THE OLD WHITE CORNER

THE DEPENDABLE STORE

Let us reflect. Did you ever hear of a store that was always telling what they do do, or what they don't do? We have. When you hear of a store of this kind, just watch 'em, and you will invariably discover that what they say they do, and what they say they don't do—they do.

We endeavor to make our store a dependable store. "Our chickens never come home to roost." We do as we advertise; no one is ever disappointed who comes to us for an honest deal. When we offer a premium we don't ask you to pay for it. Do others?

Ladies' and children's

A line that did sell at 25c to $1 each. If you are not too particular you will lay in a big supply.

New Saiting Silks

The very latest yard-wide goods, just received. Priced just a little cheaper.

15c Wash Goods

Very good values that formerly sold at 25c to 30c a yard.

25c Wash Goods

They did sell for 35c to 50c a yard. Now they are only 25c.

Bleached Muslin

5c yd

Full yard wide.

Accordeon Plaited Skirts

The navy blue ones are in. Come and see them.

Capsheaf Safety Pins

Best in the market. We have them.

THE END OF THE RACE

Mr. Otto Wilson received a phone from Mr. Huss, who is driving the "Old Scout" Oldsmobile in the race from New York to Portland, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The phone was from Sweet Home, about ten miles beyond Lebanon. Mr. Keats left this morning to meet Huss, and Mr. Wilson left at 3:30 to escort the party in. The run was made from Prineville in the last 24 hours.

SALEM AFFAIRS

All Sorts of Local Paragraphs Left Over From Other Pages.

Today is the longest day in the year.

Many people who expected to see John L. Sullivan ride up from the depot this forenoon in an open hack were disappointed, but they will have all kinds of chances to see him in the limelight at the opera house tonight.

An alarm of fire at 1:30 this afternoon was turned in caused by a chimney fire at the H. B. Thielson residence on the corner of Court and Capital street, occupied by Justice Wolverton. No damage.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

C. F. Lansing was in Portland yesterday.

Mrs. S. R. Jessup returned this morning from a visit at Portland.

S. T. Richardson goes to Portland this afternoon on legal business.

Hon. J. H. Scott, of Tangent, is a juror in the federal court this week.

Miss Laura McClaine went to Eugene this morning for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Laura Ambrose, of Halsey, returned home today, after a visit in this city.

Miss Flubacher has gone as a delegate to the German Baptist conference at Seattle.

Rev. N. J. Crawford left this morning for The Dalles to attend the U. B. conference.

Mrs. Chas. Watt went to Jefferson today on a short trip in the interest of the Artisan lodge.

Thos. Blundell shipped two boxes of Royal Anne cherries and one of Bing to the Portland fair today. They were beautiful.

C. L. May, A. W. Lauder and Miss Marguerite Peterson, of Hazel Green, have gone to The Dalles to attend the U. B. conference.

Messrs. A. R. Marker and Metcalf, W. U. students and football men, went to Southern Oregon, where they will spend the summer.

R. E. Downing, Gid Steiner, E. H. Pugh, Alex LaFollette and Sam Hughes went down to attend as jurors in the federal court.

Rev. Hermann, of the German Baptist church, left for Seattle to attend the Pacific annual conference. He has been at Salem four years.

Mr. J. L. Card, of Alviso, Cal., has returned to his home, after a week's visit with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Catharine Brown, of this city.

Miss Olive Nutter, of Gibbon Nebraska, arrived in this city last week, and will spend some time here with her brother, Herbert Nutter, and other relatives.

Miss Lena Schindler went to Stayton today, where she will attend the wedding of Miss Ethel Gardner to Mr. Charles Stayton, which takes place tomorrow.

Silverton School Meeting.

Silverton, Or., June 19, 1905.

The regular annual meeting of school district No. 4 was held in this city today. There was considerable interest taken by both sides by the same factions who differed in the recent city election in regard to the election of a director and clerk.

A. A. Grinde was elected director in place of L. J. Adams, and J. E. Hammond was elected over L. F. Mascher for clerk for one year.

The meeting voted a tax levy of four mills for the purpose of defraying ordinary expenses.

Miss Weller's Recital.

The pupils of Miss Elma Weller will give a musical recital at the Unitarian church this evening and Wednesday evening, June 21st, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. The recital this evening will be given by the younger grades, and that on the following evening by the more advanced pupils. The friends of the pupils and Miss Weller are cordially invited to attend the recitals.

Glory Tickets.

Two marriage licenses were issued in the county clerk's office this afternoon to Norma G. Warnock and W. R. Meeks, J. P. Warnock witness, and to Emma L. Kirk and E. H. Martensen, of Olympia.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN TONIGHT

In Seven Months 143 Knock-outs a Million Dollars Won and Spent

John L. Sullivan, and the accomplished artists who accompany him, arrived from Portland on the morning train, and are domiciled at the Willamette. John L. being a star of the first magnitude, so shines in the eyes of the sporting fraternity that, while his associates are right on the top in their lines, he makes them look like the milky way. There is perhaps no more unique character in history. With no opportunities in youth, but with a mass of muscle and bone, of bulldog courage, and a lightness of foot and a heaviness of hand that were unequalled, he literally fought his way to the front. In his ring days the long-distance telephone fighting had not been inaugurated. He made no excuses, asked no favors. His castor was in the ring, and he was ready to meet all comers at all times, drawing only the color line. In seven months he met and knocked out 143 men. Today he is in the very prime of life, 46 years old. His neck measures 21 inches and his arms and limbs are the same as 15 years ago. His waist line has increased, and as he sits he seems heavy and sluggish. But when that massive form gets on its feet with his 236 pounds of bone and fat and muscle, it is a different man. He has the quickness of a cat with the size of the panther, all his motions are feline, and when one sees the vastness of the man, and notes the sinuosity of his movements one can form some idea of the immense boiler power and amount of steam there is in the machine.

The Journal reporter had the pleasure of smoking a cigar with him, a big round Havana, typical of the man, and as he realized that Sullivan smoked that brand and lived, he expressed his pleasure that their mutual acquaintance was—outside of the ring. The cigar was a knock-out.

Many people have an idea that a boxing contest is brutal. There was never a greater mistake, and tonight Salem people will be given an opportunity to see the Paderowski of the art, and the last and only opportunity of seeing the world's greatest gladiator. If space and time did not forbid a long and interesting story could be written. Mr. Sullivan has earned in his line more than a million dollars, and some of them ever got rusty in his pockets. On May 18th, at Spokane, he signed articles to meet Charlie Mitchell, the English champion, whom he chased all around the 24-foot ring in Madison Square in 1891. The meeting will take place at Tacoma September 18th, and it is safe to say that it will be a Sullivan victory. Looking at the man there is no other answer.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The post-graduate course of the Northwest Normal College of Music gave their graduating recital at the First Baptist church last evening, and a large and appreciative audience was present.

The graduates are Vera Mary Byars and Nina Pearl Johnson. Miss Gertrude Johnson assisted as reader, and the whole program was most enjoyable. The work of the students was very good, and shows much talent.

Tonight there will be the graduating exercises of the college, and an excellent program has been prepared. The public is cordially invited to be present.
