, your honor!" said Thomas Dougherty, humbly as he wiped his swollen eyes with a bandana handkerchief which he had drawn from his pocket with a palsied hand. "I'll try hard, and I think I can brace up this time."

Truant Officer Ketchum martialed the trio out of the court room and, with a little, fat, sunburned fist in either hand, the remorseful drunkard went down the court house steps and out into the sunshine, the two little chaps in faded soldier suits trotting affectionately beside him.

A Fearful Fate.
It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Pilea. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Miles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at J. C. Perry's Drug Store.

Leslie's Monthly Magazine for July.
Henry Wallace Phillips' first novel, "Plain Mary Smith," a romance of Red Saunders, the second installment of which appears in Leslie's Monthly for July, has proved a huge success from the very start. The charm of its rare humor, and intense Americanism has already made a host of friends; it is a story to be read aloud. Among the special articles of this number, Miss Agnes C. Laut tells the story of Gray, the discovery of the Columbia river; Arthur Goodrich discusses "Law and its Opportunities," Charles F. Brownell writes of the "Wild Animal Market," and Dr. A. C. Seely and Leroy Scott have a capital article on the "Miracles of Surgery." Miss Call contributes her paper on "Every Day Living." The month's short stories are by Harvey J. O. Higgins, Cy Warner, James Weber Linn, Dorothy Canfield, Lawrence Perry and others. Marginalia includes some excellent military verse by Alfred Damos Runyon.
